

Four Teams Tie For National Lead; Tigers Whack Yankees

Giles' Prediction Right About NL

By United Press International

Three is a crowd but four is ridiculous.

So, three cheers for clairvoyant Warren Giles, who is right on the old hazzoo with his pre-season prediction of "a real tight race" in the National League.

Of course, good old Warren makes more or less the same prediction every year but that doesn't alter the fact that he looks like a prophet today with a virtual four-way tie for first place in his circuit.

Actually, the Los Angeles Dodge-ers are ahead by a whisker with a .566 percentage but identical .564 figures by the San Francisco Giants, St. Louis Cardinals and Chicago Cubs add up to an uncommon crowd at the top.

Carl Warwick's 10th inning single which gave Houston a 2-1 victory over San Francisco Friday night helped create the snarl when it knocked the Giants off the top rung for the first time since May 6.

Warwick, an ex-Cardinal who has boosted his batting average .43 points during the past three weeks to its present .320, came through with his game-winning blow off loser Gary Perry after Colt rookie Rusty Staub's ninth inning homer off Giant starter Bob Bolin had tied the score at 1-1.

In other NL action, the New York Mets clipped the Cardinals 3-2, the Dodgers snapped the Cubs' five-game winning streak 4-1, and the Milwaukee Braves beat the Pittsburgh Pirates 9-5. Rain washed out the game between Cincinnati and Philadelphia.

Over in the American League, the Chicago White Sox defeated the Kansas City A's 7-1, the Detroit Tigers downed the New York Yankees 8-4, the Minnesota Twins topped the Los Angeles Angels 6-1, and the Cleveland Indians spanked the Washington Senators 8-1. The Baltimore-Boston game was postponed by rain.

Homer Beats Olivo
Duke Snider's three-run homer off reliever Diomedes Olivo in the ninth inning earned the Mets their come-from-behind victory after Cardinal starter Ron Taylor had limited them to two hits through the first eight innings.

Don Drysdale cooled off the Cubs with a seven-hit performance that brought him his seventh victory of the year. Drysdale fanned nine in dealing the Cubs their third loss in the last 14 games.

Denis Menke's eighth inning single broke a 5-5 tie between the Braves and Pirates and Hank Aaron's 17th homer highlighted an insurance three-run rally by Milwaukee in the ninth.

Winner of the U.S. Open title 11 years ago, Boros won his first tournament in three years last week when he finished first in the Colonial Invitation and since then has taken two seconds.

He stands fourth on the year's money-winning list with $4,325 and quips, "Maybe I'm finally learning this game."

Pittman's 60 had held up most of the day against a field of 139 competitors until Boros came in with his late afternoon round.

Former U.S. Open champion Gene Littler was one shot back of Pittman with a 69 that tied him with Al Mengert and New Zealand's Bob Charles, the only left-hander ever to win a major tournament on the pro tour.

Tony Lama, whose leading 67 on Thursday was spunged off the books by a thunderstorm, found the 7,280-yard Warwick Hills Golf Club course much tougher Friday when he carded a 71.

Veteran Sammy Snead didn't have much to cheer about either with a 77. Snead had every reason to feel he was back on his game earlier in the week after shooting a 10-under par course record 61 at nearby Flint, Mich., during a pe-tourney tune-up round.

SNIDER SAFE AT FIRST — Duke Snider of the New York Mets (running) races toward first base after hitting a grounder to St. Louis Cardinals' Bill White Friday in the second inning. The Cardinal first baseman fielded the ball but threw wide to pitcher Ron Taylor (39) who covered first on the play. Taylor fell and missed the peg. Snider was safe. Snider blasted a three-run homer in the last of the ninth to give the Mets a 3-2 victory.

Beavers, Rangers Divide Pair, Spokane Tips Giants

Dallas — Fort Worth's Pedro (Tony) Oliva is a shining knight in defeat and Bobby Gene Smith of Seattle a hero in victory in the Pacific Coast League — both for the same reason.

Each belted a pair of two-run homers Friday night. The one difference was that Smith's team won but Oliva's lost. Both Oliva and Smith are outfielders.

Smith's second and third four-baggers of the season carried pitcher Pete Smith (6-4) to an 8-1 victory over Portland in the second game of a doubleheader. The Beavers captured the seven-inning opener 6-1 on home runs by Manny Jimenez, Chet Boak and Dick Green.

Oliva drove in all of his team's runs as the Texans bowed 7-5 to the resurgent Salt Lake City Bees.

Spokane Gains
Spokane narrowed Tacoma's lead to three games in the Northern Division by beating the Giants 9-2 on circuit smashes by Jim Barbieri and hot-hitting John Werhans. Fine relief pitching by Ray Rippelmeier helped San Diego edge Oklahoma City 3-2 and Hawaii scored six runs in the first inning for a 9-2 victory over Denver.

Seattle tallied two runs in the sixth and six more in the seventh for their nightcap win. Smith held Portland to five hits and fanned seven. Much traveled Moe Drabowsky of Portland limited the Rainiers to four hits in the abbreviated opener. He won his Hawaii scored six runs in the first inning for a 9-2 victory over Denver.

Salt Lake collected 12 hits off four Ranger pitchers. Don Eaddy, Jim Stewart, Bill Cowan and Cuno Barragan paced the Bees attack with two hits each. Oliva, in addition to his brace of two-run homers, drove in the Texans' final run with a single in the seventh.

Padres Climb
The San Diego Padres are making a strong effort to overtake front-running Dallas-Ft. Worth in the Southern Division. As a result of Friday night's win, the Padres closed the gap to only half a game.

Centerfielder Mel Queen hit his 13th home run for the Padres to spark a two-run outburst against

Oklahoma City starter and loser

Jerry Nelson. Dave Sisler got the victory, his third of the season.

Rippelmeier relieved Sisler in the eighth with the bases loaded, one out and one run scored. He returned the side after allowing another run.

Barbieri's three-run homer and a two-run blast by Werhans, who is hitting .325, gave Spokane five runs in the seventh inning. Howie

Reed (6-3) limited Tacoma to six hits in going the distance. Tacoma starter Ron Herbel was the loser, evening his record at 6-6.

First baseman Ken Hunt supplied the power for Hawaii which was making its first visit of the season to Denver. Hunt hit a two-run homer, triple and two singles.

Hawaii scored its six runs in the first after two were out. Big blows were Bob Knop's two-run double followed by catcher Bob

Roselli's booming home run with Knop on base.
