Mick Breaks Foot In Costly Game

By United Press International
Yankee luck!

That's what rival American Leaguers call it and sometimes you have to wonder because it seems that even when they lose they win.

Take Wednesday night when they lost the services of three-time Most Valuable Player Mickey Vernon for three weeks to a month. Disaster? Possibly in the future but not right now. Because the Yankees not only beat the Baltimore Orioles 4-3, despite the loss of Mantle, but also regained possession of first place.

What's more, they scored the winning run on a tap back to the pitcher's mound that should have resulted in an inning-ending double play. No wonder American Leaguers insist somebody up there loves 'em!

The critical play came with the bases filled and one out in the eighth inning. The score was tied at 3-3 and Yogi Berra was making one of his infrequent appearances as a pinch-hitter. He tapped the ball back to the mound and Stu Miller fired it to catcher Dick Brown for the forceout at the plate.

So far, so good but in another instant so long, Orioles.

Tresh Jars Brown

Because Tom Tresh, running from third base, jarred the ball out of Brown's hand as he prepared for the relay to first base. The ball squirted loose and in another second or two Roger Maris went chugging over the plate—all the way from second base—with the winning run.

Whitely Ford yielded 13 hits but pitched his way out of numerous jams and wound up with his seventh win against three losses. Jackie Brandt and Brooks Robinson homered for the Orioles but Maris achieved a milestone when he hit No. 200 of his career for the Yankees.

The Los Angeles Angels beat the Chicago White Sox 8-2 after a 3-0 defeat, the Minnesota Twins defeated the Kansas City Athletics 4-0, and the Detroit Tigers topped the Cleveland Indians 5-4 in other AL action. The Boston Washington game was rained out.

In the National League, the Chicago Cubs swept the San Francisco Giants 9-5 and 5-4, the Milwaukee Braves beat the New York Mets 11-9, the Pittsburgh Pirates whipped the Cincinnati Reds 5-4 and 4-3, the Philadelphia Phillies defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 6-0, and the Los Angeles Dodgers conquered the Houston Astros 5-1.

Home Runs Wia Game

Home runs by Jim Landis and Dave Nicholson and the nine-hit pitching of Johnny Bushardt enabled the White Sox to win the first game of their two-nighter with the Angels. But the Angels rallied for seven runs in the sixth inning of the nightcap to split the double bill and give Ken McBride his fifth win. Albie Pearson went 2-for-5 in the first game and 4-for-5 in the second.

Rickie Rollins knocked in three runs with a homer and two singles and Bob Allison hit his 15th homer for the Twins, who shut out the Athletics for the second straight game. Jim Roland went seven innings before retiring with an injured elbow and Bill Dailey finished the game.

Norm Cash's ninth-inning homerun and Terry Fox's sturdy relief pitching for the last 1-2-3 innings gave Detroit's Jim Bunning his fourth victory. Jim Grant suffered his sixth loss against three wins for the Indians.

Alturas Athletes Honored At Fete

ALTURAS — Senior letterman Randy Preston was named athlete of the year by the Alturas 20-30 Club last Saturday evening.

Preston received the coveted award for his outstanding abilities on the basketball, baseball, and football teams. He received the trophies for outstanding letterman in basketball and baseball at the 20-30 banquet.

Also honored were Danny Sheffield, winner of the track award; and Duane Jepson, winner of the award in football.

Guest speaker for the evening was Bill Wakefield, director of health and recreation for the United School District at Carmel, Calif. Wakefield is a former teacher in the Alturas schools and generally recognized as the man responsible for the formation of the Alturas city recreation program.

He spoke to the senior lettermen and the 20-30 Club on the importance of the physical fitness program. Wakefield is a member of the California committee for development of physical fitness programming.

He stated that at the recent Modesto Relays the high jumpers started warming up at the height he won the event in his college days.

"It isn't that the facilities are better today that makes for the great increase in record times and jumps, but the physical fitness of the athletes competing. Where we used to work out for an hour and a half four or five days a week, today's athlete works out four hours a day six to seven days a week," Wakefield stated.

He went on to say that though it sounds like these men would have little time for study, it has been found that if the athlete has the will and the self discipline he can have a high scholastic average along with being a champion in his field. He pointed out that if the athlete will go home after practice and put his time to study, the scholastic part comes easily.

"Grades are a matter of self discipline and it is up to the student," he said.

Wakefield also told the assembled guests that he had never been in a town where the merchants and townspeople cooperated any better with the school and athletes. "Believe me, this isn't true in lots of towns and you can well be proud of yourselves," he said.

Toastmaster for the evening was Gary Royall and Shynu Yamagata was program chairman. The dinner was cooked for the 20-30 group by Mrs. Sally Porter.

PSC's DeSylvia Resigns Post

PORTLAND (UPI) — Portland State College football coach Tom DeSylvia resigned Wednesday, blaming lack of support for his program.

He announced no plans for the future.

DeSylvia said he decided to quit after he submitted a 1963 football budget of $2,500 and asked that track coach Ralph Davis be named an assistant coach. The PSC athletic board slashed the budget to $300 and refused to approve Davis.

Smoky Burgess' eighth-inning pinch single provided the Pirates with their margin of victory in the first game and Bill Virdon led their 10-hit attack with a two-run homer in the nightcap. Bill Mazeroski and Jim Pagliaroni homered for the Pirates in the second game.

The Braves blew an eight-run lead when the Mets scored seven runs in the sixth inning but won out in the 10th when Bobba Morton singled with the bases filled. Lee Maye and Denis Menke hit homers for the Braves while Rod Kanehl and Frank Thomas had three hits each for the Mets.

It would be a no-hum matter for rival NL teams except for the fact that the 32-year-old Banks—mired in the worst slump of his career for the first seven weeks of the season—is swinging that whip-like bat again like the man who's averaged 33 homers a season for 10 years.

Ernie couldn't buy a hit for one agonizing spell, going 1-for-28 and 0-for-22 in a slump that benched him and suggested that his career as a star might be over.

Banks Bounces Back

But a short rest on the bench apparently was all the ace needed because he's bounced back with nine hits in 19 tries in his last five games. He went 4-for-8 with two homers Wednesday when the Cubs achieved their first sweep of the season and dealt the Giants their seventh loss in 10 games.

The Philadelphia Phillies joined the St. Louis Cardinals 6-0, the Los Angeles Dodgers whipped the Houston Colts 5-1, the Pittsburgh Pirates swept the Cincinnati Reds 5-4 and 4-3, and the Milwaukee Braves downed the New York Mets 11-9, in 10 innings of other NL games.

In the American League, the New York Yankees nipped the Baltimore Orioles 4-3, the Minnesota Twins topped the Kansas City Athletics 4-0, the Detroit Tigers beat the Cleveland Indians 5-4, and the Los Angeles Angels won 8-2, after losing 3-0 to the Chicago White Sox in a two-nighter.

Banks hit two homers and Ken Hubbs, Lou Brock and Billy Williams hit one each in the Cubs' first-game win and Brock had three hits in the nightcap as Dick Ellsworth won his eighth game and Lindy McDaniel his second. Willie Mays, Harvey Kuenn, Willie McCovey and Orlando Cepeda homered for the Giants during the double-header.

Pitches Three-Hitter

Ray Culp pitched a three-hitter for his seventh win behind a Philadelphia attack that included a homer, double and single by Tony Gonzalez. Curt Simmons, former Philadelphia star, suffered his second loss of the year and only his second to the Phillies since 1960.

Sandy Koufax pitched an eight-hitter and struck out eight for his eighth victory at Houston. Dick Tracewski had three hits and Frank Howard two to spark the Dodgers' 10-hit attack. Ken Johnson suffered his eighth defeat for the Colts.

Cards Also Lose; League Tightens

By United Press International
It may be about time to take the Chicago Cubs seriously because it's sure time to make light of stories that Ernie Banks is over the hill.

The Cubs, who haven't won a National League pennant since 1945 and haven't been in the first division since 1936, are tied for second place with the St. Louis Cardinals only one game behind the faltering San Francisco Giants.

They've won four straight and 10 of their last 12 games, including Wednesday's 9-3 and 5-4 victories over the Giants.

It would be a no-hum matter for rival NL teams except for the fact that the 32-year-old Banks—mired in the worst slump of his career for the first seven weeks of the season—is swinging that whip-like bat again like the man who's averaged 33 homers a season for 10 years.
