Rev. Fumo Talks At Bly Service

BLY — "Man must have the courage to be himself and not the shadow of others," stated Rev. Harold Fumo at the Bly High School baccalaureate services held in the St. James Catholic Church on June 2.

Speaking on the subject, "Ambition and Self-possession," Rev. Fumo asserted, "We should be as sincere and frank with ourselves as we are with others."

The professional of graduates, clad in royal blue caps and gowns, entered the church while Mendelssohn's "Priests' March" was played by Mrs. Farnworth on the organ.

The Girl's Chorus, under the direction of Ruth Obenchain, presented "Jerusalem the Golden" and "How Great Thou Art."

The perodactyl of prehistoric times was a flying reptile.

Cancel Meeting

The regular meeting of the Aloha Social Club, O.E.S., scheduled Friday, June 7, has been canceled for this month.

Smart girl! She phoned Lyon and told them her moving plans. Today, school-trained Lyon movers arrived promptly on the scene and packed every item — clothes, even the crystalware — all her family's furnishings with heirloom care and scientific precision.
