

Dr. Cressman To Speak At Fort Rock Dedication

FORT ROCK—Dr. Luther S. Cressman, retiring head of the University of Oregon Department of Anthropology, will speak at the June 22 dedication of the Fort Rock Cave. The program will begin at 12 noon.

The cave's excavation some years ago was headed by Dr. Cressman. He will bring for display samples of the woven sagebrush sandals and matting which dated early man's dwelling here more than 9,000 years ago.

Phil Brogan of Bend, associate editor of the Bend Bulletin, will introduce Dr. Cressman. Brogan has gained recognition throughout the Northwest with his study and writing in the field of geology.

Presentation of the bronze marker by W. Ward Yeager, superintendent of Crater Lake National Park, and its acceptance by R. A. Long, on whose ranch the cave is located, will precede Dr. Cressman's speech.

The public is invited to the ceremonies, according to Mrs. Mau-

JFK May Meet New Pontiff

ROME (UPI)—White House press secretary Pierre Salinger today explored the ground for President Kennedy's visit to Italy, which has been complicated by the death of Pope John XXIII and the lack of an Italian government.

But there were indications the President might meet the new Pope to be selected in a secret conclave starting June 19.

Kennedy's "working visit" beginning June 30 or July 1 earlier had been planned to include an audience with Pope John XXIII. The President had also hoped to meet with government leaders but Premier-designate Aldo Moro is still trying to form a cabinet following the resignation of Premier Amintore Fanfani.

Salinger declined to make any comment on Kennedy's plans when he arrived Tuesday night from Washington with an advance party of 20 White House, State Department and Secret Service aides.

If an Italian cabinet is not formed in time, Kennedy may confer with President Antonio Segni, whose office is largely ceremonial.

Royalty For Roundup Named

LAKEVIEW—Susan Hotchkiss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Hotchkiss, was named queen of the 1963 Lake County Roundup as a result of tryouts and judging held here June 8. Princesses will be Ann Weir, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Weir Jr., and Alice Green of Paisley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Green.

All of the 11 girls who were in the contest handled their horses with ease at the horsemanship tryouts at the fairgrounds during the afternoon. The judges were Dave Campbell of Bly, Brunel Christensen of Likely, Calif., and Bob Hunt of Klamath Falls.

Personality and ability to meet the public were judged at a dinner which followed at Van's Restaurant, when three girls were chosen from the group. The final decision of naming the queen was made at a dance that evening at the exhibit building. The dance tickets counted as ballots.

Susan, 16, a senior at Lakeview High School, is a natural for the position of queen of the court. She has been riding since a small child on the 70 Ranch, her home north of Lakeview, and has been active in 4-H Club work and school activities. She is a blue-eyed blonde, five feet, six inches tall, with hobbies of riding and skiing. She was sponsored for the contest by the Thomas Creek Grange.

Alice, a nominee of the Lake County Roping Club, is a senior at Paisley High School. She is

Scouts Plan Camping Trip

The Modoc Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America announced that 20 older scouts, Explorers and adult leaders will leave from Klamath Falls, June 16, at 8:30 a.m. by bus for a rugged camping experience at the Palmit Scout Ranch in New Mexico.

The Palmit Ranch, which celebrates its 25th anniversary this year, is the national camping area for the scout movement. It comprises 127,000 acres of rugged western country on the slopes of the Sangre de Cristo Range of the great Rocky Mountain chain.

Ernest McKenzie, Prineville, who is post adviser of Explorer Post 28, is the leader of the contingent. Assisting him as leader of the trip is Gale Staley, district executive, Klamath Falls.

Chief Of Information, Congressman Wage Fight Over 'Voice' Broadcast

WASHINGTON (UPI)—U.S. Information Agency chief Edward R. Murrow and a New York congressman sharply disagree on whether Voice of America broadcasts aimed at Poland are "just a waste of time and money."

Rep. John J. Rooney, D-N.Y., said in House appropriations subcommittee testimony made public today that he returned from a recent trip to Poland convinced that more Poles listen to music on the armed forces network than the news programs of the Voice of America (VOA).

Murrow said the VOA aimed its broadcasts at "the reasonably literate, sophisticated individual who is likely to be interested in world affairs."

Rooney said he thought they should be directed to the "bulk of the population"—farmers. He said it was "a waste of time and money for us to direct broadcasts at the hard-core Communists who never had it so good."

But Murrow said surveys disproved Rooney's contention that the VOA was "way down on the list" of Poles' favorite broadcasts. Other congressional news: Rollcall: Republican leaders must decide today whether to force a rollcall vote in the House on a bill that would prevent hotels and motels built with federal aid from denying rooms to Negroes. GOP leaders oppose the bill.

Rights: The Kennedy administration was reported seriously considering a request to Congress for legislation outlawing job discrimination against Negroes. Administration sources confirmed a provision to set up machinery for stopping employment discrimination was being weighed.
