Falcons Sweep Doubleheader 9-3, 3-0

A pair of Jacksons proved to be stonewall defenders Sunday for the Klamath Falls Falcons as each hurled a full route victory for the local club in their two-game sweep from Sweet Home.

The Falcons won the opener of the twinbill at Gem Stadium 9-3 behind the three hit pitching of Jim Jackson, and then made it a sweep with a 3-0 shutout nightcap win with Rich Jackson turning in a sparkling one-hitter.

Larry Smith, left fielder, paced the Falcon hitting in the first game with 2-3 including a single and a triple. Larry Binney had one for four, but that one was a roundtripper in the fifth inning with mates Marv Yunck and Marv Davis on base.

Sweet Home took the lead in the opener in the second inning when a single by Don Edwards and some costly errors let two runs slip across. The Falcons rallied to tie it up in the third on four singles with Larry Smith and Jackson scoring. The Falcons added a single tally in the fourth and then broke through with three each in the fifth and sixth to put the game out of reach.

The second clash found Rich Jackson in control all the way as he gave up only one hit, a single by Gary Yunker, Sweet Home center fielder, in the fourth inning.

He struck out seven, gave up three walks and was never in trouble. He didn't allow a man past first base.

Meantime, the Falcons were getting only four hits off Bob Harris of Sweet Home but made maximum mileage out of them for all three of their runs in the fifth inning.

In that frame, after Dave Johnson had grounded out and Yunck popped up, Jackson reached first on an error, LeVoy Young slammed a single and Larry Binney singled, bringing home two of the runs. He scored a few moments later to wrap up the totals for the clash, and give the Falcons a 3-0 nightcap win.

The double win boosted the Falcons record to 4 and 1. Their only defeat came Saturday night at Gem Stadium when they were downed by Medford 4-2, although outhitting the invaders 8-5.

Tonight, the Falcons journey to Bend for a clash there beginning at 8:30. They return home for a conference clash with Tri-City at Gem Stadium Wednesday night.

The Hawks meantime, have a conference outing Wednesday when they travel to Central Point.

The Klamath Falls Medo-Bels evened their record in the Northern California League Saturday night with a smashing hitting spree that buried Mount Shasta 23 to 3 under the lights at Dunsmuir.

The Medo-Bels rammed across five runs in the opening frame as the first five men up scored. Don Gresdel walked, Bob Yunck reached first on an error, and Blake Griggs walked to load them up. Ron Owings walked to bring in a run, and then Dave Sigado clouted a grand slam homer to make it 5-0 and put the game away before it had barely gotten underway.

Another four-run outburst by the Medo-Bels came in the second frame paced by a double by Yunck and Dave Saks and singles by Owings and John Bianchi. The Medo-Bels scored in every inning but the third, adding two each in the fourth, fifth, sixth and eighth, and three each in the seventh and ninth.

Meantime, Jim Keller started for the Medo-Bels, getting credit for the win, although Edwards hurled the last four frames.

In addition, Edwards had a perfect night at the plate with three singles in three trips. Saks had four for five, including a pair of doubles.

13-Year-Old Tops Field

A 13-year-old Klamath Falls girl, Beverly Jennings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Jennings, 6331 Sage Way, scored a triple victory over the weekend in the North Central Washington Tennis Tournament held at Wenatchee.

Miss Jennings won the 14 and under bracket singles by defeating eighth ranked Janet Moss of Cashmere, Wash., by scores of 6-3 and 6-0. She then captured the 16 and under event with a two-set victory over Nancy Planer of Wenatchee, 6-1 and 6-0.

She then teamed with a Washington girl to take the doubles in the 16 and under bracket in the junior tourney.

The tournament began Friday and wound up Sunday.

Eccles Tips Kingsley In LL Play

Kingsley was handed its first loss in South Suburban Little League play over the weekend when they were dumped 13 to 3 by Eccles.

M. Davidson hurled the entire route for Eccles, scattering four hits over the six frames while his mates hammered a trio of Kingsley hurlers, Sowell, Davis and Smelcer for 10 hits.

Martisak rapped a grand slam home run for the victors in the fifth frame. In other extra base clouts, Hummel had two doubles and McNary one for Eccles while Davis and Carlson turned in doubles for Kingsley.

In other play in the South Suburban Little League, two hurlers for Hal's combined for a no-run, no-hit clash as they defeated Darco 4-0. Selinski hurled the first four innings with Warren finishing up in the perfect game. Hal's rapped Buehler and Hasskamp for six hits. It was the fifth win in seven starts for Hal's.

A pitcher's duel developed between Big Y Market and Olson's Valiants with the market winning 1 to 0. Pranghofer gave up only two hits in his winning effort for Big Y, and Fischer limited the victors to just three hits.

It made Big Y's record 5-3 in season play.

Western Oil evened its record at 4-4 for play with a 5 to 3 win over Teamsters, still looking for their first victory. The game went seven innings with Ernst hitting a homer in the bottom of the seventh with a man on for the victory.

Mills was winning hurler and Coon, third hurler for the Teamsters, was the loser.

Kingsley continues to lead the league with a 7-1 record, followed by Hal's with a 5-2 and Olson's with a 4-2 mark.

Putts Decide Golf Playoff

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (UPI)—A three-foot putt dropped by Barbara Romack and a similar one missed by Shirley Englehorn on the third hole of a sudden death playoff decided the $10,000 Rock City Women's Open golf tournament here Sunday.

Both women had 212 scores for the three 18-hole rounds to tie for first place and move into the sudden death playoff for the $1,500 first-prize money.

On the third hole of the playoff on the Valley Brook Golf and Country Club course near here, Miss Romack dropped a three-foot putt. Miss Englehorn, with a slightly shorter putt, watched her ball jump in the hole and bounce back out. She left with $1,250 second-place prize money.

Grieving Ken McBride had little desire for baseball Sunday.

No one in the world would have blamed him had he decided not to pitch. But he forced himself to and turned in a magnificent job, considering his heart and mind were 2,400 miles away.

Only a few hours before he was scheduled to pitch against the Minnesota Twins at Los Angeles Sunday, the Angel right-hander was informed that his younger brother, Clifton, 24, had been killed in a Cleveland auto accident.

Manager Bill Rigney told McBride he could leave for Cleveland immediately and another pitcher would take his turn.

McBride said he'd rather pitch before joining his family.

Defeats Twins

"I felt it would take my mind off what happened," he said, then went out and beat the Twins, 4-2, although he needed Mel Nelson's help in the ninth.

"I thought about what happened back in Cleveland a couple of times while I was working a couple of long innings but I tried to keep it out of my mind," he revealed later.

The Twins, who had a four-game winning streak going, looked as if they were going to kayo McBride in a hurry when they scored a run off him in the first inning and another in the second on Jimmie Hall's homer.

But the 27-year-old blanked them thereafter without any trouble until he put two men on in the ninth. Nelson came in at that point and struck out pinch hitters Wally Post and Johnny Goryl to preserve McBride's sixth victory.

McBride fanned seven and allowed seven hits in the 8 1-3 innings he pitched. The Angels got to Jim Perry for three runs in the fourth inning and picked up one more off Ray Moore in the eighth.

Chisox In First

Elsewhere in the American League, the Chicago White Sox took over first place with a 4-3 triumph over the Kansas City A's, the Boston Red Sox beat the Baltimore Orioles, 3-2, in 14 innings, the New York Yankees ended a three-game losing slide with a 6-2 win over the Detroit Tigers, and the Cleveland Indians downed the Washington Senators, 7-3.

Paces White Sox

Pete Ward paced the White Sox into first place when he collected three hits, including his sixth homer, and scored two runs against the Athletics. Juan Pizarro picked up his sixth victory in a relief role while Bill Fischer suffered his second loss in nine decisions. Ed Charles homered for the A's.

Chuck Schilling singled home Russ Nixon with the tying run for the Red Sox in the ninth inning and then singled home Nixon with the winning run in the 14th to drop the Orioles into second place. Schilling's game-winning single came off loser Stu Miller. Dick Radatz blanked Baltimore on two hits and struck out 10 over the last six innings for his fourth victory in five decisions.

Home runs by Harry Bright, Tom Tresh, Clete Boyer and Hector Lopez helped southpaw Whitey Ford register his eighth victory for the Yankees in their game with the Tigers. Rookie Mickey Lolich was the losing pitcher.

Woodie Held drove in three runs with a double and two singles and Vic Davalillo and Fred Whitfield also collected three hits apiece in Cleveland's 16-hit offensive against Washington. Gary Bell, second of three Tribe pitchers, was credited with his third victory while Tom Cheney suffered his seventh setback. Davalillo and Chuck Hinton hit homers.

Open Berths Play Started

By United Press International

The final shooting starts today for berths in the 1963 National Open golf championship.

A total of 464 of the nation's top shotmakers—most of them survivors of preliminary competition held two weeks ago—will battle it out today and Tuesday for 129 spots in the Open, which will be held at the Country Club, Brookline, Mass., June 20-22.

The Open field actually will consist of 150 players, but 21 men, including defending champion Jack Nicklaus, were exempt for the qualifying rounds.

In today's 36-hole qualifying competition, 129 golfers will vie for 30 berths at seven sites scattered around the country. The other 99 berths will be up for grabs Tuesday when 35 players compete at six sites.

Sunday night baseball may never replace drive-in movies but the customers sure liked it because they got a chance to cool off and see the hottest pitching staff in the majors at the same time.

A crowd of 17,437, well above Houston's day-time average, took in major league baseball's first Sunday night game in history Sunday night and whooped in delight as the Colts handed the San Francisco Giants their seventh straight defeat, 3-0.

The whole idea of Sunday night games was to beat the intense day-time heat in Houston and it worked out fine when the game was played in pleasant 79-degree temperature compared with 93 degrees during the day.

Houston's pitchers have been even hotter than that recently, yielding a total of only two runs in the Colts' last three games.

Knuckleballer Skinny Brown, a 38-year-old American League retread, was Houston's pitching star Sunday night when he took over for starter Dick Farrell in the third inning and held the Giants to one hit over the last 6 1-3 innings for his first victory of the season.

Yields Lone Single

Brown, who struck out six and did not walk a batter, gave up only a fourth inning single to Willie Mays, who was wiped out stealing.

The veteran right-hander, picked up in May as a free agent after being released by the Yankees, was summoned from the bullpen after Farrell pulled a back muscle. Farrell had given up three hits.

The Colts scored two of their three runs off loser Jack Sanford, now 7-5, with Carl Warwick singling home the first one, John Bateman singling home the second and Howie Goss' double accounting for the final one in the eighth.

Dodgers Beat Cubs

The first-place Los Angeles Dodgers beat the Chicago Cubs, 11-8, despite three homers by Ernie Banks; the New York Mets took the opener from the St. Louis Cardinals, 8-7, but lost the nightcap, 10-4; Philadelphia defeated Cincinnati, 8-7, in 10 innings, then dropped the second game, 3-1, and Pittsburgh blanked Milwaukee, 4-0, but lost the finale, 5-3.

Draw Large Crowd

A crowd of 35,743, the largest Cubs' home attendance in three seasons, watched the Dodgers capitalize on four errors and two wild pitches for their fifth consecutive victory despite Banks' three homers that brought his season total to 13.

A four-run barrage in the fifth, which included back-to-back homers by Ron Santo and Banks, routed starter Sandy Koufax, but the Dodgers kayoed loser Dick Ellsworth with a four-run rally of their own in the sixth. Tommy Davis had four of the winners' 13 hits, including a homer.

The Mets won their first game from the Cardinals with the help of three gift runs and turned around and presented the Red Birds with four tainted runs in the nightcap.

Jim Hickman's bases-loaded walk, Bill White's error and a wild pitch enabled the Mets to put together a decisive three-run seventh inning rally in the opener, after which Cardinal catcher Tim McCarver got a freak inside-the-park grand slam homer when Met center-fielder Rod Kanehl fell down while camping under his routine fly in the eighth inning of the nightcap. Galen Cisco (3-5) and Ray Sadecki (3-4) were the winning pitchers.

The Phillies scored five runs in the ninth to tie the score in their opener with the Reds and Bobby Wine's infield single produced the winning run in the 10th. Don Demeter, Jim Lemon and John Callison each homered in the ninth. Callison also had connected in the first inning.

John Tsitouris of the Reds hurled a four-hitter for his first win of the season in the nightcap as Vada Pinson and Pete Rose helped him out with home runs.

Warren Spahn needed Bob Shaw's help in the eighth but still posted the 335th victory of his major league career and his eighth of the season in the Braves' nightcap triumph over the Pirates. The Braves reached loser Don Cardwell for three runs in the first inning and picked up two more in the eighth with the aid of three errors.

Chateaugay's Trainer Explains Lone Defeat

NEW YORK (UPI) — Chateaugay's trainer today offered an explanation for the Colt's defeat in the Preakness Stakes after winning the Kentucky Derby so convincingly and then coming back Saturday with a smashing victory in the Belmont Stakes.

That second-place finish in the Preakness cost Chateaugay a clean sweep of the Triple Crown classics just as in other years defeat in the Pimlico race proved the undoing of Zev, Twenty Grand, Johnstown, Shut Out, Middleground and Needles. They, too, won the Kentucky Derby and the Belmont Stakes but were found wanting in the Preakness.

"I think we may have learned something from all this," said Jimmy Conway, who trains Chateaugay for the Darby Dan Farm of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Galbreath.

"I think he wants a little more time between races," he said of the bright chestnut colt who won the Blue Grass Stakes nine days prior to his Kentucky Derby triumph but then was second to Candy Spots two weeks later in the Preakness. There was a three-week gap until the Belmont.

Conway had no immediate plans for Chateaugay.

"We'll have to wait and see. We really have no plans for him yet," he said of the colt which won the rubber match with Candy Spots when he licked his rival by two and one-half lengths in the testing mile and one-half Belmont Stakes.

Chateaugay hauled down a winner's purse of $101,700 in the $145,450 Belmont Stakes. The horse was second choice and paid $11.00.

Majors Sign 3 Oregonians

PORTLAND (UPI)—Three Oregon collegiate baseball players signed major league contracts during the weekend.

Infield first baseman Jim Sandness signed with the New York Mets, Portland State catcher Bob Stamsos with the Milwaukee Braves, and Linfield pitcher Ed Cecil with the St. Louis Cardinals.

Doug Olson Wins Event

SALEM (UPI)—Doug Olson, a 15-year-old high school student from Medford, defeated Tom Storey of Seattle on the third hole of a sudden-death playoff to win the first annual Northwest Invitational amateur golf tournament Sunday.

The playoff was necessary when each finished with even par 144s in the 36-hole, two-day tourney.

Olson, who is a week shy of his 16th birthday, shot a par four on the third playoff hole while Storey three-putted for a bogey five.

Olson fired a three-under-par 69 Saturday to take a three-stroke lead over the field of top Pacific Northwest amateurs and had a 75 Sunday. Storey was 73-71 for the two days.

John Zoller of Eugene took third place with 145 and Stew Schroeder of Medford and Ken Leonard tied for fourth with 146s.

Emile Plans September Title Fight

NEW YORK (UPI) — Emile Griffith, the first three-time welterweight champion, may defend his latest crown at Las Vegas, Nev., or some other western city on Friday, Sept. 20, matchmaker Teddy Brenner disclosed today.

That's the date on which the television fights shift from Saturday nights back to Friday nights. An ice show will be occupying Madison Square Garden at the time.

"We'd like to have him on television that night," Brenner explained, "in a defense against the winner of a London fight between ex-champion Luis Rodriguez of Miami Beach and Brian Curvis of Wales."

Brenner said he understood that London promoter Jack Solomons is considering a Rodriguez-Curvis fight this summer.

Griffith, 25, of New York, won the title for a record third time Saturday night on a controversial split 15-round decision over Rodriguez at the Garden before 8,081 turbulent spectators.

Loud were the boos, particularly from a large segment of Latin American fans, when the 9-6, 8-7, 5-10 decision enabled Griffith to win back the crown from Rodriguez, who had taken it from Griffith on a unanimous but controversial verdict at Los Angeles March 21.

The United Press International scored Saturday's fight in favor of Rodriguez, 8-6-1. And a poll of 26 sports writers in the Garden favored Rodriguez, 13-7-1.

Each fighter weighed 146½ pounds and they went into the ring at "even money."
