Kaline Paces Tigers; Giants Snap Losing Skein

Yankees, Senators Split

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

AL Kaline may at last have the last laugh on those critics who've said he'll never be a better ball player than he was at 20 years of age.

It's been seven full seasons since Kaline won the American League batting title with a .340 average in 196 and became the youngest batting champion in major league history. He's had many fine seasons since 1965 but he's never topped that year for all-around effectiveness.

This very well could be the year — in fact, it could be a year in which he silences his critics once and for all by becoming the sixth American Leaguer to win the triple batting crown. Micky Mantle was the last to do it, in 1956, and the only other AL slugger who's accomplished the feat were Ted Williams, Ty Cobb, Jimmy Foxx and Lou Gehrig.

Kaline is currently leading the AL with 45 runs batted in, ranks second in batting with a .337 mark and his 13 homers place him two behind leader Bob Allison of the Minnesota Twins.

Kaline reached a career milestone Monday night when he hit the 200th and 201st homers of his career in paces the Tigers to a 6-1 victory over the Boston Red Sox. He is the sixth active AL player to reach the 200-homer mark, joining Mantle, Yogi Berra, Joe Adcock, Rocky Colavito and Roger Maris.

Kaline's 200th homer followed a single by Jake Wood and a walk to Billy Bruton and sent the Tigers off to a 3-0 lead in the first inning. He hit No. 201 in the fifth inning to restore Detroit to a three-run lead. Rookie Bill Paul yielded only three singles — all by Carl Yastrzemski — to win his third game against one defeat.

Indians Beat Orioles
The Cleveland Indians beat the Baltimore Orioles, 3-2, the Los Angeles Angels walloped the Kansas City Athletics, 13-3, and the Washington Senators scored a 1-0 victory after a 7-0 loss to the New York Yankees in other American League games.

Barry Latman pitched seven-hit ball for 8 2/3 innings and produced his own winning run with a seventh-inning homer as the Indians gained their seventh win in their last eight games. Latman's homer came on the first pitch by Mike McCormick after the teams waited 77 minutes for a rainstorm to end. Joe Adcock also homered for the Indians, who dealt the Orioles their ninth defeat in 11 games.

Collect 18 Hits
Leon Wagner, Charlie Dees and Ed Sadowski homered to lead an 18-hit Angel attack that also included three hits each by Albie Pearson and Lee Thomas. Dan Osninski pitched a seven-hitter behind the assault to raise his record to 5-2. Orlando Pena suffered his seventh loss against five wins.

Newcomer Al Downing pitched a league victory but Claude Osteen earned the Senators a split of their two-night doubleheader with the Yankees by pitching a six-hitter in the nightcap. Clete Boyer had a homer and two singles and Elston Howard a homer and a double to lead the Yankees' 12-hit attack in the first game while Chuck Hinton's fifth-inning triple with Ed Brinkman aboard provided the Senators with the only run of the nightcap.

Golfers Playing For Spot

By JOE SARGIS
UPI Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UPI) — Julius (Moose) Boros, winner of the Buick Open last weekend, old Sammy Snead and long-hitting George Bayer were among "name" golfers shooting today for the remaining 99 berths in the National Open championship.

They joined Jay and Leonel Hebert, Bill Collins, Cary Middlecott, Johnny Pott, Don January and Joe Campbell and 104 others at the Century and Old Oaks Country clubs in suburban Purchase, N.Y., for 45 berths from the New York area.

Twenty more berths were up for grabs at Detroit, 19 at Pittsburgh, 7 each at Atlanta and Winchester, Mass., 6 at Bakersfield, Calif., and 4 at Fort Worth, Tex., to complete a qualifying list of 129 out of an original non-exempt field of 2,400.

The 30 other qualifying berths were filled Monday with second round play at six sites — Washington, D.C., Cincinnati, Chicago, Denver, Kansas City and Portland, Ore. Dow Finsterwald, a former PGA champion who ended a long victory drought by winning the recent "Festival 500" at Indianapolis, had the best round among this group — a 69-64-133 at the Clovenrock Country Club in Cincinnati.

A total of 120 players will tee off in the Open at Brookline, Mass., June 20-22, and only 21 of that field will have earned berths automatically.

They include the last five individuals to win the Open, headed by defending champion Jack Nicklaus and including Gene Littler, Arnold Palmer, Bill Casper Jr. and Tommy Bolt.

Veteran tourney pro Fred Wampler of St. Louis carried a 69-66-135 at the Indian Hills Country Club in Kansas City for Monday's second best score to qualify along with former Open winner Jack Fleck, who shot a 70-76-146 at Chicago, and Dean Berman, a one-time British and U.S. Amateur champion, who had a 70-76-146 at Washington.

Chuck Congdon Tops Qualifiers
PORTLAND (UPI) — Chuck Congdon of Tacoma fired a six-under-par 130 to top a field of nine players in U.S. Open golf tournament sectional qualifying here Monday.

He shot rounds of 68 and 70 in the 36-hole competition to earn a spot in the national tourney at Brookline, Mass., June 20-23. However, he decided not to make the trip.

Bill Almont of Seattle was second alternate with 132. Dr. Herman Dahl of Tacoma was low amateur with 150.

Dodgers' Victims Of Streak Snapper

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

The Los Angeles Dodgers had better get a new book on Orlando Cepeda and Ed Bailey or they'll have to read about the World Series again next October.

The Dodgers have one of the best pitching staffs in baseball but Cepeda and Bailey greet 'em like they were batting practice hurlers. Just take a look at how Orlando and Ed have treated Dodger pitching and you have the explanation for the fact the San Francisco Giants have beaten Los Angeles in three of their last four meetings.

The Giants topped the Dodgers again Monday night, 7-3, with Cepeda crashing a tie-breaking homer in the eighth inning and Bailey belting a two-run homer in the ninth.

Cepeda hit a three-run double and Bailey drove in two runs with a homer and two singles when the Giants beat the Dodgers for the first time this season on May 24. And the same pair hit homers on May 25 when the Giants scored their second win of the season over their arch-rivals.

Cepeda and Bailey have thus knocked in 10 of the 20 runs the Giants have scored in their three victories over the Dodgers.

Draw Big Crowd
A crowd of 52,993 at Los Angeles Monday night saw Cepeda's 12th homer of the season snap a 3-3 tie in the eighth. Bailey's two-run homer featured a three-run clinching outburst in the ninth as Don Larsen picked up his first win and Ron Perranoski suffered his second defeat.

Willie McCovey also homered and Willie Mays had three hits in the Giants' 12-hit attack while Maury Wills, John Roseboro and Dick Tracewski had two hits each for the Dodgers, whose National League lead over the idle St. Louis Cardinals was cut to two percentage points.

The victory moved the Giants to within one game of the top rung.

Cubs Beat Colts
The Chicago Cubs edged out the Houston Colts, 3-2, the Philadelphia Phillies downed the Milwaukee Braves, 6-2, and the New York Mets nipped the Cincinnati Reds, 3-2, in other NL games. St. Louis at Pittsburgh was rained out.

Ken Hubbs' ninth-inning single scored pinch runner Jim Schaffer with the winning run for the Cubs as Lindy McDaniel picked up his fourth win in relief. The victim was Hal Woodeshick, who had not yielded a run in his previous 21 consecutive innings. Billy Williams homered for the Cubs and Howie Goss connected for Houston.

Wins Eighth Game
Ray Culp, a rookie right-hander who didn't impress the Phillies much in the spring, raised his record to 8-3 with a four-hitter in a 5 1/2-inning game ended by rain.

Tony Gonzalez' double and two blows by Don Demeter were the big hits of the Phillies' eight-hit attack. Ed Mathews homered for the Braves.

Tracy Stallard scored his first big league victory since Sept. 3, 1961, and also pitched his first

Tri-City, Falcons Battle At Gem Stadium Wednesday

BEND — The Klamath Falcons played their finest defensive game of the season Monday night and just scrambled by the pesky Bend American Legion team, 1-0, in a non-league game.

"If we played defensive ball like we did against Bend in every game, no one could beat us," said Coach John Paxton after the game. "The kids sure played a great ball game. They really came up with some fine plays and some of them at the right time," he continued.

It was the fifth victory against one defeat for the rugged Falcons. Rich Grow went the distance for the Falcons and twirled a neat four-hit game in the route. He struck out only one and walked four. The Falcons handled the ball on the ground 19 times and made only one error in the game.

The Falcons doubled the hitting of Bend with eight hits, but only the one run. "We are fielding well now but we can't move the runners around," Paxton said.

The lone Falcon run came in the third inning with two away. Dave Johnson led off with a single and Grow struck out. Shortstop LeVoy Young drew a walk and moved to second when Johnson was chopped down on Larry Binney's fielder's choice. Young scampered all the way home on a single by John Parisotto, Falcon hot corner man, who had three hits in four trips in the game.

Grow didn't get into any real trouble until the third when runners reached third base twice. But superb fielding plays cut them down at home plate, one of which upended catcher Jay Paxton. He didn't have much trouble again until the seventh when shortstop Jerry Wetle slammed a triple with only one out. But Grow got the pitcher Mike Metke to ground out as the runner was held. The leadoff man ground out to third to end the inning and threat.

The Falcons got runners to several times without being able to advance them. They didn't get another runner in scoring position until the seventh. Parisotto singled but was cut down at second. With two out John Gray doubled but died there.

Parisotto got three of the eight Falcon hits. Gray had the double and the other four hits were scattered singles by LeVoy Young, Larry Binney, Jay Paxton and Johnson.

The Falcons will take on the Tri-City Gems in a league game Wednesday night at Gem Stadium at 8 o'clock. Coach Paxton is undecided about his starter. He will go with Gary Benson or Rich Jackson.
