

College News

Andrea Reeder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Reeder, who has just completed her sophomore year at college, has been selected to play with the Ensemble for the Shakespearean Theater in Ashland this summer season. A flutist, she has played in the band at Oregon State University the past year.

Wendell McLin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McLin, is one of 12 juniors scholastically highest of their class, who were chosen to serve as marshals of the University of Oregon Dental School commencement exercises June 13. He was graduated with a BS degree from Willamette University before enrolling at the dental school. His wife, Diane, is a case-worker with the welfare department.

Mana Chenoweth Swanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Chenoweth, received her BA degree in education on June 3 from Northwest Nazarene College at Nampa, Idaho. She is a member of Zeta Kappa Rho honor society and was presented with the Anna B. Hayes Education Award by the Idaho State PTA. She has accepted a teaching position in Kansas City, Mo., where her husband will be enrolled at Nazarene Theological Seminary.

Susan Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Peterson, recently received the award for the outstanding senior in Phi Chi Theta honorary for women in business at Oregon State University. She also received the award for outstanding senior in her sorority, Alpha Gamma Delta.

A recent graduate in secretarial science, she will leave soon for Germany where she will be married to Lt. Lynn S. Hill of Orinda, Calif., presently serving with the Army.

Richard Flynn, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Flynn, Tulelake, received a BA degree from Stanford University on June 16. He has been accepted to the University of California Law School at Berkeley for the fall term.

Donald Patton, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Patton received a BS degree with honors in the School of Education at the June

Two Klamath Falls students have been commissioned as second lieutenants following completion of advanced ROTC at Oregon State University. Gerald Musselman was commissioned in the Air Force and Ronald Robertson in the Army.

John C. Cox, son of Dr. and Mrs. John Cox, received a Military Science Achievement Award at the commissioning and awards ceremonies June 9 of the University of Oregon Military Department.

Sixteen members of the second Honors College graduating class at the University of Oregon received degrees on June 9. Called a "college within the university" for exceptionally able students, this year's graduating class achieved a 3.28 grade point average.

Among the graduates was Russell Schuh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schuh, who received a BA degree in foreign languages.

Tom Premo, former resident of Klamath Falls now residing at Burney, Calif., received his BA degree from Chico State College this spring term.

Charles Tuning, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Evert J. Tuning, Sprague River, was a candidate for the degree of Master of Social Work at the June 10 commencement exercises at University of Utah.

Martin L. Pernoll, a 1957 graduate of Lakeview High School, received his doctor of medicine degree Monday, June 10, at the University of Texas in Galveston. He plans to take his internship at the University of Oregon Medical School in Portland and later get special training in surgery.

Five students from Lake County were included in the commencement services at the University of Oregon. They were Alta Lee Pernoll, Summer Lake; Clifford Herbert, Lakeview, and Charlecia Lantz Fendell, receiving bachelor of science degrees. Henry Ernest Bergstrom received a bachelor of law degree, and James Bud Deming a bachelor of arts

Silliman-Solberg Vows Are Recited

The marriage of Joann Solberg and Norman Silliman was solemnized May 18 in the Congregational Church with the bride's uncle, the Rev. Eugene B. Barrow of Prineville, officiating.

The altar was flanked by beauty baskets of white gladioli and pink carnations for the double ring ceremony. Campanion flowers were on the piano, which was played by Janice LaGrande.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin O. Solberg and was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was fashioned of delustered satin with trim of embroidered scalloped Chantilly lace. The full skirt extended into a chapel train. A petite satin pillow embroidered with pearls and crystals and with self bow at back secured the elbow length veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade of white cymbidium orchids, white carnations and stephanotis and centered with a corsage for her going-away outfit.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Mary Beth Solberg. Her frock was of dark rose.

Bridesmaids were dressed in pink. They were the bridegroom's sister, Grace Silliman, and two classmates of the bride, Mary Ott and Estelle Strand, all of Eugene.

The honor attendant's flowers were light pink Tama carnations. Those of the bridesmaids were pink and white elegance carnations.

Jan Silliman, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

degree.

Meivin Ray Adams was graduated with honors at the Oregon State University commencement, in the School of Science.

Graduating from Southern Oregon College at Ashland were Joanne Cosgrove, Jack Kopacz, and Sharon Kay Washburn, receiving bachelor of science degrees in education; David Elliott and Glenn Vandergar, bachelor of science degrees in general studies; and Donald B. Alger, bachelor of arts in general studies.

Cook Laird received his bachelor of science degree from the University of Nevada on June 2, having majored in agricultural education.

Bette Lee Orr has been named royalty editor for the Oregon State University Beaver for the coming year. She has served as club editor during the past year.

David Morris, 1961 graduate of Lakeview High School, was among the 60 students of the University of California Glee Club who left June 12 for Europe. He sings second tenor with the club. They will sing in 11 countries and housed and entertained by students in various universities. They return to the states August 12.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Margaret Silliman, Eugene, and J. B. Silliman, Salt Lake City. Mrs. Silliman wore an ensemble of gold brocade for the occasion.

Roger Persons was best man and ushers were Dale Bartmess, Noel Silliman and Victor Alexander, all of Eugene.

After a brief honeymoon trip,

The reception in the church parlors followed the ceremony. In the receiving line with the bride's mother was Mrs. Solberg, who chose a dress of mint green brocade for her daughter's wedding.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Melvin Howie, Mrs. Elwin Swinney, Mrs. Vernon Alexander, Mrs. Herbert Harshbarger, Mrs. Joann Lesiak, Mrs. Joe Silliman, Mrs. Quinn Hawley, Mrs. Eugene Barrow and Nolan Lesiak.

Attending the gift table and guest book were Penny Lynn Howie, Ann Lesiak and Mary Gail Barrow.

After a brief honeymoon trip,

FOR YOUR Protection

Dean DeWitt Answers Your Insurance Questions

JERRY THOMAS INSURANCE AGENCY
304 So. 7th TU 2-5555

TO HOLD OFFICE — At the annual tea of Pelicanettes held this year in the Winema Hotel Round Table Room, new officers were installed and presented with one red rose. Left to right, are Linda Stranske, hand drill leader; Elizabeth Ough, secretary; Jean Bispham, president; Edie Morlan, dance leader; Sharon Randle, treasurer. Not pictured is Beth Mason, vice president.

ALL IN FUN — Junior members of Pelicanettes staged entertainment for the party. Sylvia Gerber, seated left, adviser to the group, goes along with the fun assisted by outgoing officers of the club. Also shown seated is Ann Brickner, center, president, and Joyce Badker, dance leader. Standing, same order, Roxie Mathews, hand drill leader; Carol Phillips, secretary; Susan Leiser, vice president. Not present was Mary Bunyard, treasurer.

PRESIDENTS — Jean Bispham, right, new president of Pelicanettes, pep club of KUHS, receives the gavel and few pointers from the club's scrapbook from Ann Brickner, outgoing president.

Naomi Shrine

At the first meeting of their terms of office, new officers of Naomi Shrine No. 5 heard committee appointments and Ruth Geiss, noble prophetess, announce her ways and means projects.

Refreshment committee members for the evening were Nell Stewart, Lorena Ward, Ruth and Charles Leib.

Watchmen of shepherds

Clyde Brown made a report on his attendance at Supreme Shrine session in New Orleans the previous week. He also brought the announcement of the supreme appointments for some of the local members. The Worthy High Priestess Myrtle Schieferstein was appointed supreme page; Watchman of Shepherds Brown was appointed supreme king's guard and Lois Murphy, junior past worthy high priestess, was appointed district deputy of District No. 4 in Oregon. A song was sung by Al and Ruth Geiss in honor of Mother's Day and the worthy high priestess presented all mothers attending a small memento. Refreshments were served by Josephine and Carl Young, Jane and Thomas Barnes, Florence and Bud Anderson. During the refreshment hour, Myrtle Schieferstein was presented with a cake in honor of her birthday which was May 12.

QUEEN'S Tryouts

JUNE 23rd

TWO BIG EVENTS!

JUNIOR QUEEN

of the

Junior Rodeo

July 20th & 21st

★ ★ ★ ★

Gals - 14 to 16

Register Now!

Sign up free right now at Charlie Read's Saddlery, 623 Klamath Ave., Gene's Men's Store, 6th and Main or Drews Manstore, 733 Main. The Queen will be chosen and crowned June 23rd.

QUEEN

of the

Professional RODEO

July 2nd - 3rd - 4th

★ ★ ★ ★

Gals - 16 to 20

Register Now!

It's free, so sign up right now at Charlie Read's Saddlery, 623 Klamath Ave., Gene's Men's Store, 6th and Main or Drews Manstore at 733 Main. The Queen will be selected and crowned June 23rd.

TRYOUTS START 1:30 P.M.

Klamath County Fairgrounds

This is just the beginning of the many events to be held during rodeo time in the Klamath Basin. Plan on attending them all. For advance professional rodeo tickets write to: P.O. Box 367, Klamath Falls, Oregon. General admission, adults, $1.50; Children, 50c . . . Covered Grandstand, $2.50 and $3.50.

Use Fashion Villa's Convenient Charge, Revolving Charge or Lay-Away

Look!
New sheer elastic *

New lightness... New coolness
Playtex Living® Bra
with Stretch-ever® Sheer Elastic...
Made Without Rubber

Now Playtex brings you two new Living Bras with exciting Stretch-ever sheer elastic. Like other Playtex Living Bras, they're machine washable with detergents... even bleach... won't yellow or pucker. Hold their shape month after month with no stretch out. Beautiful nylon lace cups.

SHORT 3.95
(Illustrated)

LONG LINE 7.95

Purchase Playtex Living Bra $100 at the Regular Price, Receive 1 Refund

Fashion VILLA
Oregon Food Shopping Center
AVALON and SHASTA WAY

Now in progress! Our

61st ANNIVERSARY SALE!

SAVINGS IN EVERY DEPARTMENT

Use Your Charge Account

The Best Place to Shop After All!

512 Main
Use Our Big Parking Lot at 5th & Klamath