

Bums Drop Giants, Cards Take Lead; Indians Continue Move

Koufax Four Hits Powerful Giants

By United Press International
The Los Angeles Dodgers should start selling record books along with scorecards when Sandy Koufax pitches.

Otherwise how are the fans going to know what new feat the overpowering Dodger pitcher is out to achieve? He's already pitched two no-hitters and set a National League strikeout record both for a game and a season. And yet his bullet-like speed continues to threaten more records.

Koufax whipped the San Francisco Giants, 2-0, Monday night to post his sixth shutout of the campaign—only one short of the club mark for a season shared by Burleigh Grimes and Whitlow Wyatt. His 10 victories put him halfway to his first 20-victory season—and the first by a Dodger lefty since 1951—and his nine strikeouts enabled him to regain the league lead with a season total of 111.

In addition, Koufax knocked the Giants from first to third place and permitted the St. Louis Cardinals to take over the top rung, seven percentage points ahead of the second-place Dodgers.

Regained Strikeout Lead
Koufax, who pitched a three-hit shutout against the Houston Colts last Saturday, now has pitched 19 consecutive scoreless innings. It was his second win of the season over the Giants—the other a no-hitter against them on May 11.

Ex-Yankee Bill Skowron's two-run double, which skipped through rightfielder Felipe Alou's legs, sent Maury Wills and Ron Fairly over the plate in the third inning with the runs which dealt Billy O'Dell his third loss compared to nine wins. The Giants filled the bases with two out in the second inning but Koufax fanned Jose Pagan to end the threat.

The Cardinals romped over the New York Mets, 8-1, the Philadelphia Phillies defeated the Cincinnati Reds, 4-2, and the Pittsburgh Pirates topped the Milwaukee Braves, 9-3, in other NL games.

In the American League, the Cleveland Indians shamed the Washington Senators, 1-0, and the Baltimore Orioles beat the Boston Red Sox, 7-2.

Three Five-Hitter
Ernie Broglio pitched a five-hitter for his eighth win behind a Cardinal attack that was concentrated in the first four innings during which Bill White homered, Curt Flood had two doubles and Ken Boyer had three straight singles.

It was Broglio's third straight win of the season over the Mets and the unearned run they scored against him in the seventh inning was their first against his pitching.

Roy Sievers' three-run homer, following a deliberate walk to Wes Covington, and Don Demeter's homer, both in the sixth inning, gave the Phillies their seventh win in 10 games with the Reds. Ryne Duren went six innings to win his second game with Jack Baldwin spinning three scoreless innings to clinch the triumph. John Tsitouris suffered his second loss for the Reds.

Rookie Willie Stargell hit two homers and knocked in six runs and Bill Mazerowski and Bob Bailey also homered to lead the Pirates' 12-hit attack. Don Cardwell pitched an eight-hitter to win his third game. Hank Aaron, the major league leader, hit his 19th homer of the season for the Braves.

By United Press International
American League

Baltimore 001 000 000—7 8 1
Boston 000 010 010—2 6 1
McCormick (2-3) and Brown, Wood, Lamabe (5), Earley (9) and Tillman. Loser—Wood (0-2).
HRs—McCormick, Gaines, Tillman, Williams.

Washington 000 000 000—0 5 1
Cleveland 000 000 01x—1 3 1
Duckworth (2-5) and Leppert, Kralick (7-5) and Azcue.
(Only games scheduled)

National League

New York 000 000 100—1 5 1
St. Louis 232 100 00x—8 15 2
Hook, Cisco (2) and Coleman, S. Taylor (7); Broglio (8-2) and McCarver. Loser—Hook (3-7).
HR—White.

Pittsburgh 201 000 303—9 12 1
Milwaukee 200 001 000—3 8 2
Cardwell (3-8) and Brand; Piche, Cloninger (4), Raymond (8) and Torre. Loser—Cloninger (1-4).
HRs—Bailey, H. Aaron, Mazerowski, Stargell, 2.

Philadelphia 000 004 000—4 9 0
Cincinnati 000 001 100—2 10 1
Duren, Baldschun (7) and Dalrymple; Tsitouris, Worthington (8) and Edwards. Winner—Duren (2-1).
Loser—Tsitouris (2-2).
HRs—Sievers, Demeter.

Los Angeles 002 000 000—2 9 1
San Francisco 000 000 000—0 4 1
Koufax (10-3) and Roseboro, Camilli (6), O'Dell, Fisher (8) and Bailey. Loser—O'Dell (9-3).
(Only games scheduled)

Lewiston Pads Northwest Lead

By United Press International
Lewiston took the occasion to pad its Northwest League a little Monday night with a 6-2 victory over Eugene in one of the two games played.

Salem edged Yakima 6-4 in the other contest. Lewiston's victory gave the Broncos a three-game bulge over second-place Tri-City.

Ron Tomkins went the distance for Lewiston and Eugene's two runs came on solo homers by Dick Kenworthy and Bob Pearson. Hoss Bowlin and Louis Rodriguez countered with solo homers for Lewiston and the Broncos wrapped it up with a three-run outburst in the sixth.

By United Press International

American League

	W.	L.	Pct.	GB
New York	34	23	.596	—
Chicago	37	26	.587	—
Boston	31	26	.544	3
Cleveland	32	27	.542	3
Baltimore	34	29	.540	3
Minnesota	32	29	.525	4
Kansas City	30	31	.492	6
Los Angeles	32	34	.485	6 1/2
Detroit	24	36	.400	11 1/2
Washington	21	46	.313	18

Monday's Results
Baltimore 7 Boston 2
Cleveland 1 Washington 0 (night)
(Only games scheduled)

Tuesday's Probable Pitchers
Detroit at Boston (night)—Faul (3-1) vs. Wilson (5-5).
Washington at New York (night)—Osteen (1-4) vs. Ford (8-3).
Chicago at Minnesota (night)—Horlen (4-1) vs. Perry (5-4).
Kansas City at Los Angeles (night)—Drabowsky (6-1) vs. McBride (6-6).

Baltimore at Cleveland (night)—McNally (2-1) vs. Latman (2-3).
Wednesday's Games
Chicago at Minnesota (night)
Washington at New York (night)
Detroit at Boston (night)
KC at Los Ang., 2 (twi)-night
Balt. at Cleve., 2 (twi)-night

National League

	W.	L.	Pct.	GB
St. Louis	38	27	.585	—
Los Angeles	37	27	.576	1/2
San Francisco	38	28	.576	1/2
Cincinnati	33	30	.524	4
Chicago	34	31	.523	4
Milwaukee	30	33	.476	7
Pittsburgh	30	33	.476	7
Philadelphia	30	34	.469	7 1/2
Houston	27	38	.415	11
New York	25	41	.379	13 1/2

Monday's Results
Philadelphia 4 Cincinnati 2 (night)
Pittsburgh 9 Milwaukee 3 (night)
St. Louis 8 New York 1 (night)
Los Angeles 2 San Fran. 0 (night)
(Only games scheduled)

Tuesday's Probable Pitchers
Houston at Chicago—Bruce (3-4) vs. Ellsworth (8-5).
Los Angeles at San Francisco (night)—Miller (4-3) vs. Sanford (8-5).
Philadelphia at Cincinnati (night)—Culp (8-4) vs. Purkey (1-4).
Pittsburgh at Milwaukee (night)—Friend (8-5) vs. Spain (9-3).
New York at St. Louis (night)—Willey (5-5) vs. Burdette (6-5).
Wednesday's Games
Houston at Chicago
New York at St. Louis
Los Angeles at San Francisco
Philadelphia at Cincinnati (night)
Pittsburgh at Milwaukee (night)

NAMES TOP BOWLERS
NEW YORK (UPI)—The Metropolitan New York Bowling Writers have named Don Carter of St. Louis and Marion Ladewig of Grand Rapids, Mich., as "Bowlers of the Year" for the second time in three years.

OUT AT HOME PLATE—Cards' Tim McCarver is out at the plate, tagged by Mets' catcher Clarence Coleman in the second inning of the Cards-Mets game in St. Louis Monday. McCarver tried to come home from second on

Curt Flood's hit to centerfield, Mets' second baseman Ron Hunt received the ball and threw to Coleman, cutting off the score. The Cards won, however. —UPI Telephoto

PAGE 10 HERALD AND NEWS, Klamath Falls, Oregon Tuesday, June 18, 1963

Portland Falls To Third In Loss To Seattle; Spokane In Second

By United Press International
To the idle go the spoils—or so it seemed in the Pacific Coast League Monday night.

Take Spokane, for example, while the Indians enjoyed a leisurely day off they jumped into second place in the Northern Division when second-place Portland dropped a 5-1 decision to Seattle. And in the Southern Division, the idle San Diego Padres moved to within a half-game of pace-setting Dallas-Fort Worth which lost 5-2 at Hawaii, only the Denver Bears, who suffered a 9-4 setback at the hands of Salt Lake City, failed to capitalize on the Rangers' defeat.

Southpaw Bill Spanswick turned in one of his best pitching performances of the season in Seattle's victory. He pitched no-hit ball in all but one inning and that tainted frame was the seventh when Portland put together three consecutive singles for its only run.

Dave Hall provided Seattle's offensive punch with three hits and three runs batted in.

Herb Plews' inside-the-park home run in the eighth with a runner on capped Hawaii's game-winning three-run rally. All three runs were unearned after the Rangers' first baseman, Ray Jablonski, committed a two-base error on a Tom Satriano hit.

Carlos Bernier accounted for Hawaii's first two runs with a home run that extended his consecutive game hitting streak to 15. George Banks had a two-run homer for Dallas-Fort Worth's tallies.

The best news of the night for Hawaii came at the turnstiles of Honolulu Stadium which admitted 2,850 fans to push the season's attendance above the 100,000 mark.

Bill Cowan and Bob Will each slammed home runs to pace Salt Lake City's 12-hit attack against Denver. The Bees erupted for five runs in the first inning and were never in serious trouble. Catcher Phil Roof hit two home runs to account for three of Denver's four runs.

Linescores:
Seattle 200-010-101 5-11-1
Portland 000-000-100 1-3-0
Spanswick and Skeen; Seitz, Hanrahan (8) and MacKenzie. LP—Seitz.

Denver 100-100-002 4-1-1
Salt Lake City 510-011-010 9-12-2
Heman, Clapp (7) Hickman (8) and Roof; Seyfried and Barra-gan. HR—Will, Cowan. LP—Heman.

Dallas Ft. W. 000-200-000 2-8-2
Hawaii 000-020-03x 5-8-1
Mecklenberg and McCabe; Grba and Roselli.
Only Games Scheduled

Scheffing, Helpers Are Fired

BOSTON (UPI)—General manager James A. Campbell announced today that Detroit manager Bob Scheffing and his entire coaching staff have been fired "for the best interests" of the team.

Campbell said the new manager will be Charlie Dressen, former manager at Cincinnati, Brooklyn, Washington and Milwaukee. Dressen currently is a scout for the Los Angeles Dodgers.

The three new coaches will be Bob Swift, now manager of Syracuse in the International League; Stubby Overmire, manager at Jamestown in the New York-Pennsylvania League; and Pat Mullin, scout of the Tiger organization.

They will replace Tom Ferrick, Phil Cavaretta and George Myatt. This was Scheffing's third season as Tiger manager.

Scheffing has been offered a position in the Tiger organization and indicated he intends to accept it after taking a rest, Campbell said.

Detroit now is in 9th place in the American League with 24 wins and 36 losses.

Star-Studded Field Begins U.S. Open Action Thursday

BROOKLINE, Mass. (UPI)—Here where golf came of age in this country 50 years ago, a star-studded field tees off Thursday in quest of the U.S. Open championship and favored Arnold Palmer predicted today that a score of 290—four under par—"will be good enough to take all the marbles."

Fresh off his $25,000 victory in the Thunderbird Classic, Palmer tried out the 6,870-yard Country Club course Monday and complained that "there are too many blind holes."

"There are too many holes where you are blind on either your drive or second shot and others where all you can see is the pin," Palmer observed. "I think this talk that they might break Ben Hogan's Open record of 276 is a lot of baloney. I'll settle for 280 right now."

Told that some observers felt he scrambled too much to win on this type of course, Palmer shook his head and allowed that it was a driver's course.

"You have to hit 'em straight," he said, "but I'm not worried."

Complains Of Two Holes
He complained of two holes—the par four 470-yard 12th and the par five 505-yard ninth.

"Hitting from the back tee on the 12th makes it an impossible hole and even if they move the tee up, as they tell me they will,

it still is going to be a mighty tough four. And on the ninth, if you don't put your second on the green you are going to wind up with bogeys. The undulating fairway is in bad shape and you don't get anything but bad lies if you are short on your second," Palmer said.

Palmer did not keep score, but said "I played pretty well."

Most of the other top names in golf also got their first look at the course Monday.

Gary Player, the little South African, figured the course was just right for him. He is seeking to become the first foreigner to win the Open since Britisher Ted Ray took it in 1920.

"It is more English than most English courses and I've always played well on them," said Player, adding that "I'm playing as well, or better than ever."

Nicklaus' Neck Better
Defending champion Jack Nicklaus, who said the stiff neck which he suffered in the second round of the Thunderbird last week was "much better," suggested that "par is going to be tough to beat unless they move the fairways and cut the rough."

Palmer, Player, Nicklaus and Julius Boros were the names most mentioned as possible winners while Phil Rodgers also was receiving a lot of support.

When the field of 150 tees off Thursday morning for the first of four rounds, they will be sent on their way by Francis Ouimet, who as a 20-year-old amateur in 1913 gave golf in the United States its greatest shot in the arm when he beat Ray and another Britisher, Harry Vardon, in a triple playoff for the Open title. That's when the game really began to flourish in this country.

After Friday's second round, the field will be cut to the low 50 and ties for the final two gruelling rounds on Saturday.

People Read
● SPOT ADS
— you are now.

Kralick Captures Sixth Straight

By United Press International
Jack Kralick is one of those fellows who is always being under-rated.

He's a fidgety, frail sort of fellow who was once placed on a vitamin diet to beef up his body and his last ball. The Washington Senators gave up on him after two years and so did the Minnesota Twins despite the fact that he pitched a no-hitter for the Twins last Aug. 26.

Now he's with the Cleveland Indians and one of the big reasons why the Indians have surged into American League flag contention with five straight victories and 15 in their last 17 games.

"We just put him on the firing line and turned him loose," says Cleveland pitching coach Mel Harder. "We haven't done a thing to change him."

The Indians acquired the 28-year-old native of Youngstown, Ohio, May 2 in a deal that sent Jim Perry to the Twins. At the time Kralick's record was a mere 1-4 and it became 1-5 with the Indians before it started to get better.

Raised Season Mark
Now Kralick has won six in a row and raised his season mark to 7-5, including a five-hit, 1-0 victory over the Senators Monday night. In his last 44 1/3 innings, he's allowed only five earned runs and at the rate he's going he's quickly being recognized as the most effective lefty the Indians have had since Herb Score.

The victory and Baltimore's 7-2 win over Boston in the only other AL game Monday night put the Indians, Orioles and the Red Sox in a virtual three-way tie for third place. Only four percentage points separate the three teams, who all are three games behind the first place New York Yankees.

In the National League, the Los Angeles Dodgers defeated the San Francisco Giants, 2-0, the St. Louis Cardinals beat the New York Mets, 8-1, the Philadelphia Phillies downed the Cincinnati Reds, 4-2, and the Pittsburgh Pirates topped the Milwaukee Braves, 9-3.

Kralick allowed five hits, struck out five and didn't allow a walk as the Indians continued to take advantage of a schedule quirk that has enabled them to beat the Senators eight out of nine games in the last 11 days. Kralick has scored four of the Indians' 15 wins since June 2 when they were in eighth place, eight games out of first place.

Balk, Error Help
The Indians scored the only run of the game in the eighth inning with the help of an error and a balk by Washington pitcher Jim Duckworth.

Duckworth, who suffered his fifth loss, threw wildly past first base on a bouncer back to the mound enabling Dick Howser to reach second base. Howser moved to third on Jerry Kindall's sacrifice and scored when umpire John Flaherty called a balk on Duckworth for stopping halfway through his windup and stepping back off the mound.

The Orioles gained their fourth win in their last 10 games behind the strong pitching of Mike McCormick, who also homered in his own behalf during a six-run Baltimore rally in the fifth inning.

Big blow of that decisive frame was a three-run homer by Joe Gaines.

Luis Aparicio weighed in with two other hits for the Orioles, who snapped the Red Sox' six-game winning streak.

Hedlund Fires 74 In Tourney

WICHITA, Kan. (UPI)—John Hedlund of the University of Oregon fired a 38-36-74 Monday in the first round of qualifying for the National Collegiate Athletic Association golf tournament.

Hedlund finished seven strokes behind the leader, George Hixon of Oklahoma State, who had a three-under par 67.

Slowly drying greens and fairways appeared to be only a slight handicap to 196 golfers who teed off Monday. Wichita University golf coach Bob Kirkpatrick estimated the cutoff point for qualifiers after today's round would be about 150.

TO GO ON TOUR
TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (UPI)—Danny Litwiler, former major league outfielder and head baseball coach at Florida State University, will tour Central American and Caribbean countries this summer. Ernie Lanford, assistant coach at Florida State, and pitcher Al Beechick will accompany Litwiler in giving baseball clinics for the State Department.

Ralph Dupas Keeps Title In Upsetting D. Moyer

BALTIMORE (UPI)—Ralph Dupas, the little buzz-saw from New Orleans, doesn't care how he wins 'em, so long as he does, and today he still is the world junior middleweight champion.

The 27-year-old Dupas kept his title Monday night by beating former champion Denny Moyer of Portland, Ore., for the second time within seven weeks, again on a 15-round decision that was close.

Ralph out-speeded and out-danced the ex-champion, from whom he took the title last April 27, and his stronger punching at close range was enough to earn him the decision which was boosted by a small crowd of 2,844 in the new, 13,000 seat Civic Center.

"I knew I had him all the way," Dupas said. "It may have looked as though he hurt me a couple of times, but he didn't. I was in good shape—better than the last time when I had been idle for more than three months."

The decision was unanimous in favor of Dupas, who scored the 10th victory of his career against only 17 losses and two draws. For Moyer, who was the 65 favorite at fight time, it was his 10th loss against 37 victories.

Moyer originally won the newly created division title by outpointing Joey Giambra at Portland, Ore., on Oct. 20, 1962. He defended against Dupas last April and lost the title on a close decision in New Orleans, which many called a "home town decision" in favor of Ralph.

Dupas circled the baby-faced Moyer consistently with fast footwork and kept throwing leather at the 23-year-old Denny as he circled—sometimes hitting from a crouch and other times leaping in with long jabs and straight rights. There was no knockdowns in the bout.

The three ring officials favored Dupas on a five-point-must basis as follows: Referee Benny Goldstein, 70-68; Judge Eddie Leonard, 69-68; and Judge Jimmy Jones, 69-68.

Dupas on a five-point-must basis as follows: Referee Benny Goldstein, 70-68; Judge Eddie Leonard, 69-68; and Judge Jimmy Jones, 69-68.

Dupas on a five-point-must basis as follows: Referee Benny Goldstein, 70-68; Judge Eddie Leonard, 69-68; and Judge Jimmy Jones, 69-68.

Dupas on a five-point-must basis as follows: Referee Benny Goldstein, 70-68; Judge Eddie Leonard, 69-68; and Judge Jimmy Jones, 69-68.

Dupas on a five-point-must basis as follows: Referee Benny Goldstein, 70-68; Judge Eddie Leonard, 69-68; and Judge Jimmy Jones, 69-68.

Dupas on a five-point-must basis as follows: Referee Benny Goldstein, 70-68; Judge Eddie Leonard, 69-68; and Judge Jimmy Jones, 69-68.

MOYER SLIPS PUNCH—Challenger Denny Moyer, left, and defending champion Ralph Dupas try for the Junior Middleweight title as they slug it out in the first round of their fight in Baltimore. Dupas kept the crown on a decision. —UPI Telephoto

Louisville Lip To Battle London's Brian Cooper

LONDON (UPI)—In an appropriately splendid setting, Kentucky's "grace-a-t" unbeaten Cassius Clay and England's British Empire champion Henry Cooper fight here tonight for a September shot at the world heavyweight crown.

A half-dozen historically clad trumpeters, six American soldiers and six English soldiers will escort Cassius, the "Louisville Lip," and Cooper, London's former house plasterer, into the canopied ring midst the cheers from a police-limited crowd of 53,000 at London's outdoor Wembley Stadium.

The stadium can hold 100,000 for a soccer game but the police will not permit more than 55,000 tonight.

There will be hand playing, community singing and other folderol arranged by promoter Jack Solomons for this richest fight ever staged outside the United States—a show for which the gate is estimated at $448,000.

Then comes the scheduled 10-round fight between Clay, 21, and Cooper, 29—a bout in which "Gaseous Cassius" will try to make his fists live up to the boast loudly shouted by his mouth. "I'm not talkin' jive; Cooper falls in five."

Manny King, one of Britain's outstanding bookmakers, announced that Clay is favored at 4-1 in man-to-man betting.

Clay is a prohibitive favorite because he seeks his 19th consecutive victory as a professional and his 19th knockout. Also because he is ranked second among contenders, just below former champion Floyd Patterson. Cooper is rated fourth.

Many British experts believe that Cooper's aggressive style, featuring a good left hook, and his comparatively weak defense—coupled with quick-bleeding brows—provides a "made-to-order" victim for Cassius.

Clay, with the nimble legs and fast hands, usually keeps circling an opponent and spearing him with left jabs and shaking him with sneaker rights until he is ready to be bombarded and knocked out at close quarters.

Cooper, a good puncher, scored 19 knockouts while winning 27 of his 36 bouts. He lost eight and had one draw. These eight defeats include five kayoes—three because of brow cuts.

the true old-style Kentucky Bourbon always smoother because it's slow-distilled
KENTUCKY STRAIGHT BOURBON WHISKY - 50 PROOF
EARLY TIMES DISTILLERY COMPANY, LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY