D. Jones Decisions Daniels

TEANECK, N.J. (UPI) — Promoter Murray Goodman sought to arrange a return bout between heavyweight contenders Doug Jones and Billy Daniels today following Jones' controversial decision over the Brooklyn battler Friday night in the Teaneck Armory.

Referee Paul Cavlier, the lone voting official, awarded Jones a 5-4-1 verdict over Daniels. The decision was greeted by mingled boos and cheers from the 4,000 fans.

Jones of New York weighed 194 pounds, the heaviest of his career, for his first fight since being outpointed by Cassius Clay at Madison Square Garden on March 13. Daniels stood almost a half-foot taller than Jones and weighed 189½ pounds.

Daniels, the sixth-ranked contender, dominated the early rounds. He had Jones semi-groggy from six nearly consecutive rights to the head in the second and belabored Doug with a terrific head barrage in the sixth.

Third-ranked Jones, though, rallied strongly in the remaining rounds as he opened cuts on Daniels' brows and bloodied his nose but was unable to floor courageous Billy.
