Trump Lead Not Error

By OSWALD JACOBY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

North has 15 points, but his hand is not worth an opening no-trump because he has no ace and five of his points are represented by the doubleton king-queen of spades.

On the other hand, his diamond opening is eminently sound. You can't say the same about East's overcall, but in general you won't lay up anything when you fail to get into the bidding at the one level when you have three aces and a fair five-card suit.

The rest of the bidding is just about automatic although some conservative souls would be politely silent about West's piece of cheese. The hand is from the Southeastern championships in Miami.

The play is of no interest except to duplicate players, because South has a cinch nine tricks for his spade contract and that is just what most South players made.

At one table West opened a trump. East won with the ace and returned a trump. This gave South a chance to discard one of his hearts on the long diamond and make four odd for a top score.

East criticized his partner's lead, but the main fault lay with East. He was looking right at dummy when he led that second spade and if East had paid attention to the bidding East would have taken his other two aces and then led whichever suit his partner had signaled in.

BARREL RACE

Q—The bidding has been:
East South West North
3 ♠ Double Pass 4 ♠
Pass 4 N.T. Pass 5 ♠
Pass 7 ♠

You, South, hold:
♠ K J 9 7 ♦ A Q 8 6 ♣ K 7 1 3
What do you do?

A—Pass. Your partner has a big hand, but you showed your full strength when you doubled.

TODAY'S QUESTION
Instead of bidding five clubs your partner bids five spades over your four no-trump. What do you do now?

Barrel Race Sanctioned

ALTUHAS — Barrel racing at the Likely Rodeo has been sanctioned by the California Open Barrel Racing Association, according to Bill Flournoy, Likely roping club president.

The races will be held at the rodeo June 15 - 16. The two-day event will feature the Billy Walker bucking string from Beatty, Ore., for the saddle bronc event and more than 25 head of "wild Modoc Buckers" picked from around the county for the bareback event. There will be bull riding, calf roping and team roping to round out the rodeo events.

Saturday admission charges have been sliced this year to attract more spectators at the first day show. With the exception of box seats, which may be purchased in advance for both days, bleacher reserve seats will be sold at $1.30 for adults and 50 cents for children. Sunday admission will be $2.50 and $1.50 for adults and $1 and 50 cents for children. Pre-school age will be admitted free.

Friday and Saturday night the town of Likely will entertain the cowboys and spectators with western dancing and the traditional Indian stick games.

First public night school for high school subjects opened in Cincinnati, Ohio, during 1856.
