Duke Snider Joins 400 Homer Club

By United Press International
The doors of baseball's exclusive 400-homer club opened today to admit the old Duke of the Gowanus.

He's long past his peak and playing out the string with the New York Mets but Duke Snider can still swing that home run bat with the best of 'em. And today the ex-Brooklyn and Los Angeles Dodger hero has officially joined the greatest homer-hitters in major league history.

Duke became the ninth player in history to reach the 400-mark Friday night when he connected for a two-run homer in the first inning of the Mets' 10-3 triumph over the Cincinnati Reds. It was his 11th homer of the season and placed him in a class with Babe Ruth, Jimmy Fox, Ted Williams, Mel Ott, Lou Gehrig, Stan Musial, Mickey Mantle and Ed Matthews.

Connects Against Purkey
Snider connected off Bob Purkey following the first of four hits by Ron Hunt to spark the Mets to the first victory they have achieved in Cincinnati since they entered the league in 1952.

Carlton Willey went seven innings to gain his fifth victory of the year while Bob Purkey suffered his fourth defeat.

The San Francisco Giants beat the Houston Colts 2-1, the Chicago Cubs defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers 4-1, the St. Louis Cardinals downed the Pittsburgh Pirates 5-2, and the Milwaukee Braves topped the Philadelphia Phillies 3-0 in other National League games.

Cavemen's G. Reddick Signs Pact

GRANTS PASS (UPI) — Gary Reddick, 18-year-old Grants Pass high school outfielder, has been signed by the Los Angeles Dodgers and sent to Santa Barbara of the California League.

The signing was announced by Dodger scout Bill Brenzel, who said he obtained Reddick's services in a $30,000 package deal which includes a substantial cash bonus and a full college scholarship. Reddick plans to study architecture at the University of Oregon between baseball seasons.

The young ball player worked out with the Salem Senators this week and reported to Santa Barbara Friday.

In high school, Reddick was a football, basketball and baseball player, a member of the honor roll, president of the student body, president of his junior class, vice president of the Luth League, and was an all-conference star in high school and American Legion baseball the last two years. He was a member of the all-state high school baseball team this year.

Reddick batted .330 during three years in high school and .320 in two years of Legion competition.

Developed under Grants Pass coaches Ron Maurer and Larry Stevens, Reddick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Reddick. The father is in the furniture business here.

to win his eighth game for the Giants with the help of Tom Haller's homer and a brilliant catch by leftfielder Harvey Kuenn. Rookie Brock Davis homered for the Colts.

Ernie Banks drove in two runs with a double and his 14th homer of the season as the Cubs knocked the Dodgers out of first place. Glenn Hobbie went the route for his second win.

Julian Javier went 4-for-4 and Tim McCarver had three hits as the Cardinals escorted Ray Saadecki to his fourth win against four losses. Donn Clendenon had three hits, including a homer, and drove in two runs for the Pirates.

Warren Spahn pitched a three-hitter to win his ninth game of the season and the 330th of his career for the Braves, whose attack was led by Tommy Aaron with a sacrifice fly and a two-run double. Ray Culp suffered his fourth loss against eight wins.

D. Moyer Battles R. Dupas

BALTIMORE (UPI) — Ex-titlesholder Denny Moyer of Portland, goes into Monday night's championship 15-round bout at the Civic Center a six to five favorite to regain his crown from junior middleweight champion Ralph Dupas.

Dupas, a 27-year-old New Orleans native, won the crown from Moyer on a split decision on April 27, before a hometown crowd.

Moyer is hoping to reverse the decision this time. The betting is that it will be a decision and that there will be no knockout.

Since the World Boxing Association has ruled out the return bout clause in the newly created junior - middleweight division, Monday night's winner will probably seek his next fight in a different weight class.

Moyer is considering going to Europe, but he would probably rather get a shot at Emile Griffith for the welterweight crown in his manager can arrange it.

Dupas, who has lost one title bout to Griffith already, would probably rather challenge middleweight champ Dick Tiger if he had the choice, since Tiger would be more readily available for an early bout.

Moyer became the first junior middleweight champion by defeating Joey Giambra in the final bout of an elimination series. He held the title for six months before losing to Dupas. This will be Dupas' first title defense.

Dupas and Moyer have finished their intensive training and went through light loosening-up drills this weekend.

Promoter Benny Trotta predicts the bout will have a gate of $35,000 or more which would be an indoor fight record for this city. It is the first title fight here in 21 years.

Negro Stars May Boycott

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Comedian Dick Gregory said today that Negro athletes will be urged to boycott the forthcoming American-Russian track meet "unless, by that time, the ban be dropped against racially integrated sports in every state in the union."

Gregory, who said he also spoke for Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, Friday night issued his warning in a telegram to President Kennedy.

"It is inconceivable to me that a Negro can be allowed to participate in an integrated track meet in enemy territory but can not do so in his own country," Gregory wrote.

Gregory, a Negro, has been a leader in civil rights demonstrations throughout the South.

In his telegram to the President, he called the racial problem "an American one" which deserves "here and now, the prestige and full moral power of your high office."

Padres' Sam Ellis Back In Graces Of Heffner

If Pacific Coast League strike-out leader Sammy Ellis of San Diego had a sore arm or wasn't giving his right-handed best, you couldn't tell it.

His curve ball was darting and his fast ball humming Friday night as he beat Dallas-Ft. Worth 2-1 on a four-hitter. It was his first mound appearance since being suspended indefinitely Monday for insubordination by Manager Don Heffner.

Heffner had accused the 22-year-old pitcher from Youngstown, Ohio, of not throwing hard enough last Sunday against Oklahoma City. Ellis said his arm was aching and he didn't want to aggravate it.

Satisfied Smiles
During the past two weeks Ellis had been fined $50 for second-guessing Heffner and $75 more for repeating half an hour later for practice. But manager and pitcher dissolved their feud Thursday and both were satisfied smiles Friday night.

Elsewhere, Bart Shirley's home run in the 12th inning gave Spokane a 4-3 win over Portland. Seattle nipped Tacoma 3-2 by scoring the winning run in the ninth and three Hawaii homers edged Oklahoma City 4-3.

The Denver at Salt Lake City game was rained out.

Deron Johnson's 14th home run of the season with Gene Freese on base was all Ellis needed to gain his sixth win against five losses. He fanned 12 batters to up his league-leading strikeout total to 102 for 92 innings.

Hart Homers
A bases-empty homer by Jim Hart gave Tacoma its first run in the fourth. The Giants tied it in the seventh as Gil Garrido singled, stole second, moved to third on a passed ball and scored on a sacrifice fly by Jesus Alou.

Four homers accounted for all home runs in the game. Ken Hunt got the Islanders off to a rousing start with a two-run poke in the first inning. But it was solo blasts by outfielder Mickey Harrington which tied and won the game.

Harrington propelled his first out of the park in the fourth to tie it 3-3. Then he blasted his second in the eighth to hand right-hander Ed Thomas his sixth win against four defeats. George Williams clubbed a two-run homer for the Biers. Dave Gerard (1-1) who relieved Her Ben Johnson in the eighth was the loser.

Dick Radatz Sets Relief Record

By United Press International
Dick Radatz is just too big and too tough to argue with and so who's gonna challenge him today if he claims a major league record?

The 6-foot, 5-inch, 245-pound Boston Red Sox relief ace has pitched 33 consecutive scoreless relief innings. The major league record for a starter is 56 in a row, by Walter Johnson, but 33 by a relief pitcher is the best any big league statistical wizard can recall—and so big Dick has the record.

That is, unless you care to debate the question with a man who can come out of the bullpen with the bases filled and nobody out and retire the side on three pitches.

In the course of his magnificent pitching, Radatz has compiled an 0.88 earned run average—well below the American League record of 1.01 and also lower than the modern major league mark of 0.90.

Stops Oriole Threat
Radatz entered Friday night's game against the Baltimore Orioles with the bases filled and nobody out in the eighth inning. He got Johnny Powell to hit into a double play and then retired Jim Gentile on a popup to preserve a 5-1 victory for Earl Wilson. It was Wilson's fifth win of the season.

The New York Yankees beat the Detroit Tigers 4-2, the Cleveland Indians topped the Washington Senators 3-2 in 19 innings after a 5-2 loss, the Minnesota Twins defeated the Los Angeles Angels 3-2, and the Chicago White Sox nipped the Kansas City Athletics 5-2 in other AL games.

Homers Help Yankees
Seventh-inning homers by Joe Pepitone and Cleo Boyer enabled the Yankees to down the Tigers and present Jim Bouton with his eighth win against two defeats.

Don Mossi, who had beaten the Yankees three straight times this season, suffered his first loss to them and his third over-all to the league for the year.

Charlie Maxwell's first homer of the year in the ninth inning gave the White Sox their win over the A's and enabled the winners to hold first place. Jim Brosnan won in relief while Ed Rakow took the loss.

Willie Kirkland homered in the 19th inning to break up the Indians' 19-inning, four-hour and 35-minute struggle with the Senators after Jim King's pair of two-run homers paced Washington's Tom Cheney to his sixth win in the first game of the two-night double-header. Kirkland had kept the Indians alive with a game-tying solo homer in the bottom of the 11th. Earl Battey and Bob Allison homered for the Twins' Dick Stigman who pitched an eight-hitter and struck out five for his fifth win.
