DAR Meets In Roseburg

The DAR district meeting was held June 5 in Roseburg. Attending from Klamath Falls were Mrs. Will Wood, Eulalona regent, and Mrs. Arch Proctor, past regent. Eulalona Chapter received an award for outstanding accomplishments in the past year and is listed on the national honor roll. Particularly stressed at the meeting was the DAR project of giving flags to youth groups. In Klamath Falls, Eulalona Chapter has given many flags to the Girl Scout, Camp Fire Girls and Boy Scout organizations.

GOLDENWEDS — Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fiegi were recently honored in Merrill on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary. They were married in Minnesota and came to the Klamath Basin in 1948.

WINS AWARD — Barbara Pitts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pitts, Malin, received the Malin Helping Hand Society $100 scholarship. She will enroll this fall at Shasta Junior College and plans to study foreign languages.

RECIPIENT — Fremont PTA has awarded its scholarship to Carol Ann Thompson, KUH's senior and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Thompson. The scholarship is given to encourage and enable outstanding young people to enter the teaching profession.

Birthday Tea Given

BONANZA—A pretty spring tea was held May 27 at the Bonanza Library was given by the Woman's Club to honor the 68th birthday of Mrs. Birdie Burk.

Mrs. Burk was born on the Horton Ranch and has lived all her life in Klamath County. Her many friends and relatives came from Ashland, Klamath Falls, Poe Valley, Dairy, Bonanza and Langell Valley to honor her birthday.

Mrs. Cecil Haley and Mrs. Harold Williams were in charge of arrangements.

Spring flowers centered the tables and small decorated cakes were served with punch and coffee. Pouring were Mrs. Burk's granddaughters, Mrs. Stanley Masten of Poe Valley and Mrs. Bob Jones, Klamath Falls.

HOUSEWARMING

A group of friends recently surprised Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dalton Jr. with a housewarming in their new home near Malin. A gift certificate was given to the Daltons after which a late buffet supper was served.

Woodcraft Lodge Meets

Neighbors of Woodcraft met May 6 in the KC Hall with Guardian Neighbor Thelma Rolter presiding.

Maude Holmes, Beulah Hubbard, Hazel James, Joann Lombard and Hilma Solsberry were honored for having May birthdays.

William Morachi was chosen mother of the year. A potluck dinner was served later.

On May 20, the lodge again met in regular form. It was voted to stage a pie walk at the next meeting on June 3.

Members who attended the meeting in Ashland included Neva Hayes, assistant district field manager, Susie Harris, Violet Joplin, Erma Miller, Gertrude Huff and Ruth Novotny. Neva Hayes was installed as district banker and Susie Harris as district senior guardian neighbor.

On May 9, Elaine Cook and Evelyn Carlson were hostesses at a coffee hour at the Cook home to 16 women and 17 children.

Merrill Pair Wed 50 Years

On April 27, approximately 250 friends and relatives from Glendale, Klamath Falls, Malin and Merrill in Oregon and Yreka and Tulelake, Calif., gathered at the Merrill Recreation Hall for a buffet supper given by the sons and daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fiegi in honor of their golden wedding anniversary.

The room was decorated in colors of gold and green. A three-tiered gold trimmed wedding cake was placed between gold candelabra on the reception table. A small gold house also held cards and monetary gifts for the honored couple.

Lenore Johnson, Carolyn Fiegi, Ruth Ann Fiegi and Kathleen Fiegi, granddaughters of the couple, took care of the guest book and gift table.

Mrs. John Bailey presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Max Hartlerode poured coffee. Mrs. Ivan Icenbice and Mrs. Dan Geaney served the wedding cake.

Mrs. John Stolt, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Geaney decorated the hall and tables.

The entertainment was emceed by Mrs. George Mattson. Jim Chance sang "If You Were the Only Girl in the World" and "Put on Your Old Gray Bonnet." Accordion selections were played by Kathleen Fiegi and Diane Snapp, and a tap dance routine was given by Janie and Margaret Retherath.

Concluding the program, the life history of Mr. and Mrs. Fiegi was read with a skit entitled "The Fiegi Family." Betty Ann Chapman took the part of Fred Fiegi; Jean Ann Lyman, Mrs. Fiegi; Pam Connor, Bernard; Peggy Carter, Melvin; Audrene Cunningham, Rovella, and Karen Chapman, Milton.

Mr. and Mrs. Fiegi were married May 5, 1913, in Pine City, Minn., and resided in that state until 1948 when they moved to the Klamath Basin. In 1951 they purchased a home in Merrill when they now reside.

FASHION FLAIR

Zip and it's gone. An "invisible" zipper that eliminates the need for a cover-up flap resembles a closed seam when zipped. The manufacturer says it is impossible for the zipper to snag. There are no slits in the slider for material to catch in.
