

Cards Keep Lead As Giants Rip Bums; Maris Leads Yankees

Burdette Pays Off For Loop Leaders

By United Press International
Low Burdette always was at his best when he could smell the green stuff.

He proved it in the 1957 World Series when he beat the New York Yankees three times to give the Milwaukee Braves their one and only world championship and he showed it at other times when big dough was at stake.

The St. Louis Cardinals gamely last Sunday that the 36-year-old right-hander still had "it" when they acquired him in a trade with the Braves and they got their first dividend Tuesday night when Burdette pitched them to a 6-2 victory over the New York Mets.

The win enabled the Cardinals to go with his love for a buck. Burdette must have been as happy as the Cardinals' pouter over their five first-inning runs with the help of three walks, a sacrifice fly, an error, a balk, a wild pitch and a passed ball.

The San Francisco Giants walked the Los Angeles Dodgers, 9-3, the Milwaukee Braves beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 7-5, the Cincinnati Reds topped the Philadelphia Phillies, 2-1, and the Chicago Cubs beat the Houston Colts, 3-1, in other National League games.

A two-run single by Willie McCovey and a double by Orlando Cepeda were the big blows of a six-run third inning that paved the way for the Giants' victory over the Dodgers. Jack Sanford was tagged for 10 hits, including three by Ron Fairly, to raise his record to 9-3.

Joe Torre tripled and scored the tying run in the eighth inning and then hit a two-run homer in the 10th to give the Braves' Bob Shaw his third win against four losses. Bill Mazeroski homered for the Pirates, whose Al McBean suffered his second loss compared with seven wins.

The Reds pulled out their victory over rookie Ray Culp and the Phillies when Vada Pinson

Weyerhaeuser, Jeld-Wen Win

Jeld-Wen topped Hal's, 15-2, and Weyerhaeuser downed Gene's, 11-7, Monday in the City Little League Majors action.

Jeld-Wen used the three-hit pitching performance of Mattick to notch the win, their third. It was the seventh loss in eight games for Hal's. McCann led the winners with a pair of doubles and Natalie had one. Demestre was the losing pitcher on nine hits.

Pelican Makes Touring Team

CORVALLIS (UPI) — Ten boys Tuesday night gained spots on an Oregon high school wrestling team which will tour Japan from July 15-Aug. 3.

They survived a 46-man, two-day tournament at Oregon State University. The team, which will repay a visit by a Japanese all-star squad to Oregon, is scheduled to leave Portland by plane July 9 and return Aug. 5.

McKay, Bruhn Predict Wild Finish In All-America Game

NEW YORK (UPI) — Rival coaches John McKay of Southern California and Wisconsin's Milt Bruhn predicted another wild finish today for the third annual All-American All-Star football game at Buffalo, N. Y., June 29.

The two coaches, picked to head the squads on the basis of their finishing one-two in last year's balloting by the nation's coaches as the best mentors of the season, staged a New Year's Day thriller won by Southern Cal, 42-37.

"We outnumber the Trojans, 3 to 1," quipped Bruhn, "and the odds look just right."

Bruhn's 31-man East squad includes the 1952 Wisconsin battery of passer Ron VanderKelen and receiver Pat Richter. McKay's western team has quarterback

Yankees Move Full Game In Front

By United Press International
It's 4-1 Roger Maris again today in the New York Yankee clubhouse and around the American League.

Because the man who set the all-time mark of 61 homers in a season in 1961 only to be one of the disappointments of the 1962 campaign is proving that he does not need Mickey Mantle to soften up pitchers for him. In short, that he, too, can be a leader.

The experts questioned that last year when Maris failed to hit while Mantle was out of the lineup and they chortled that it would happen again this season when Mickey suffered a broken bone in his left foot which will sideline him until sometime next month.

It's a wonderful theory for those who hope this will be one of those rare years in which the Yankees do not win the American League pennant but it's being drowned out by the thunder of Maris' bat.

The Yankees have reeled off five straight victories and it's no coincidence that Maris has walked away at a .500 clip during those five games. The 9-for-18 spurge has lifted his season average to .289 and he's connected for 11 homers and driven in 21 runs.

Maris made it easy for Whitey Ford to post his ninth win of the season Tuesday night when he hit two homers and a single in the Yankees' 10-5 triumph over the Washington Senators. Tom Tresh and Tony Kubek also homered and Hector Lopez had a triple as the Yankees moved a full game ahead of the Chicago White Sox, who lost to the Minnesota Twins, 5-3.

The Cleveland Indians defeated the Baltimore Orioles, 7-3, the Boston Red Sox routed the Detroit Tigers, 9-0, and the Los Angeles Angels scored an 11-inning, 2-1 victory over the Kansas City Athletics in other AL games.

Harmon Killebrew's 11th homer of the season helped the Twins drop the White Sox a full game behind the Yankees. Jim Perry pitched eight-hit ball for seven innings and Bill Dailey closed it out with two strong relief innings. Joel Horlen suffered his second defeat against four wins for the White Sox.

Barry Latman pitched a five-hitter and contributed a two-run double to an attack that carried the Indians to their sixth straight victory and their 16th in their last 18 games. Latman struck out 10 on route to his third win. Willie Kirkland homered for the Indians and Jim Gentile connected for the Orioles.

The Red Sox spoiled Charlie Dressen's debut as manager of the Tigers as Earl Wilson pitched a four-hitter and homers by Eddie Bressoud and Dick Stuart paced Boston's late-inning attack. It was the eighth straight loss for the Tigers, playing their first game under Dressen after Bob Scheffing was fired.

A wild pitch with the bases filled by John Wyatt enabled the Angels to score the winning run against the Athletics in the 11th inning. Ken McBride pitched a three-hitter and struck out seven in going the distance to win his seventh game against six losses.

Correction

The sports department regrets the error made in Tuesday's sports section that the Hawks were beaten by Central Point. It was the Tri-City Gems which lost the twin-bill and no-hitter to the Cheney Studs of Central Point.
