

Eulalona DAR

The year's activities of Eulalona Chapter DAR were climaxed by a potluck dinner held in the parlors of the First Methodist Church. The committee for the arrangements consisted of Mrs. Paul Deller, chairman, Mrs. Wade Crawford, Mrs. Robert Odell, Mrs. Tom Tenney and Mrs. Rollin Thompson.

The theme for the evening was American Indians and many things were on display both individually owned and from the Klamath County Museum. People contributing to this display were Janet Favell, Susan Kent and Mark Hawley, all students of Mrs. Deller's fifth grade class and the adults were Mrs. Wade Crawford, Mrs. Helen Thomas, Mrs. Guy Barton and Mrs. Helen Mueller.

Mrs. Raymond Hall, in charge of the program, gave a very interesting talk on American Indian women who have influenced history.

Mrs. Ralph Richardson accompanied by Mrs. Anne Curry sang several selections in the Indian theme.

Guests of the group were Mrs. Buford Hayden, an ex-member of Eulalona Chapter, who now resides in Medford; Mrs. Boone Harding, also of Medford, a past state regent of DAR, and Mrs. Henry Nicol, a resident of Klamath Falls, but a member in Lakeview.

Mrs. Will Wood, regent, presided at the business meeting after the invocation by Mrs. Julian Ager and the salute to the flag led by Mrs. Roland Wright.

Mrs. Baldwin reported that Mrs. William Wales had been elected president of the state CAR and that there would be a silver tea held by CAR at the home of Mrs. Ed Robinson, 2030 Van Ness.

Potholders were collected for the Country Fair to be held at Newell House in August.

Mrs. Charles Wells, national defense chairman, and Dr. Miriam Luten, magazine chairman, both gave committee reports. It was reported, too, that Mrs. Roland Wright, chairman of the DAR flags, won an award at the state conference for having sold 45 flags to the Girl Scouts, 49 flags to the Camp Fire Girls, and 10 to the Boy Scouts. In addition to this she distributed 100 flag-rodles.

Activities Saturday start at 9 a.m. with the Senior Women's Breakfast in the Student Union. This event, which honors women of the 1963 graduating class, is open to all returning alumnae.

A campus tour to acquaint returning alumni with the changing university will be at 10 a.m.

The Alumni Day Luncheon will be in the Student Union at 11:30 a.m. Short talks will be given by representatives of each reunion class.

At 8 p.m. Saturday night the Half-Century Club will hold a reception in the Student Union.

Sunday's activities include the traditional Flower and Fern Procession for alumnae and senior women. This will be at 1 p.m. at the site of the Pioneer Mother statue.

Commencement and baccalaureate exercises and the conferring of degrees on members of the class of 1963 will be at an outdoor ceremony in Hayward Field at 2:30 p.m.

BELT BONUS
Belts can be an important costume accessory. The fashion-conscious woman should not overlook their possibilities.

QUEEN - ELECT — Sally Hanville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hanville, will be installed as honored queen of Bethel 61, International Order of Job's Daughters, on Saturday, June 8, at the Scottish Rite Temple. The public ceremonies will start at 8 p.m. — Photo by Miller-Williams

TO HEAD BETHEL — Laurie Bruns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Brannan, will be installed as honored queen of Bethel No. 6, International Order of Job's Daughters, on Friday, June 7. The public ceremonies will start at 8 p.m. in the Masonic Temple. A reception and dance will follow. — Photo by Ferebee

ROYALTY — Sacred Heart Academy junior-senior Prom King Ed Luczycki and Queen Margaret Ann Casey, crowned by Judy Kosen and Richard Owens, junior class president, accept the homage of the court composed of a couple from each of the sophomore, junior and senior classes.

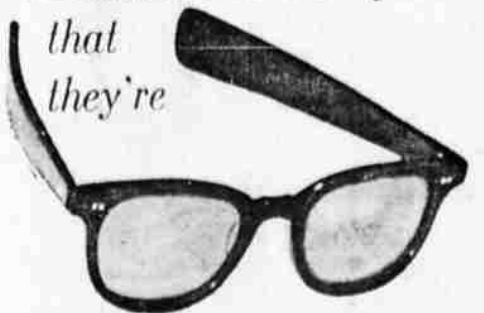

BETWEEN DANCES — During intermission time at the Sacred Heart Academy Prom, John Phillips, Marlu Costel and Judy Kosen enjoy refreshments.

PROM TIME — The Avonties play for dancers at the annual Sacred Heart Academy Junior-Senior Prom, held at the Yacht Club on Saturday, May 4. The theme, "Claire de Lune," was carried out by a wall-length mural of a moonlit lake and a cascading waterfall in a miniature rock garden.

New Columbian Optical Diamond Sun Glass Lenses are so sturdy that they're guaranteed against breakage!

Right! Because of an intense heat treatment, these lenses have many times the strength of ordinary sun glasses. If a lens should break, we will make replacement without charge. Yet... they're made of finest optical glass in a horizon grey shade that's scientifically superior to other lenses. Frames are finished to delicate feminine requirements or handsome and massive for men.

Convenient Credit
We give 2 1/2% Green Stamps
our 58th year
COLUMBIAN OPTICAL CO.
730 Main TU 4-7121

... the wedding

arranged by our bridal salon where brides-to-be find skilled assistance in planning weddings small or large... informal or lavishly elegant.

Reunions Planned

Alumni representing nine University of Oregon graduating classes will be at the University Sat., June 8, for the annual Alumni Reunion Day.

The reunion classes are 1913, 1918, 1923, 1933, 1938, 1943, 1948, and 1953.

The University's Half-Century Club will also hold a reunion and will initiate new members—the class of 1913.

A new feature of the 1963 Alumni Reunion is the housing of classmates in Walton Hall, one of the university's new dormitories. Each class will be housed in a wing of the dormitory and the class dinner, at 7 p.m. Sat., will be held in the wing dining room.

Registration of alumni will start Friday, June 7, at 12 noon in the Erb Memorial Union. Alumni may also register in Walton Hall Friday from 5 to 9 p.m. Registration Saturday will be in the Erb Memorial Union from 8 a.m. to 12 noon.

Alumni Day activities will include the Pauline Potter Homer benefit tea Friday at 2 p.m. in the Alumni Hall, Gerlinger.

Activities Saturday start at 9 a.m. with the Senior Women's Breakfast in the Student Union. This event, which honors women of the 1963 graduating class, is open to all returning alumnae.

A campus tour to acquaint returning alumni with the changing university will be at 10 a.m.

The Alumni Day Luncheon will be in the Student Union at 11:30 a.m. Short talks will be given by representatives of each reunion class.

At 8 p.m. Saturday night the Half-Century Club will hold a reception in the Student Union.

Sunday's activities include the traditional Flower and Fern Procession for alumnae and senior women. This will be at 1 p.m. at the site of the Pioneer Mother statue.

Commencement and baccalaureate exercises and the conferring of degrees on members of the class of 1963 will be at an outdoor ceremony in Hayward Field at 2:30 p.m.

BELT BONUS
Belts can be an important costume accessory. The fashion-conscious woman should not overlook their possibilities.

QUEEN - ELECT — Sally Hanville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hanville, will be installed as honored queen of Bethel 61, International Order of Job's Daughters, on Saturday, June 8, at the Scottish Rite Temple. The public ceremonies will start at 8 p.m. — Photo by Miller-Williams

TO HEAD BETHEL — Laurie Bruns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Brannan, will be installed as honored queen of Bethel No. 6, International Order of Job's Daughters, on Friday, June 7. The public ceremonies will start at 8 p.m. in the Masonic Temple. A reception and dance will follow. — Photo by Ferebee

PROM TIME — The Avonties play for dancers at the annual Sacred Heart Academy Junior-Senior Prom, held at the Yacht Club on Saturday, May 4. The theme, "Claire de Lune," was carried out by a wall-length mural of a moonlit lake and a cascading waterfall in a miniature rock garden.

BETWEEN DANCES — During intermission time at the Sacred Heart Academy Prom, John Phillips, Marlu Costel and Judy Kosen enjoy refreshments.

ROYALTY — Sacred Heart Academy junior-senior Prom King Ed Luczycki and Queen Margaret Ann Casey, crowned by Judy Kosen and Richard Owens, junior class president, accept the homage of the court composed of a couple from each of the sophomore, junior and senior classes.

REUNIONS PLANNED
Alumni representing nine University of Oregon graduating classes will be at the University Sat., June 8, for the annual Alumni Reunion Day.

The reunion classes are 1913, 1918, 1923, 1933, 1938, 1943, 1948, and 1953.

The University's Half-Century Club will also hold a reunion and will initiate new members—the class of 1913.

A new feature of the 1963 Alumni Reunion is the housing of classmates in Walton Hall, one of the university's new dormitories. Each class will be housed in a wing of the dormitory and the class dinner, at 7 p.m. Sat., will be held in the wing dining room.

Registration of alumni will start Friday, June 7, at 12 noon in the Erb Memorial Union. Alumni may also register in Walton Hall Friday from 5 to 9 p.m. Registration Saturday will be in the Erb Memorial Union from 8 a.m. to 12 noon.

Alumni Day activities will include the Pauline Potter Homer benefit tea Friday at 2 p.m. in the Alumni Hall, Gerlinger.

Activities Saturday start at 9 a.m. with the Senior Women's Breakfast in the Student Union. This event, which honors women of the 1963 graduating class, is open to all returning alumnae.

A campus tour to acquaint returning alumni with the changing university will be at 10 a.m.

The Alumni Day Luncheon will be in the Student Union at 11:30 a.m. Short talks will be given by representatives of each reunion class.

At 8 p.m. Saturday night the Half-Century Club will hold a reception in the Student Union.

Sunday's activities include the traditional Flower and Fern Procession for alumnae and senior women. This will be at 1 p.m. at the site of the Pioneer Mother statue.

Commencement and baccalaureate exercises and the conferring of degrees on members of the class of 1963 will be at an outdoor ceremony in Hayward Field at 2:30 p.m.

BELT BONUS
Belts can be an important costume accessory. The fashion-conscious woman should not overlook their possibilities.

QUEEN - ELECT — Sally Hanville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hanville, will be installed as honored queen of Bethel 61, International Order of Job's Daughters, on Saturday, June 8, at the Scottish Rite Temple. The public ceremonies will start at 8 p.m. — Photo by Miller-Williams

TO HEAD BETHEL — Laurie Bruns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Brannan, will be installed as honored queen of Bethel No. 6, International Order of Job's Daughters, on Friday, June 7. The public ceremonies will start at 8 p.m. in the Masonic Temple. A reception and dance will follow. — Photo by Ferebee

PROM TIME — The Avonties play for dancers at the annual Sacred Heart Academy Junior-Senior Prom, held at the Yacht Club on Saturday, May 4. The theme, "Claire de Lune," was carried out by a wall-length mural of a moonlit lake and a cascading waterfall in a miniature rock garden.

BETWEEN DANCES — During intermission time at the Sacred Heart Academy Prom, John Phillips, Marlu Costel and Judy Kosen enjoy refreshments.

ROYALTY — Sacred Heart Academy junior-senior Prom King Ed Luczycki and Queen Margaret Ann Casey, crowned by Judy Kosen and Richard Owens, junior class president, accept the homage of the court composed of a couple from each of the sophomore, junior and senior classes.

REUNIONS PLANNED
Alumni representing nine University of Oregon graduating classes will be at the University Sat., June 8, for the annual Alumni Reunion Day.

The reunion classes are 1913, 1918, 1923, 1933, 1938, 1943, 1948, and 1953.

The University's Half-Century Club will also hold a reunion and will initiate new members—the class of 1913.

A new feature of the 1963 Alumni Reunion is the housing of classmates in Walton Hall, one of the university's new dormitories. Each class will be housed in a wing of the dormitory and the class dinner, at 7 p.m. Sat., will be held in the wing dining room.

Registration of alumni will start Friday, June 7, at 12 noon in the Erb Memorial Union. Alumni may also register in Walton Hall Friday from 5 to 9 p.m. Registration Saturday will be in the Erb Memorial Union from 8 a.m. to 12 noon.

Alumni Day activities will include the Pauline Potter Homer benefit tea Friday at 2 p.m. in the Alumni Hall, Gerlinger.

Activities Saturday start at 9 a.m. with the Senior Women's Breakfast in the Student Union. This event, which honors women of the 1963 graduating class, is open to all returning alumnae.

A campus tour to acquaint returning alumni with the changing university will be at 10 a.m.

The Alumni Day Luncheon will be in the Student Union at 11:30 a.m. Short talks will be given by representatives of each reunion class.

At 8 p.m. Saturday night the Half-Century Club will hold a reception in the Student Union.

Sunday's activities include the traditional Flower and Fern Procession for alumnae and senior women. This will be at 1 p.m. at the site of the Pioneer Mother statue.

Commencement and baccalaureate exercises and the conferring of degrees on members of the class of 1963 will be at an outdoor ceremony in Hayward Field at 2:30 p.m.

BELT BONUS
Belts can be an important costume accessory. The fashion-conscious woman should not overlook their possibilities.

QUEEN - ELECT — Sally Hanville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hanville, will be installed as honored queen of Bethel 61, International Order of Job's Daughters, on Saturday, June 8, at the Scottish Rite Temple. The public ceremonies will start at 8 p.m. — Photo by Miller-Williams

TO HEAD BETHEL — Laurie Bruns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Brannan, will be installed as honored queen of Bethel No. 6, International Order of Job's Daughters, on Friday, June 7. The public ceremonies will start at 8 p.m. in the Masonic Temple. A reception and dance will follow. — Photo by Ferebee

PROM TIME — The Avonties play for dancers at the annual Sacred Heart Academy Junior-Senior Prom, held at the Yacht Club on Saturday, May 4. The theme, "Claire de Lune," was carried out by a wall-length mural of a moonlit lake and a cascading waterfall in a miniature rock garden.

BETWEEN DANCES — During intermission time at the Sacred Heart Academy Prom, John Phillips, Marlu Costel and Judy Kosen enjoy refreshments.

ROYALTY — Sacred Heart Academy junior-senior Prom King Ed Luczycki and Queen Margaret Ann Casey, crowned by Judy Kosen and Richard Owens, junior class president, accept the homage of the court composed of a couple from each of the sophomore, junior and senior classes.

REUNIONS PLANNED
Alumni representing nine University of Oregon graduating classes will be at the University Sat., June 8, for the annual Alumni Reunion Day.

The reunion classes are 1913, 1918, 1923, 1933, 1938, 1943, 1948, and 1953.

The University's Half-Century Club will also hold a reunion and will initiate new members—the class of 1913.

A new feature of the 1963 Alumni Reunion is the housing of classmates in Walton Hall, one of the university's new dormitories. Each class will be housed in a wing of the dormitory and the class dinner, at 7 p.m. Sat., will be held in the wing dining room.

Registration of alumni will start Friday, June 7, at 12 noon in the Erb Memorial Union. Alumni may also register in Walton Hall Friday from 5 to 9 p.m. Registration Saturday will be in the Erb Memorial Union from 8 a.m. to 12 noon.

Alumni Day activities will include the Pauline Potter Homer benefit tea Friday at 2 p.m. in the Alumni Hall, Gerlinger.

Activities Saturday start at 9 a.m. with the Senior Women's Breakfast in the Student Union. This event, which honors women of the 1963 graduating class, is open to all returning alumnae.

A campus tour to acquaint returning alumni with the changing university will be at 10 a.m.

The Alumni Day Luncheon will be in the Student Union at 11:30 a.m. Short talks will be given by representatives of each reunion class.

At 8 p.m. Saturday night the Half-Century Club will hold a reception in the Student Union.

Sunday's activities include the traditional Flower and Fern Procession for alumnae and senior women. This will be at 1 p.m. at the site of the Pioneer Mother statue.

Commencement and baccalaureate exercises and the conferring of degrees on members of the class of 1963 will be at an outdoor ceremony in Hayward Field at 2:30 p.m.

BELT BONUS
Belts can be an important costume accessory. The fashion-conscious woman should not overlook their possibilities.

QUEEN - ELECT — Sally Hanville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hanville, will be installed as honored queen of Bethel 61, International Order of Job's Daughters, on Saturday, June 8, at the Scottish Rite Temple. The public ceremonies will start at 8 p.m. — Photo by Miller-Williams

TO HEAD BETHEL — Laurie Bruns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Brannan, will be installed as honored queen of Bethel No. 6, International Order of Job's Daughters, on Friday, June 7. The public ceremonies will start at 8 p.m. in the Masonic Temple. A reception and dance will follow. — Photo by Ferebee

PROM TIME — The Avonties play for dancers at the annual Sacred Heart Academy Junior-Senior Prom, held at the Yacht Club on Saturday, May 4. The theme, "Claire de Lune," was carried out by a wall-length mural of a moonlit lake and a cascading waterfall in a miniature rock garden.

BETWEEN DANCES — During intermission time at the Sacred Heart Academy Prom, John Phillips, Marlu Costel and Judy Kosen enjoy refreshments.

ROYALTY — Sacred Heart Academy junior-senior Prom King Ed Luczycki and Queen Margaret Ann Casey, crowned by Judy Kosen and Richard Owens, junior class president, accept the homage of the court composed of a couple from each of the sophomore, junior and senior classes.

REUNIONS PLANNED
Alumni representing nine University of Oregon graduating classes will be at the University Sat., June 8, for the annual Alumni Reunion Day.

The reunion classes are 1913, 1918, 1923, 1933, 1938, 1943, 1948, and 1953.

The University's Half-Century Club will also hold a reunion and will initiate new members—the class of 1913.

A new feature of the 1963 Alumni Reunion is the housing of classmates in Walton Hall, one of the university's new dormitories. Each class will be housed in a wing of the dormitory and the class dinner, at 7 p.m. Sat., will be held in the wing dining room.

Registration of alumni will start Friday, June 7, at 12 noon in the Erb Memorial Union. Alumni may also register in Walton Hall Friday from 5 to 9 p.m. Registration Saturday will be in the Erb Memorial Union from 8 a.m. to 12 noon.

Alumni Day activities will include the Pauline Potter Homer benefit tea Friday at 2 p.m. in the Alumni Hall, Gerlinger.

Activities Saturday start at 9 a.m. with the Senior Women's Breakfast in the Student Union. This event, which honors women of the 1963 graduating class, is open to all returning alumnae.

A campus tour to acquaint returning alumni with the changing university will be at 10 a.m.

The Alumni Day Luncheon will be in the Student Union at 11:30 a.m. Short talks will be given by representatives of each reunion class.

At 8 p.m. Saturday night the Half-Century Club will hold a reception in the Student Union.

Sunday's activities include the traditional Flower and Fern Procession for alumnae and senior women. This will be at 1 p.m. at the site of the Pioneer Mother statue.

Commencement and baccalaureate exercises and the conferring of degrees on members of the class of 1963 will be at an outdoor ceremony in Hayward Field at 2:30 p.m.

BELT BONUS
Belts can be an important costume accessory. The fashion-conscious woman should not overlook their possibilities.

QUEEN - ELECT — Sally Hanville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hanville, will be installed as honored queen of Bethel 61, International Order of Job's Daughters, on Saturday, June 8, at the Scottish Rite Temple. The public ceremonies will start at 8 p.m. — Photo by Miller-Williams

TO HEAD BETHEL — Laurie Bruns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Brannan, will be installed as honored queen of Bethel No. 6, International Order of Job's Daughters, on Friday, June 7. The public ceremonies will start at 8 p.m. in the Masonic Temple. A reception and dance will follow. — Photo by Ferebee

PROM TIME — The Avonties play for dancers at the annual Sacred Heart Academy Junior-Senior Prom, held at the Yacht Club on Saturday, May 4. The theme, "Claire de Lune," was carried out by a wall-length mural of a moonlit lake and a cascading waterfall in a miniature rock garden.

BETWEEN DANCES — During intermission time at the Sacred Heart Academy Prom, John Phillips, Marlu Costel and Judy Kosen enjoy refreshments.

ROYALTY — Sacred Heart Academy junior-senior Prom King Ed Luczycki and Queen Margaret Ann Casey, crowned by Judy Kosen and Richard Owens, junior class president, accept the homage of the court composed of a couple from each of the sophomore, junior and senior classes.

REUNIONS PLANNED
Alumni representing nine University of Oregon graduating classes will be at the University Sat., June 8, for the annual Alumni Reunion Day.

The reunion classes are 1913, 1918, 1923, 1933, 1938, 1943, 1948, and 1953.

The University's Half-Century Club will also hold a reunion and will initiate new members—the class of 1913.

A new feature of the 1963 Alumni Reunion is the housing of classmates in Walton Hall, one of the university's new dormitories. Each class will be housed in a wing of the dormitory and the class dinner, at 7 p.m. Sat., will be held in the wing dining room.

Registration of alumni will start Friday, June 7, at 12 noon in the Erb Memorial Union. Alumni may also register in Walton Hall Friday from 5 to 9 p.m. Registration Saturday will be in the Erb Memorial Union from 8 a.m. to 12 noon.

Alumni Day activities will include the Pauline Potter Homer benefit tea Friday at 2 p.m. in the Alumni Hall, Gerlinger.

Activities Saturday start at 9 a.m. with the Senior Women's Breakfast in the Student Union. This event, which honors women of the 1963 graduating class, is open to all returning alumnae.

A campus tour to acquaint returning alumni with the changing university will be at 10 a.m.

The Alumni Day Luncheon will be in the Student Union at 11:30 a.m. Short talks will be given by representatives of each reunion class.

At 8 p.m. Saturday night the Half-Century Club will hold a reception in the Student Union.

Sunday's activities include the traditional Flower and Fern Procession for alumnae and senior women. This will be at 1 p.m. at the site of the Pioneer Mother statue.

Commencement and baccalaureate exercises and the conferring of degrees on members of the class of 1963 will be at an outdoor ceremony in Hayward Field at 2:30 p.m.

BELT BONUS
Belts can be an important costume accessory. The fashion-conscious woman should not overlook their possibilities.

QUEEN - ELECT — Sally Hanville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hanville, will be installed as honored queen of Bethel 61, International Order of Job's Daughters, on Saturday, June 8, at the Scottish Rite Temple. The public ceremonies will start at 8 p.m. — Photo by Miller-Williams

TO HEAD BETHEL — Laurie Bruns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Brannan, will be installed as honored queen of Bethel No. 6, International Order of Job's Daughters, on Friday, June 7. The public ceremonies will start at 8 p.m. in the Masonic Temple. A reception and dance will follow. — Photo by Ferebee

PROM TIME — The Avonties play for dancers at the annual Sacred Heart Academy Junior-Senior Prom, held at the Yacht Club on Saturday, May 4. The theme, "Claire de Lune," was carried out by a wall-length mural of a moonlit lake and a cascading waterfall in a miniature rock garden.

BETWEEN DANCES — During intermission time at the Sacred Heart Academy Prom, John Phillips, Marlu Costel and Judy Kosen enjoy refreshments.

ROYALTY — Sacred Heart Academy junior-senior Prom King Ed Luczycki and Queen Margaret Ann Casey, crowned by Judy Kosen and Richard Owens, junior class president, accept the homage of the court composed of a couple from each of the sophomore, junior and senior classes.

REUNIONS PLANNED
Alumni representing nine University of Oregon graduating classes will be at the University Sat., June 8, for the annual Alumni Reunion Day.

The reunion classes are 1913, 1918, 1923, 1933, 1938, 1943, 1948, and 1953.

The University's Half-Century Club will also hold a reunion and will initiate new members—the class of 1913.

A new feature of the 1963 Alumni Reunion is the housing of classmates in Walton Hall, one of the university's new dormitories. Each class will be housed in a wing of the dormitory and the class dinner, at 7 p.m. Sat., will be held in the wing dining room.

Registration of alumni will start Friday, June 7, at 12 noon in the Erb Memorial Union. Alumni may also register in Walton Hall Friday from 5 to 9 p.m. Registration Saturday will be in the Erb Memorial Union from 8 a.m. to 12 noon.

Alumni Day activities will include the Pauline Potter Homer benefit tea Friday at 2 p.m. in the Alumni Hall, Gerlinger.

Activities Saturday start at 9 a.m. with the Senior Women's Breakfast in the Student Union. This event, which honors women of the 1963 graduating class, is open to all returning alumnae.

A campus tour to acquaint returning alumni with the changing