

Outspoken Muslims Involved In Disputes

By H. D. QUIGG
United Press International

The Black Muslims, an American Negro movement that is outspokenly antiwhite and racist in direction but forbids aggression unless attacked, has been involved in some prison disturbances and court actions involving its claims to be a religion.

The Black Muslims claim to be part of the worldwide Islamic religion which has perhaps 500 million followers, most of them in Africa and Asia. Elijah Muhammad, the "Messenger of Allah," leader of the Black Muslims, claims to have received the divine word directly from Allah. He teaches a rejection of Christianity, scorn for whites.

One federal judge has ruled that the Black Muslims are a religious group. Another is deliberating a similar case.

Rejects Elijah's Claim

However, orthodox Muslims in America have rejected the Black Muslims as not related to Islam. The Federation of Islamic Associations, the U.S.-Canadian Muslim organization, has said Elijah's group is not truly Muslim.

An American orthodox Muslim spokesman, Ahmad Kamal, president of the Jam'at Al Islam Humanitarian Foundation, had this to say in a radio interview:

"I think I should mention that orthodox Muslims believe in the Virgin Birth, the Immaculate Conception, and the ascension of Jesus Christ. Islam is not a rejection of Christianity....

"Elijah Poole (Elijah Muhammad's original name) teaches hatred, which is satanic. The Negro people have a new burden to bear. Elijah Poole has taught his listeners that in following him they are guided by a living prophet, and that they are Black Muslims. He is going to have much to answer for. His hate teachings, his dogma and doctrine of hatred, is utterly non-Muslim. It is anti-Muslim."

Has Friends Overseas

In 1959, Elijah Muhammad was permitted by the Muslim leadership to make a pilgrimage to the holy city of Mecca. Observers believe he could not have done it in the face of American Muslim opposition without powerful friends overseas.

C. Eric Lincoln, social philosophy professor at Clark College in Atlanta who made a full-scale study of Black Muslimism, believes there is "good reason to believe the Black Muslims will soon be officially sheltered in the community of international Islam.... It seems likely that they (Muslim theologians) will find the Black Muslims within the pale—a legitimate if somewhat heretical Muslim sect."

Last July, Federal Judge Bernita Matthews in Washington ruled that William T. X. Fulwood must be allowed to hold religious gatherings at Lorton Reformatory, in nearby Virginia, since Black Muslims are a religious group.

Considers Similar Case

In Buffalo, N.Y., Federal Judge John O. Henderson has had under deliberation since November the appeal of five Black Muslims in Attica State Prison to strike down a state ruling that they cannot conduct services because their movement is not a religion.

At San Quentin Prison in California, where a Black Muslim was shot to death by a guard during a melee among Negro and white inmates in February, Associate Warden Dale Frady said the number of Black Muslim inmates there varied usually from 70 upward. He said there was no way of telling how many were recruited as Muslims after they got there—nor whether Muslim "missionaries" got themselves imprisoned.

Frady said the most prominent demand of Muslim inmates was recognition as a religion, that they frequently try to conduct services but that "we break these meetings up, as we do any large gathering."

Observers agree that the Black Muslims have a tremendous record of rehabilitation—released convicts who join stay away from crime. One big city urban league director has been quoted: "Frankly, I'd like to find some non-Muslims who are as well behaved."

Graduation Night Spree Results In Four Fines

DUNSMUIR — Two local merchants, two boys over 18, and numerous other juveniles became involved with the Alcohol Control Board this week following the sale, purchase, and consumption of alcoholic beverages as part of a graduation night spree.

Antonio Brun, Dunsmuir, was fined $28.25 and Amos Johnson, Castella, fined $105, with $32.50 suspended, for selling alcoholic beverages to minors. Tom Tucker and Leroy Nakao, both graduating seniors from Dunsmuir High School, were fined $105 each for misrepresenting their ages in order to make illegal purchases.

Brun and Tucker's cases were heard in Dunsmuir Justice Court. In imposing the fine against Tucker, Judge A. A. Smith cited the state code which stipulates the minimum fine with provisions that none of it may be suspended. Johnson and Nakao appeared in Castella Justice Court.

The other juveniles, all under 18, have been certified to the Siskiyou County Juvenile Court, and additional Alcohol Control Board action is pending against the merchants. ABC men working with local authorities are continuing the investigation.

Foundations To Receive Tax Refund

MOUNT SHASTA—The Siskiyou County Board of Supervisors has ordered a warrant drawn. As a result, nine political subdivisions have been notified of their share in the refund of taxes to the St. Germaine Foundation. This follows a court ruling in a lawsuit over payment of taxes which the foundation declared was on exempt property.

The foundation paid taxes for the years 1953-54 through 1962-63 under protest, and it will be refunded on that part of the property declared exempt. The total refund amounts to $33,364.92, with the Siskiyou County general fund being tapped for $22,148.34.

Mount Shasta Union Elementary School District will refund $9,202.34 from its general fund and $2,813.91 from its bond fund. Siskiyou Union High School District will refund $10,835.34 from the general fund and $1,484.66 from its bond fund.

Siskiyou Junior College District will be required to refund $2,220.47; Mount Shasta recreation district, $1,700.96; Dunsmuir Elementary School, $917.41 general and $88.46 bond fund; Dunsmuir High School, $870.62 general and $6.48 bond fund; Dunsmuir fire district, $890.26; Mount Shasta fire district, $46.25, and the city of Mount Shasta, $359.02.

The refund is about one-fifth originally asked in the suit. In most cases the refunds will come from unappropriated reserves of the boards of the different districts.

Most Homes Have Garage

NEW YORK (UPI)—The family car is being pampered more than ever.

John Sierks, chief architect for Levitt and Sons, Inc., reports that about three quarters of all houses being built nowadays have at least a one-car garage. As recently as 1950, he adds, less than half of new houses had garages.

Another service from the 9 Shell dealers of Klamath Falls

7 things to tell your son when he first borrows the family car

1. Remember what you learned to get your driver's license, and you'll be a better driver. Eight out of ten car accidents stem from improper driving practices—such as speeding, failing to yield right-of-way and following other cars too closely. Truck drivers and other professionals have very few accidents—mile for mile, about one-quarter as many as other drivers. The professionals know the rules of good driving—and obey them.
2. If the car won't start, there are a number of simple things worth trying. Use the starter in short bursts. Press accelerator to the floor once, then release it quickly just before you try starter.
- With manual shift, keep clutch pedal all the way down. With automatic transmission, make sure gear selector is at exactly the right spot.
- Note from Shell: We recently published an advertisement with 7 simple starting tips. For a free copy, write to Shell Oil Co., P.O. Box 236, N.Y. 46, N.Y.
3. Courtesy is contagious—and adds to everyone's driving pleasure. Nobody ever cured a traffic jam by losing his temper. If you can keep your sense of humor and wait your turn, everyone will probably get where he's going sooner—including you.
- Another suggestion: It takes only seconds to let someone enter the roadway ahead of you, but it can save the other driver minutes. Just remember to signal the car behind you that you're slowing down or about to stop.
4. Cars respond to good care. Have the oil, battery and water checked every time you stop for gasoline.
- When you're driving, listen for unusual mechanical sounds. If you hear one, have it checked right away. It could save a big repair bill later on.
- On rough roads, take it easy—tires are tough, but they are destructible.
- Note: For a free copy of Shell's 12-page booklet, "44 ways to make your car last longer," write to the Shell Oil Company, P.O. Box 236, New York 46, N.Y.
5. Don't take other drivers for granted. They sometimes do unexpected things. In the U.S. in 1962, they ran into stationary objects more than 164,000 times.

June is prom time—and many a young man will be borrowing the family car for the first time. Here, Shell dealers offer seven driving tips that can be useful to him all his life.

So don't be too optimistic. Cars do sometimes enter intersections carelessly—especially when there's no stop sign. A car coming from the other direction might swing into your lane on a hill or curve.

Your best protection is to drive defensively. The only driver you can really be sure of is yourself.

6. If you're going to be late, call home. And if car trouble is the reason, call the nearest service station, too.

Don't try to make repairs close to a busy road—could be dangerous. Instead, park well off the traffic lanes, put the hood up to show you're disabled—and wait in or near the car until help arrives.

Note from Shell: Thousands of Shell dealers go to special training schools each year. There, they learn how to spot trouble in a hurry. They can be helpful to you in almost any emergency.

7. Have a good time. So far, almost everything you've heard about cars has to do with safety. Now you're about to find out what a pleasure they can be. Here are the keys. Just take your responsibilities in stride. And have fun.

Comforting fact for parents: Drivers with less than three months' experience account for very few serious accidents—a good sign most new drivers do take their responsibilities seriously. So you can relax.

Klamath Falls Shell dealers de-bunk a myth about car care

It's a myth that you should let some air out of your tires when traveling on a hot day.

Today's tires are built to take the extra pressure that builds up during hot weather driving. So, don't deflate them on hot days—or you may find them very low the following morning. Do get your Shell dealer to check your tires before you start a long trip. Proper pressure will decrease chances of tire trouble during hot weather highway driving—also lead to longer tire life.

That's the real lowdown. You can count on your local Shell dealer for straight facts and honest work. See him regularly.
