INITIATES — Lillian Hill, left, and Imogene Ralston, right, are two new members of Alpha Kappa Delta honorary for teachers. They were initiated at the May 15 meeting of the group.

Sorority Ends Year

Initiation, installation of new officers, and completion of old business marked the last meeting of the year for Alpha Kappa Delta, honorary for teachers.

The meeting was held May 15 at the home of Mrs. Bertha Hultman, who served dessert prior to the business session which was conducted by the president, Hazel Lear.

In an impressive international-ly observed ritual, Lillian Hill and Imogene Ralston were initiated as new members of the honorary.

Ruth Bingham, May Phinney and Hazel Lear reported on the Alpha Kappa Delta state convention which they attended in Eugene.

Installed as new officers were May Phinney, president; Maxine Marsh, vice president; Ruth Bingham, treasurer; Bertha Hultman, corresponding secretary; Katie Lake, recording secretary; Geneva Duncan, historian; Dortha Buck and Betty Boyle, chaplains, and Leona Repp, sergeant-at-arms.
