Library Club Year Ends With Musical

The Women's Library Club of Klamath Falls held its last meeting of the club year on May 13 at the city library.

Several members of the newly formed Klamath Falls Symphony Orchestra group entertained. They were Patricia Isensee, first violin; Stephanie Spetz, second violin; Margaret Jolly and Joyce Jolly, cellos; Barbara Coler, violin; Mary Ellen Johnck, flute; Barbara Poulshock, soprano; Barbara Shields and Mary Van Vactor, pianos.

The annual spring musical is always one of the highlights of the year's programs and as usual was well attended and enjoyed by members and many guests.

At the annual business meeting which followed, Mrs. Erle Hamilton, president, introduced the club's special guest, Mrs. William Harms, Grants Pass, first district president.

The annual campership checks were presented to a Camp Fire Girl and a Girl Scout by Mrs. George Blanas, in the absence of the project chairman, Mrs. Leroy Carter.

The nominating committee's report was given by Mrs. Elmer Harnden. Elected were Mrs. Phil Schroeder, president; Mrs. Dick Henzel, first vice president; Mrs.

Erle Hamilton, second vice president; Mrs. Ronald Spani, secretary. These officers were installed by Mrs. Walter Brown, past state president and a member of the local club.

Mrs. Kathleen Ward and Mrs. Alfred Collier presided at the tea table which was beautifully decorated by the tea chairman, Mrs. Henry Perkins. Helping at the tea committee were Mrs. W. I. Tingley and Mrs. E. A. Thomas. Mrs. Victor O'Neill and Mrs. Hal Ogle were hostesses for the day.

Engagement Is Announced

At a tea last week in Pittsburg, Calif., family members and friends learned of the engagement of Patricia Ford Bishop to Allen Ray Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Ray Phillips, Klamath Falls.

The future bride is the daughter of Mrs. T. R. Bishop and the late T. R. Bishop. Mrs. Bishop was hostess for the tea at which Mrs. Phillips and her daughter, Mrs. Leland L. Lattrell, were among the guests.

A pink carnation theme was used in decorations and guests received carnation nosegays which carried cards announcing the engagement of the young couple.

No date has been announced for the wedding. Both young people are juniors at San Jose State College. College classmates first heard the news prior to school's end when the bride-elect passed the traditional box of candy to roommates.

The future bridegroom is a graduate of Klamath Union High School.
