

Young People Bid Goodbye To Fremont Junior High School At Gala Dancing Party

SOCIETY

By Helen Bechen
Herald and News
Sunday, June 16, 1963

Graduation
Day

A last salute to the Blue and Gold of Fremont Junior High School was given June 5 by the entire student body, 290 strong, who were guests of 15 of their classmates. The evening dancing party was staged in the ballroom of the Winema Hotel.

The young hostesses are pictured above. In the front row, left to right, are Shelly O'Neill, Sally Elliott, Cathy Yeatch, Wanda Wiley, Betty McKinny, Judy Nicholson and Joan Sandmeyer. Back row, same order, Jane Hart, Starla Bridge, Junie McClelland, Susan Dippold, Jann Scoubes, Linda Whytal, Terry Petersteiner and Julene Smith.

At left, Judy Taggart and Neal Buchanan enjoy punch between dances.

Clever decorations followed the graduation theme. Branch trees were hung with small mortar boards and diplomas and blue and gold balloons clung to the ceiling. Nancy Leonard and Terry Reeder are shown above in a garden setting created with white iron settee and girl mannequin graduate.

Admiring "mortar board" tree at right are Cynthia Abraham, left, Bob Walton and Cathy Yeatch.

—Photo by Kettler

Sharing a tray of cookies, above, left to right, are Rob Westrom, Gloria Johnson, Francine Floetke and Doug Green.

A bit of clowning is done for the cameraman by James Weinberg, above, while Connie Ballantyne, center, and Yvonne Hafar watch.