

Valiants Halt Ramblers' Drive

Olson's Valiants, which stopped Kingsley's title drive last week, halted the hot streak of Eccles Ramblers in Monday night's South Suburban Little League action. Kingsley nipped the Teamsters in the other game, 7-6.

Olson's dropped the Ramblers, 8-2, behind the combined six-hit pitching of Pat Gallagher and Deane Fischer. Each hurler gave three hits apiece.

The Ramblers used three hurlers with Mike Davidson taking the loss as the starter. Scott Adrian slammed a home run with no one aboard in the sixth inning. Adrian Hall doubled for the winners. Olson's had 10 hits to six for Eccles. Hal Barleen belted a pair of singles as did Randy Shaw. Davidson led the losers with a single and double.

Kingsley used three pitchers to notch its victory. Mike Negrevski opened, was lifted for Scott Smeler who was taken out in favor of Cecil Davis. Rudy Carlson was the loser. Smeler was the winner. Each team got seven hits.

Chris Carlson was the leading hitter for the winners with a double and single. Rusty Klem also bused a double as did Davis. Val Carlson had a single and double for the Teamsters.

Tulelake nosed out Fluhrer's, 4-3, in a surprise victory in the Klamath Basin Babe Ruth League Monday night.

Tulelake tallied first in the second inning on a walk to Gary

Monday night and Dugan and Mest topped Chiloquin, 7-1, behind the two-hit pitching of Lee Turner.

The Bakers got a superb pitching performance out of Dave Kovich and Jim Drew who allowed the Tulelake team a combined total of two hits during the game—and still lost. The Bakers belted four hits off winner John Crawford.

Tulelake tallied first in the second inning on a walk to Gary

Fluhrer's came back with three runs in their half of the second. Jim Phillips walked and stole second. He scored on Sam McKeen's double and two were put out before leadoff batter Rick Lynn singled to score McKeen.

Steve Lynn walked to put two on base and Gene Harp singled to score Rick Lynn with the third run. That was all the runs for the Bakers.

Tulelake came back with the tying run in the fourth. Gary Tatum walked, took second on an error by the Bakers' catcher after Cushman had walked and scored on a ground out.

Kirsch Among Coach Nominees

OMAHA, Neb. (UPI)—University of Oregon's Don Kirsch was one of nine coaches nominated Monday for the College Baseball Coach of the Year Award.

Also included among the nominees was Rod Dedeaux of NCAA champion Southern California.

The award will be presented at the annual convention of the American Association of College Baseball Coaches in New York Jan. 5.

Manny Jimenez

Recalled

PORTLAND (UPI)—The Kansas City Athletics recalled outfielder Manny Jimenez from their Portland farm club Monday and sent the Beavers outfielder Jay Hartzins.

Jimenez hit .323 for the Beavers after being sent down May 23. Hankins was called up a few days later while carrying a .352 average for Portland. He hit .176 for the Athletics.

Hawks Lose

Twin-Bill

To Studs

The Hawks of Klamath lost a Legion doubleheader to the Central Point Cheney Studs Sunday, the first a no-hit game pitched by Larry Pepper. The Studs won the first game, a league counter, 3-0, and the second game, 2-1.

Pepper hurled excellent ball in striking out 10 Hawks. He hurt his arm, however, with one strike on the last batter of the game and Wayne Clay came in to pitch two strikes to the final Hawk batter for the no-hit game.

Neil Rivenburg led the Studs with a double, the only extra base blow of the day. Dave Hill took the loss on the mound with a fine six-hit performance.

The Hawks got only three hits in the second game off Wayne Mason of the Studs. Dennis Berry hurled a six-hit game for the Hawks. Brad Slezak of the Hawks led all batters with a booming home run. Lou Alvarez had a pair of doubles and Mike Glines had one. The Hawks play in Medford Friday night.
