Girl Scouts Show 'Portraits Of Spring'

Juniper Council Girl Scouts of Klamath Falls presented a unique fashion show at Mills Auditorium May 11. Fashions for teen-agers were supplied by the Bon Bazaar and The Fashion Villa with Mrs. Katie Lake supervising. Commentator for the show was a senior scout, Gail Brotherhood, and accompanist was Rosemary Jolnick. The many fields of interest in the Girl Scout program were interpreted with spring-like fashions based on the theme, "Portraits of Spring." The fashion show was the culmination of a series of "Charm School" sessions which were conducted by specialists instructing at each event. Mrs. Jean Mortenson (Curriculum) led the study on "Care of the Skin," Steve Peters (Charm Center) demonstrated "Hair Styles," and Sharon Omdal (Oregon Dairy Association) related the facts on "Food, Figure and Fitness."

The fashion show opened with a prelude — "Tiptoe Through the Tulips" featuring a tiny model, Gina Backa, 3, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Backa. In scene after scene, girls appeared in attractive costumes to portray the Girl Scout story.

The different phases of scouting were shown as pages of portraits from an "Album of Girl Scouts" . . . "In the Home," "Out of Doors," "Here and Abroad" and "In the Arts."

Appropriately dressed for the activities "In the Home" were Debra Johansen (cook); Karen Balliet (hospitality); Amy Johnson (seamstress); Kathy Russell (first aid); Kathryn Hall (home nurse); Kathy Dunn (child care); Charlotte Beaudry (beekeeper); Nancy Tyrholm (gardener); Cindy Grover (farmerette).

Four girls modeled outfits suitable for the "Out of Doors." Kathy Cooper, senior scout who attended the Roundup in Vermont, wore the official camp uniform. Nancy Tyrholm depicted a happy "Foot Traveler." For sports and games, two girls appeared. Sharon Waylan in a skating costume and Charlene Davis in a trim outfit for a cyclist. In the area of citizenship "Here and Abroad," Cherice Smith represented "Radio and TV." Paula

Felix modeled a smart suit for the "Traveler." Kathy Cooper was a handsome "World Neighbor" in a hand-woven costume from Guatemala. Jenelle Beebe, in a chic knit suit, represented a traveler shopping for "World Gifts" in a foreign bazaar. The next scene revealed fashions "In the Arts." Kathy Dunn, carrying palette and brushes, was a colorful striped cotton that an artist would select. Tracy Hall, puppeteer, modeled a pink and white cotton that made a stunning picture. Paula Felix introduced the excitement of the theatre with her Shakespearean gown. Sharon Waylan, a gay folk dancer, was followed by a musician, Kathy (rhythm) led the study on "Care of the Skin," Steve Peters (Charm Center) demonstrated "Hair Styles," and Sharon Omdal (Oregon Dairy Association) related the facts on "Food, Figure and Fitness."

The "Portrait of Beauty" which was one of the highlights of the fashion show, featured Catulips featuring a tiny model, Gina Backa, 3, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Backa. In scene after scene, girls appeared in attractive costumes to portray the Girl Scout story.

FAREWELL TEA — Ruth Dyer, right, county extension agent who retired in June, was honored at a farewell tea given by the county advisory committee June 5 at the home of Mrs. Merle Jackson, left. Mrs. Jim Bunnell, center, is the new county advisory committee chairman. Mrs. Dyer holds "pot of gold" which held monetary gifts and cards from her many friends who attended the party.

Soroptimists Support Fund

LAKEVIEW — At the luncheon meeting of the Lakeview Soroptimist Club, Mrs. Anne Sprague, past regional governor, was presented with a certificate which indicated that $100 had been presented to the Soroptimist Foundation in her name.

The check was given to the foundation at the regional convention at Billings, Mont., by Mrs. Maude Bennett, past president of the local club. Mrs. Emma Clause was also a delegate, and Mrs. Audrey Smith attended as an alternate.

The foundation, which is for the advancement of education for women, is supported by clubs throughout the world, but this is the first contribution made by the Lakeview group. The certificate shows that Mrs. Sprague has been placed on the foundation honor roll.

On Tuesday, May 21, the senior girls of the Lakeview and Paisley High School graduating classes were special guests of the Soroptimists at their annual luncheon for this occasion.

The invocation was given by Mrs. Bernice Moffitt and the welcome by Mrs. Alice Busacker, president. Mrs. Sprague spoke on "Woman's Place in the World of Today." The decorative theme was carried out by one of members brought by Mrs. Clause from her recent trip to India. Mrs. May Mackay, who spent her childhood in India, spoke on the native dress of the women of India and demonstrated the draping of a sari.

RECEIVES GIFTS — Renell Kern, whose marriage to David Vinson was an event of June 15, received lovely miscellaneous gifts at a shower June 5 at the home of Mrs. Dale Carr on Wantland Street. Hostesses with Mrs. Carr were Mrs. Lundy Clinton, Mrs. Martin Young and Mrs. Cecil Finney. White lilies and a petite bride doll under a butterfly trimmed umbrella centered the gift table. Games were played during the evening.
