Pitching Proves Forte For Chicago

By United Press International
Pitching still is "the name of the game" and the Chicago White Sox firm of Johnny Buzhardt, Juan Pizarro and Jim Bronsan is more than proving the case to American League rivals.

Buzhardt, who leads the AL pitchers with an earned run average of 1.99, spun a four-hitter at the Kansas City Athletics Sunday and partners Pizarro and Bronsan combined on an eight-hitter in the nightcap to give the White Sox 2-1 and 3-2 decisions and a virtual tie with the New York Yankees for the league lead.

For Buzhardt, who had an 8-12 won-lost record with the White Sox in 1962, it was his eighth win of the season against only two losses. It also marked the fourth straight complete game for the former Chicago Cub and Philadelphia Phillie who never before has won more than eight games in any one season in the majors.

Pizarro, a 14-game winner for the White Sox a year ago, picked up victory No. 7, but he needed help from Bronsan, the transplanted "author" from Cincinnati, who got the final five outs. Before he left, though, Pizarro had fanned eight batters to run his strikeout total to 81.

The Yankees stayed nine percentage points ahead of the White Sox by defeating the Detroit Tigers twice, 4-0 on Ralph Terry's three-hitter and 6-3 behind Bill Stafford and Hal Reniff before a crowd of 44,357 at Yankee Stadium, the largest of the season in the American League.

The Cleveland Indians, Los Angeles Angels and Boston Red Sox also scored doubleheader wins. The Indians doubled the Washington Senators, 4-2 and 6-4; the Red Sox routed the Baltimore Orioles, 8-1 and 12-5, and the Angels beat the Twins, 5-3 and 5-4.

In the National League, the Cincinnati Reds swept the New York Mets, 11-5 and 10-3; Houston and San Francisco split, the Colts taking the opener, 3-0 and the Giants the nightcap, 4-3; the Chicago Cubs downed the Los Angeles Dodgers, 8-3, then lost, 2-0; the Pittsburgh Pirates and St. Louis Cards divided, Pittsburgh winning the first in 12 innings, 4-3, and St. Louis the second, 11-7; and Milwaukee beat Philadelphia, 5-3, before dropping the nightcap, 7-4 in 11 innings.

UO, OSU May Gain Entry
CARMEL, Calif. (UPI) — The Big Six may become the Big Seven or Eight before the annual summer meeting of the Athletic Association of Western Universities is over.

Expansion is not officially on the agenda of the meeting, which opens Tuesday, but the question annually crops up of whether Oregon and/or Oregon State should be permitted to join their former friends and foes in the old Pacific Coast Conference.

Big Six Executive Director Tom Hamilton says that the conference's administrative committee, consisting of athletic directors, will meet through Thursday.

The Big Six council, at which the school's faculty representatives will meet on Tuesday, will then go into session until Saturday.

Hamilton said that items on the agenda include athletic scholarship qualifications, R.O.C. bowl plans, junior college transfer questions, NCAA television plans, football financial settlements, and many others.

Hawks Defeated 4 Times Over Weekend

The Klamath Falls Hawks dropped a non-league doubleheader to the tough Bend Legion team Sunday afternoon at Gem Stadium, 9-4 and 7-5, after losing a pair Saturday night to the home rival Falcons, 9-3 and 13-1, the first game counting in league standings.

The Hawks made a desperate rally Sunday in the second game to beat the Bend team, but fell two runs shy. The Hawks scored all five runs in the last two innings while trying to slice down a 6-0 lead going into the sixth.

Steve Young started and went the distance for the Hawks in the 7-5 loss and allowed 13 hits to the Lava Bears while striking out four. Clint Cook got the pitching victory in going the distance for Bend on a neat seven-hit game. He had a one-hitter going into the sixth when he began to tire and the Hawks tallied three hits off him in the final two frames. He also struck out only four.

Mary Cunningham was the big hitter for the Hawks as he lashed out three of the seven hits and all three of them were for extra bases. He slammed a double in the second, another double in the sixth and two singles in the fourth, and finished out his perfect game with a triple in the seventh to drive home three runs. Mike Spiker came into the game in the sixth and got hits in both the sixth and seventh frames.

Sam Clark had two singles, Larry Barnes two hits, Ben Hamilton a pair of hits, Don Watrous a double and single, Val Lewis a triple and single, and Dave Shelton two singles for the winners. Bend grabbed a 2-1 lead in the fourth frame of the first game and won despite the fact that the Hawks knotted the game in the sixth with a pair of tallies.

Bend scored three runs in the eighth and two in the ninth for the win. Mike Metke got the pitching win for Bend on a seven-hitter while Marv Cunningham absorbed the loss for the Hawks. He was relieved in the eighth by Tom Pilgrim and Pilgrim gave way to Young in the ninth.

Jon Crume was the big stick for the Hawks in the first game with a double and two singles. Tom Schiff and Al Kenyon were the only others with two hits, both singles. The Bend nine got nine hits off the Hawks. Clark had a triple, Hamilton a double and single, and Don Watrous three singles.

The Falcons whipped the Hawks in the first game, which was a league game, behind the brilliant three-hit pitching performance of Rich Jackson. He gave up singles to Tom Schiff and Marv Cunningham and a triple to Curt Coleman.

The Falcons pounded out nine hits off loser Tom Pilgrim. John Parisotto had a triple and single, Larry Smith a double, and Jay Paxton a double, triple and single.

The Falcons tallied their runs in spurts. The Hawks had built up a 3-0 lead going into the sixth when the Falcons knotted the game at 3-3. The Hawks scored twice in the second on a walk to Bob Woldt, a triple by Coleman and a single by Schiff. The other run came in the fourth when Crume reached first on a fielder's choice, stole second and took third and home on wild pitches.

Klamath's Falcons stormed back in the sixth. Parisotto led off with a triple. He scored on Mike Kitching's sacrifice fly to center, John Gray walked, stole second, took third on a ground out and scored on a passed ball. Marv Yunck was hit and moved to second when Dave Johnson walked. He scored on an error by the Hawk second sacker.

The lid blew off for the Hawks in the eighth when the Falcons got six runs. Paxton led off with a hit, Lanny Guyer struck out but Johnson and Jackson walked again. Young reached first on an error which scored Johnson and Larry Binney singled to drive home both Jackson and Young. He stole second and ran home on Parisotto's single. Parisotto moved around on two wild pitches and scored on Smith's double and it was all over but the shouting.

The Falcons had the second game in hand from the opening frame when they scored four runs off starter and loser Jon Crume. All four runs came without the benefit of a hit. The Falcons got eight hits to only three off Jim Jackson in another fine mound performance. Roy Van Pelt had a single and Rich Bath a double and single for the only three hits.

The Falcons were led by catcher Denny Coleman who had two singles, Larry Binney pounded a double and the other hits were scattered.

The Falcons play Bend tonight at Bend and Ashland at Gem Stadium Wednesday night. The Hawks take on Grants Pass here Saturday in a pair.

Manager Bill Faversham of Louisville, Ky., had told Clay: "No more statements to anyone until after the fight."
Big Bill explained: "Cassius already has done a tremendous job of talking this fight into a sellout. And we want him to relax now until the weigh-in tomorrow."
Their expected weights are Clay 198 pounds; Cooper, 189.

Largely through the "Louisville Lip's" salesmanship in glorifying himself and belittling British Empire champion Cooper, the 10-rounder will be a sellout of about 35,000 fans and $48,000, promoter Jack Solomon was able to announce today.

That gate will be the largest for any fight ever staged anywhere outside the United States, although the crowd will not be the biggest.

Meanwhile today from America arrived at least three men who are interested in contracting for Tuesday's winner to engage in what might be a $100,000,000 September world title fight with the winner of the July 22 title fight between world champion Sonny Liston and ex-champion Floyd Patterson at Las Vegas, Nev.

Reds Recharged After Riot Act

By United Press International
It took an old fashioned tongue lashing and a traditional club one-two pitching punch to snap the Cincinnati Reds out of their lethargy.

Manager Freddie Hutchinson provided the lecture and pitchers Jim Maloney and Jim O'Toole took it from there, backed by some explosive hitting, for a doubleheader sweep of the New York Mets Sunday, 11-5 and 10-3.

After the Mets had beaten the Reds for the second day in a row on Saturday, Hutchinson locked his athletes in the clubhouse and apparently read them the riot act. Of course, he hadn't forgotten the fact that the Reds lost five games to the Mets a year ago when losing to the New Yorkers was considered about as low as a club could sink.

Maloney got off poorly in the opener, giving up all five New York runs in the first three innings, but he settled down after that and was touched for two harmless singles the rest of the way in notching his 10th victory of the season in 12 decisions.

O'Toole went him one better, although he gave up 11 hits. However, the Mets weren't able to put them together until the ninth when they scored two runs. The victory was O'Toole's 12th against three losses.

San Francisco, St. Louis and Los Angeles split their doubleheaders, enabling the fourth-place Reds to pick up a game on all three top clubs. Cincinnati now is only 3 1/2 games behind the Giants, who lost to the Colts, 3-0, before winning the nightcap, 4-3, on the strength of ninth inning relief pitching by Billy Pierce and Jim Duffalo.

The Pittsburgh Pirates nipped the Cardinals, 4-3, in the opener on relief pitcher Al McBean's 12th inning homer, but St. Louis bounced back to take the nightcap, 11-7, while the Chicago Cubs downed the Dodgers, 8-3, before bowing to Rookie Nick Willhitte, 2-0, in the second game.

In the other NL action, Milwaukee and Philadelphia also split, the Braves winning the opener, 3-3, and the Phils the nightcap, 7-4 in 11 innings.

In the American League, New York, Boston, Cleveland, Los Angeles and Chicago swept doubleheaders. The Yanks defeated the Detroit Tigers, 4-0 and 6-3; the Red Sox routed the Baltimore Orioles, 8-1 and 12-3; the Indians downed the Washington Senators, 4-2 and 6-4; the Angels nipped the Minnesota Twins, 5-3 and 5-4, and the White Sox shaded the Kansas City A's, 2-1 and 3-2.

WHO WON, WHO LOST? — It's impossible to tell who won or who lost by the expressions on their faces after the 73rd hole of the Thunderbird Open Sunday. Arnold Palmer, left, took the $25,000 first prize when he won the first hole played in a sudden death playoff round over Paul Harney. They were tied with 277s at the end of the regulation 72 holes.

Palmer Beats Paul Harney In Playoff, Looks To Open

RYE, N. Y. (UPI) — Arnold Palmer today called his victory in the $100,000 Thunderbird Open "a $25,000 worth of mistakes which will help me win the Open."

Golf's Golden Boy definitely became the man to beat for the big one at Brookline, Mass., this week, when he staged another of his miracle finishes to win the first place money Sunday in a sudden death playoff with veteran Paul Harney.

It marked his return to tournament golf after a month's layoff and the way he came back expelled all doubts that his days as one of golf's greats were over because he had too many business interests occupying his time.

"This tournament did me a world of good, although I did not play as well as I wish I had," said Palmer, whose first place money put him into second place among the year's money winners. He now has won a total of $56,545 — only $2,000 behind Jack Nicklaus, the defending U. S. Open champion, who won only $1,875 in the Thunderbird, finishing seven strokes behind Palmer.

Palmer's Outcome Doubtful
For a time on a sunny Sunday which drew a gallery of more than 15,000 persons to the Westchester Country Club it looked like Palmer — a front runner all the way — was going to blow his return to the golfing wars.

But in the end victory went to Palmer — at his best when the chips really were down. The 318-yard par five 11th provided the drama of the day. With the crowd getting out of control, Harney drove to the edge of a trap while Palmer was down in the middle.

Harney's second shot was 120 yards short of the green while Palmer's second barely cleared a trap. Harney hit his approach to within six feet of the pin.

When Harney missed his putt, it looked like Palmer had it won. But the pressure even told on this iron man of the fairways and he, too, blew his putt.

So they went to the first extra hole — a par three, 190-yarder. Harney won the flip of the coin, teed off first and sent his four iron shot over the green. Palmer's four iron tee shot was dead to the pin and stopped 10 feet short. Harney chipped to within five feet of the cup.

Palmer carried a final round (two-over-par 72 for a total of 277 while Harney carded a 69 for the same aggregate.

Defending champion Gene Littler finished third at 278 with Dow Finsterwald and Bill Collins tied for fourth with 279's. Then came PGA champion Gary Player and Tom Nierpote at 281 while Jay Hebert, Bobby Nichols and Joe Campbell tied at 281.

Big George Bayer, Canadian Al Balding, Jacky Capit and Gardiner Dickinson were next in line at 282 while Jackie Burke, Miller Barber, Dan Sikes, Jack Fleck, Gay Brewer and Billy Farrell were at 283.

Nicklaus was at 284 along with Tommy Jacobs, Bill Eggers and Mason Rudolph.

Ben Hogan, who returned to the golfing ways after 13 months, beat his old rival, Sam Snead, by one shot. Hogan finished with a 70 for 285 and Snead a 73 for 286. Tony Lema, one of the favorites, was far back at 290.

took the loss although relieved by Hurley Warren had three singles. Larman two, Ferrell a double. Ongman a double and single for the winners. Cole had a double and Hesseck two singles for the losers.

The Painters got 13 hits and had backing by 20 Musgrove errors for the 29-0 win. Musgrove got only two hits off O'Brien. J. Goodman batted two doubles, Lyons a double and single and B. Ward a triple and two singles for the winners. C. Church had a triple for the losers.

Local Loan smothered Musgrove 17-3 despite only getting nine hits to five for the losers. Antley and Smarson combined for the pitching win while Cole

Weed Decisions Medo-Bels, 6-5, In Eleven Innings

The Weed semi-pro baseball team nipped the Klamath Falls Medo-Bels, 6-5, in an 11-inning marathon Sunday night at Gem Stadium. Dunsuir rocked Happy Camp, 17-13, and Scott Valley upended Mount Shasta, 9-1, in other games.

The game was tied up at 3-3 going into the 11th when Weed tallied three runs off losing pitcher Bill Mansfield who was relieved by Jim Keller. The Medo-Bels came back with two runs in their half of the 11th but it wasn't enough.

The Medo-Bels tallied first in the fourth inning. With one out Ray Taylor drew a walk. Ron Owings, team playing manager, laced a double to move Taylor to third where he scored on Dave Sigado's sacrifice fly.

The Weed crew came back with two runs in the top of the fifth to regain the lead. Rightfielder Dick Battistessa singled and stole second. Pitcher Dave Lemos laced a single after Sonny Dixon had popped out and Elvy Mazzoni rapped a single to score Battistessa. Lemos was chopped down at home trying to score on the play. Damien Rossetto singled Mazzoni home.

Weed increased its lead in the sixth frame. Bob Zalunardo opened with a single and Roger Paulto singled to advance him. He tallied when Larry Barbieri reached first on an error by Sherm Allen at shortstop.

Weed got runners to second in both the ninth and 10th innings and Medo-Bel had John Bianchi reach third on a triple in the ninth, only to have him thrown out at home on a ground ball to shortstop with none out.

Paulto led off the 11th for the Weed nine with a solo home run. After one was out, Battistessa got to first on an error and moved around on a single by Dixon. Keller was brought in then for Mansfield. He walked Lemos and gave up a two-run single to Mazzoni for the three runs.

The Medo-Bels fought back in their half of the 11th. With one out, Dave Sigado slammed a double and Bianchi hit another one right behind him for one run. He took third on a wild pitch and Dave Dunsuir walked. Dave Saks struck out for the second out but Keller singled to score Bianchi. The threat and the game was ended when Allen struck out.

Dunsuir pounded out 15 hits off three Happy Camp pitchers while Happy Camp got 12 off two Dunsuir hurlers. Young garnered the victory and Beck took the loss.

Jiggs Sage hurled four-hit ball at Mount Shasta as Scott Valley pounded out 13 hits. Jim Lemos absorbed the loss.
