Hatfield Authorized To Appoint 12 New Officers

SALEM (UPI) — Twelve new appointive offices to be filled by Gov. Mark Hatfield, and about 1,800 new state jobs were created by the 1963 Legislature, it was revealed Friday.

The Department of Higher Education got the largest block of new positions, more than 900. About 450 of these are additions to the teaching staff, according to

Mishap Kills

Woodburn Boy

WOODBURN (UPI) — A 6-year-old boy lost his life and his father was seriously injured in a two-vehicle collision on the Baldock Freeway near here Friday afternoon.

Killed was Edgar F. Lafayette V of Brownsville. His father, Edgar F. Lafayette Jr., 36, was taken to the Salem Memorial Hospital with back and leg injuries. Their pickup truck was involved in a collision with a car driven by Mrs. Ann Bech of Edmond, Alta. Mrs. Bech and her husband, Henry, were not injured. John Evans Jr., 40, Brownsville, who was in the truck, was treated and released at the Salem hospital.

The northbound vehicles collided about 2½ miles south of the Woodburn Junction. The truck crashed into the center divider, skidded and overturned. The father and son were thrown from their vehicle.

Portland Man Highway Victim

PORTLAND (UPI) — Dee Anderson Shanks, 69, Portland, was pronounced dead on arrival at a hospital early today after his car was involved in a three-vehicle rear-end collision.

Multnomah County Sheriff's Deputies said Shanks' car smashed into the rear of another vehicle halted at a stoplight. The second car was pushed into the one ahead of it.

A passenger in the third car, Mary Ann Cooper, Portland, was treated for minor injuries at a hospital and released.

ALA Elects New Slate Of Officers

Mrs. Harold McMahon is the incoming president. Mrs. Frances Ough, first vice president; Mrs. Bert Du Bois, second vice president, and Mrs. Warner Fett, secretary-treasurer.

To serve on the executive committee are: Mrs. Elton Mickelson, Mrs. Fred Heilbroner, Mrs. James Fowler.

Elected convention delegates are: Mrs. McMahon, Mrs. Fett, Mrs. Blanche Beldrairie, retiring president, and Mrs. Lawrence Bullard. The alternates are Mrs. Elton Mickelson, Mrs. Lena Edwards, Mrs. Katherine Keep and Mrs. Bert Miller.

Limits Powers

SALEM (UPI) — Rural school districts cannot participate in the National Defense Education Act program, Atty. Gen. Robert Y. Thornton said Friday.

A rural school district is limited in the exercise of its powers and it is not specifically concerned with the administration of public schools except in the limited sense of taxation, Thornton said.

The Conestoga wagon of pioneer days was named for the place where it first was made in Pennsylvania.

Ask Increase

SALEM (UPI) — Pacific Power and Light Co. filed a rate increase application with the Oregon Public Utility Commission here Friday.

The firm asked to raise its rates for central steam heat service, which it supplies to 800 Portland businesses.

The increase would be made during a two-year period and would raise revenues $125,000 annually after the second year.

Four or six horses drew the heavy, slow, but exceedingly strong Conestoga wagon, which could carry five tons.

Digger Knocks Out Phone Service

PORTLAND (UPI) — Hundreds of telephones were knocked out in North Portland Friday night when a post hole digger working on the new Minnesota Freeway severed three major telephone cables.

The first cable contained 800 long distance circuits from North Portland to Vancouver, Longview, Aberdeen, Olympia, Tacoma and Seattle in Washington and Astoria in Oregon.

The second contained several The Church of Christ, Scientist, was founded by Mary Baker Eddy.

hundred trunk circuits connecting north Portland telephones with the rest of the city and the third served some 2,500 Butler exchange telephone customers in the north area.

Service is not expected to be completely restored until Sunday. It was the second major telephone outage here in two days.

A phone cable crossing the Willamette River was severed by a ship's anchor Thursday night. It knocked out 400 telephones in the Linnton area.

Also Friday, a utility pole fell on a main line at the Oregon City - Keeler substation in the morning. Electricity was unavailable in the North Beaverton, Huber, St. Marys and Cedar Hills area for more than one hour.

Wallis Hoffarth, 27, Portland, was burned slightly on the left hand, arm and shoulder while working on the line. He was
