

HEADING FOR OLYMPICS IN PORTLAND — This group of Klamath Basin youths will be in Portland Saturday for the Oregon State Junior Olympics which will be an all-day meet with hundreds entered. This group will be sponsored and run under the colors of the Klamath Basin Athletic Association. They leave Saturday morning from the bus station on a chartered Greyhound bus at 5 o'clock. They will return after the meet and a meal in Portland. The times of the meet are sent back to Junior Olympic headquarters where they are compiled with those from other states and announced at a later date as to the national standing of the best records.

KBAA Sending Large Group To Junior Olympics Meet

The Klamath Basin Athletic Association, making its second big push in the past two weeks, sends some 36 youngsters to the Junior Olympics in Portland Saturday in grades ranging from sixth through high school.

The KBAA, formed only about a month ago, held a track meet a couple of weeks ago at Modoc and it produced over 350 athletes and the biggest meet ever run off at Modoc. It was a big success. Those youths running Saturday under the KBAA colors were chosen from the group that competed in the meet at Modoc Field.

This is the first attempt of this sort for the KBAA. They have chartered a Greyhound bus to carry the athletes to Portland for the all-day meet. The bus will leave the bus station at 5 o'clock Saturday morning. The boys are to bring a sack lunch for a light meal before the meet. The KBAA will furnish a meal after the meet.

Thus far at least two adults are going in the persons of George Demetras, president of the KBAA, and Bob Moore, one of the board members. Should any father of the boys going like to attend and ride with the group, please notify one of these two men about the trip.

This could be something new for the Junior Olympics in Portland. This, as far as is known, is the only team from outside Portland going to the meet as

The remaining boys are Chuck Church, Nick Demetras, Bruce Clark, Benny DeGroot, Lance Lake, Bill Hulbert, Jerry Hargroves, Jerry Dodaro, Ken Luft, Ted DeVore, Gary Bold, Eddie Davis, Ray Struve, Bill Steber, Bob Hartley, Scott Smelser, Danny Lyons, Greg Kitching, Steve Buhrig, Mike Hampton, Don Hill and Scott Phillips.

There may be others added and some of these listed may not attend. The KBAA also has in mind to sponsor several other meets this summer. So keep reading the Herald and News sports section for news of this coming event.

Falcons To Meet Medford Saturday

The Klamath Falls Falcons, one of the leading contenders for the Southern Oregon American Legion title, will host the other league favorite, Medford, Saturday night at Gem Stadium at 8 o'clock in one of the big games of the schedule.

The Falcons have a 1-0 record thus far with a win over Central Point last weekend and will be going against one of the roughest teams. Coach John Paxton probably will go with sidearm ace Gary Benson for this game.

Other probable starters are John Gray at first, Lanny Guyer at second, LeVoy Young at shortstop, John Parisotto at third and Dave Johnson in the outfield. Jay Paxton will be in the catcher's slot.

Medford has some of the top talent in the area with pitchers Stu Young, Bill Elyart and Jack Forde. They also have top talent

Kingsley Continues LL Reign

Kingsley's league-leading team pulled through with another squeaking win in the South Suburban Little League Thursday night with a 3-2 win over Big Y Market. In other games Western Old topped Eccles, 5-2. Hal's edged the Teamsters, 6-6, and Olson's blanked DARCO, 12-0.

Kingsley still is unbeaten with a 7-0 record. Chris Carlson pitched the fine two-hit victory while Rod Allred absorbed the loss on giving up four hits.

Carlson won his own game by also pounding a pair of home runs. He gave up one home run to catcher Allen Pranghofer of Big Y.

Hal's stopped the Teamsters behind the pitching of Terry Herbert. He gave up eight hits as did losing pitcher Val Carlson. Carlson led his team in hitting with a pair of doubles. Rick Dossett slammed a double for the winning hit for Hal's.

Western Old, scoring all five runs in the third frame, downed Eccles on four hits. Winning pitcher Gary Matlick buried a three-hitter for Western while Bill McGinnis allowed the four in losing. Matlick also slammed a home run and got help from a double by Barry Card. David Hummel and Larry Hubbard each doubled for the losers.

Olson's got seven hits off lower Keith Clinton while David Gibbons fired a two-hitter. DARCO aided the winners' cause with 14 errors. Scott Adrian slapped a home run for the winners.

General Attempts Clearing

NEW YORK (UPI) — The AAU-NCAA controversy sounded like an old repeated record today, with Gen. Douglas MacArthur reiterating his stand that the Amateur Athletic Union has sole sanctioning power in open meets and the USTFF continuing its demands for approval of the other side of the disc.

MacArthur again attempted to clear up any misunderstanding on his March 12 communique with a statement Thursday that "open meets are under the sole sanctioning power of the Amateur Athletic Union. Such meets do not require the sanction of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, the United States Track and Field Federation or affiliated groups."

William Russell, president of the USTFF, said in Houston that presidential mediator MacArthur's latest directive was "nothing new" and that the four-star general had previously "clarified the dual sanctioning meets while he gave us authority over our athletes in meets."

Russell, with other USTFF officials in Houston for the Friday and Saturday track meet, only asked that the AAU submit a formal request for USTFF athletes to appear in the AAU championships at St. Louis, June 21-22.

"The key issue," Russell said, "is the AAU refusal to ask for approval."

MacArthur, moving to stop the NCAA from allegedly boycotting efforts to field the strongest U.S. team possible for the July meet with Russia in Moscow, has asked the collegiate organization to "refrain from any action which inhibits the free participation of any athlete" in any AAU track and field games.

The general had supposedly ironed out the differences between the two amateur groups at a January session when he asked them to present a solid front for the 1964 Olympic Games in Japan. But the new flare-up was touched off by the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference directive that member schools shun the AAU championships, unless sanction was granted by the NCAA.

Medo-Bels Battle Mt. Shasta Nine Saturday Night

The Medo-Bels will attempt to get into the winning column of the Northern California Semi-Pro Baseball League Saturday night when they take on Mount Shasta at Dunsmuir at 8 p.m.

The team will meet Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Sunrise parking lot.

This will be the second round for each team. The Medo-Bels were surprised by Scott Valley and diminutive Jiggs Sage under the lights last Saturday night, 7-3. Sage held the Medo-Bels to eight hits and got 12 off loser Bill Mansfield despite 20 strikeouts.

Mount Shasta was able to nail down only two hits in losing to Dunsmuir and Bill Marske last week, 3-1. Marske allowed only two hits while the Dunsmuir team tagged Jim Lemos for 11. The other game found Weed dropping Happy Camp, 6-3, behind the six-hit pitching job of Dave Lemos.

Coach Ron Owings probably will open the game with Jim Keller, former Oregon Tech star, on the mound. Dave Saks, who didn't arrive in time for the game last Saturday, should be ready to receive for the Medo-Bels in this one. Don Gresdel will be at first, Dave Sigard at second, Owings at short, Don Dexter at third and Ray Taylor, Blake Griggs and John Bianchi in the outfield. Utility men will be Marv Edwards and Bob Yunek.

Bill Mansfield will be ready to relieve Keller and Griggs also does some relief work as does Edwards.

This game is the only one in the league Saturday. There are two games slated Sunday. Dunsmuir will be at Weed and Happy Camp goes to Scott Valley.

'Tough Luck Tony' Lema's Bad Luck Strikes Again

GRAND BLANC, Mich. (UPI) — Now you know why they call him "Tough Luck Tony" Lema.

The lanky ex-Marine from California fired a five-under-par 67 Thursday to take an early one-stroke lead over Don Essig in the Buick Open but it was wiped out by violent thunderstorms.

So Lema and the rest of the 159-man field will start all over again today in this 72-hole tournament for prizes totaling $32,000. Tony saw the postponement as a sunny omen.

"I won the Memphis Open after it had been postponed twice by rain," the tall Californian murmured as he masked his disappointment.

Forty-eight players did not get a chance to finish their round because of nature's eruptions.

Among those who did get in 18 holes, Chi Chi Rodriguez, the tiny Puerto Rican who holed out a six-iron shot on the 307-yard 13th hole for a rare double eagle, shot a two-under-par 70. This was matched by former PGA champion Dow Finsterwald, of Tequesta, Fla., Dan Sikes of Jacksonville, Fla., and Jerry Pittman of Tulsa, Okla.

Shooting 71s were defending champion Bill Collins, Al Geiberger, Gene Flint, Al Johnston and George Knudson. Former champion Mike Souchak had a 74 and Sam Snead a 73.

Riled Cooper Stopping Mates

LONDON (UPI) — British and Empire heavyweight champion Henry Cooper, riled by Cassius Clay's disparaging remarks, is knocking out his sparring mates as he trains for his June 18 London fight with Clay.

Although wearing large 16-ounce training gloves, Cooper Thursday knocked out Bob Clarke of Pittsburgh, Pa., in the first round with rights to the jaw. Clarke was on the canvas twice. Earlier in the week he knocked out another sparring mate.

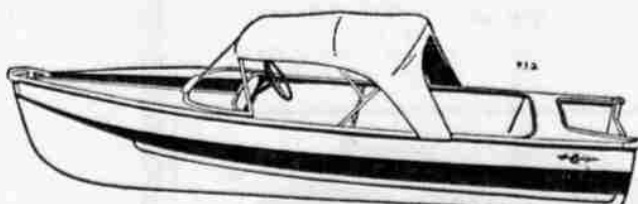

Clay of Louisville, Ky., is training at the White City Stadium, where he is scheduled for a public workout next week.
