

Brother, Sister Combination Wins Top Student Honors At Chiloquin Assembly

CHILQUIN—A brother and sister took top student honors at the annual Chiloquin High School awards assembly on Friday night, May 31.

Barbara Nicholson was named the winner of the PTA cup for outstanding senior on the basis of four years of scholarship, citizenship, and activities; and her brother, Roger, won the Robert Muskrat Trophy given on the same basis to an outstanding lower classman. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson, Fort Klamath.

Principal C. A. Samples officiated at the awards program. He presented perfect attendance certificates to 10 students, five percent of the student body. Kim Hale, Dennis Potter, Douglas McIntyre, Joyce and Judy Fulton, Frank Cooksey, Steve Trulove, Sheryl Logue, Ricky Chase, and Vicki Sherier were the recipients.

Honorable mention went to Daryl Hale, who missed one half day, and to Gordon Bettles, Handy Kier, Coleta Martin, Larry Dean, Robert Bettles, Darrell Haas, Carl Jones, Carol Rogers, and Oran Miller, each of whom missed only one day.

Conservation awards went to Tom Van Wormer, Roger Nicholson, and Rocky Evans. Paul Ohlund received an award of merit in science, and a national math honor was received by David Van Wormer.

Barbara Nicholson and Joe Kirk received certificates of merit on leadership, scholarship, and citizenship from the Dad's Club of Oregon State University. Barbara also received a certificate of merit from the University of Oregon Dads Club as an honor student.

Delegates to Beaver Boys' State this year will be Tony DiUlio, Rocky Evans, and Donnie Taylor. Superior ratings in girls' physical fitness exams were given to three senior high school students, Barbara Nicholson, Micki Wolff, and Rose Molling. Eighth graders, Sharon Zamudio, Margaret Cole, and Mary Brattain, received high ratings as did 10 seventh graders, Linda Charles, Carol and Cheryl Ohlund, Joyce Fulton, Anna Wedde, Clare Sutton, Linda Van Wormer, Sheryl Logue, Florine and Videll Miller.

Barbara Nicholson received a G.A.A. fourth award, and Micki Wolff earned an athletic letter. Girls receiving participation letters and emblems were Donna Kircher, Kathy Peters, Rose Molling, and Phyllis Bickers. Emblems for participation were earned by Diane Haas, Jinny Doak, and Sharon Christiansen.

Lettermen were Tony Wilder in four sports; Albert DeBortoli, Greg Harris, Joe Kirk, Tony DiUlio, Donnie Taylor, and Kim Hale in three sports; Amory Bettles in two; and Glen Craio, Lyn Hescocock, Dennis Potter, Jim Bridge, Roger Nicholson, David Van Wormer, Oran Miller, Winslow White Craio, and Doug Brattain in one.

Manager awards went to Daryl Hale, Douglas McIntyre, and Tom Weist, and cheer leaders certificates to Kathy Peters, Rose Molling, Micki Wolff, and Sherry Lough.

Sharing the co-captain award for football were Joe Kirk and Albert DeBortoli, and for basketball, Greg Harris and Tony Wilder.

DeBortoli and Wilder were named outstanding athletes. A special attendance award went to Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stewart.

Ron Harrison presented the Jaycee Athletic and Citizenship Award to the 1962 winner, Lyle Brewer, who in turn handed it to the 1963 winner, Greg Harris.

Speech awards were made by Janet Clark to students whose names had already been announced in county and district meets.

Joe Kirk received a medal as student body president and gave a gift to H. L. Stewart, who is retiring as janitor after seven years of service to the student body.

Greg Harris was named the winner of the annual PTA scholarship. National Honor Society members received cards. They were Barbara Nicholson, Tony DiUlio, Rocky Evans, Micki Wolff, and new member, Greg Harris.

Current members of Junior Honor Society were introduced. They are Roger Nicholson, Jon Wilson, Phyllis Bickers, Judy Fulton, Roberta Laty, Raymond Hatcher, Gwen Fitzpatrick, Lynda Freid, Douglas McIntyre, Ricky Chase, Bobbie Winston, John Kalita, Linda Stanley, Kenneth Scott, Darrell Haas, Frank Cooksey and Carl Jones. New members are Kim Hale, David Van Wormer, Kathy Peters, Vickie Sherier, Don Rogers, Margo Feezer, Danny Brown, Joyce Fulton, Linda Van Wormer, Cheryl Ohlund, Carol Ohlund, Tom Van Wormer, and Darcel Atchley.
