

Children And Dependents Of Deceased Veterans To Receive Increase In Monthly Compensation

About 450 children and 300 dependent parents of deceased Oregon veterans will receive an increase of approximately 10 percent in monthly dependency and indemnity compensation payments as the result of a recently enacted federal law, R. J. Novotny, manager of the Portland Veterans Administration Regional Office, announced today.

The law applies only to payments based on service connected death. The increases will be automatic, and will be included in the July checks mailed to reach beneficiaries about Aug. 1, 1963, Novotny explained. There is no need to write the VA.

A child now receiving $70 per month will receive $77 per month under the new law. Two children, currently receiving dependency and indemnity compensation checks amounting to $100 per month, will receive $110 equally divided between them under the new law.

Three children receiving $130 per month, will receive $143 per month equally divided between them. If there are more than three children, each additional child now receiving $25 a month, will receive $28 a month under the new law.

In the case of dependent parents living together, with an annual income of less than $1,000, their present payment of $50 each will be increased to $55 each.

COLLECTS IN PERSON

WROTHAM, England (UPI)—The winner of a raffle for a free shampoo and hair curlers made an appointment Wednesday to collect the prize.

James Cripps, who is bald, refused to turn the prize over to his wife, commenting: "You should see all the pretty girls in the hairdresser's."

ADAPTS TOO WELL
LYON, France (UPI)— Social worker Jacques Farin won a municipal citation four months ago for his work in adapting himself "to the environment of juvenile delinquents."

Farin was sentenced to three years in jail Wednesday as the leader of a teen-age gang of burglars.

35 Visit Historical Landmarks

FORT KLAMATH—On Sunday, June 2, a group of 35 members of the Klamath County Historical Society stopped for lunch at the C.I. Clubhouse in Fort Klamath. The stop was originally scheduled to be at the Fort Klamath Hotel, but plans were changed as the hotel is closed temporarily after change of management and refurbishing.

The society members started by car from Klamath Falls Sunday morning on a tour of interesting historical spots en route to Fort Klamath. One inspection stop was at the site of the old Fort Klamath military garrison one mile south here, now the William Zumbrun ranch. They were granted permission by Mr. and Mrs. Zumbrun to explore the vicinity where the old fort stood and were successful in discovering remnants of the old flag pole.

Each person making the trek brought along a sack lunch, which was supplemented by coffee, ice cream, and cake furnished by Mrs. Elizabeth M. Loosley, Fort Klamath member, who acted as hostess to the gathering. She was assisted by a second local member, Mrs. Willeska R. Loosley.

Following refreshments, Mrs. Elizabeth Loosley gave a talk on history of the area, including that of a local landmark, the Fort Klamath Hotel. Present with his wife, Haj H. Ogle of Klamath Falls displayed a number of interesting old-time pictures from his collection. A discussion of significant historical events, places, and the various people involved in the past of Klamath County was held by the party before members returned home.

Boys' Choir To Appear

MOUNT SHASTA—The Tucson, Ariz., Boys' Choir will sing in Mount Shasta in the spring and a piano-violin duo will present a program in November, as a result of a reserve taken on them at the June 8 meeting of the Mount Shasta Community Concert Association. A Chinese couple, Ma Si-Hon and Tung Kwung-Kwong, will be the fall attraction, according to Mrs. Eldon Poe, publicity chairman.

Mrs. Mae Noe, president, presided at the board of directors meeting, when Donald Enders, field representative of the National Community Concert Association, was principal speaker. Mrs. M. C. Gerlicher, formerly of McCloud, was appointed second vice president and membership chairman.

Campaign week was set for Oct. 13-19, with headquarters at Hoffman's Department Store. Membership will be $7 for adults and $3 for students. A minimum of three concerts is planned, with more to be obtained if the membership warrants it.

FAINTS DURING MUSICAL.
NEW YORK (UPI)—Comedian Sid Caesar, who plays seven roles in the Broadway musical "Little Me," fainted Wednesday night during the show's first act.

Exhaustion was blamed by a doctor who examined Caesar. He rested backstage, then was taken to his Long Island home. The curtain, rung down when Caesar collapsed, went up eight minutes later and the musical continued with understudy Mickey Deems playing Caesar's parts. Caesar was expected to be back on stage tonight.

Dwight Eisenhower was president of Columbia University for four years.
