Small guests Ronnie and Janice Morehouse, Jennie and Chris Murphy, Mike Hall and Connie Chaney, most of them were accompanied by their mothers.

'48 Grads Plan Reunion

Members of the KUHS Class of '48 are looking forward to their reunion weekend activities Saturday and Sunday, June 22 and 23.

Registration headquarters will be at Molatore's Restaurant from 10 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. on Saturday. All classmates are asked to register.

Reames Country Club will be the setting for the dinner dance Saturday evening. The welcoming committee will be on hand to greet guests at a social and cocktail hour starting at 6:30 p.m. A steak dinner will be served promptly at 8 p.m.

Music for dancing will be played by the Dancemasters following the entertainment and awards.

On Sunday, classmates will meet again, this time at Moore Park, for a picnic from noon until 4 p.m. Those attending are asked to bring a potluck lunch. Pop and ice cream will be furnished.

All classmates who have not confirmed registration by card or letter may do so by calling the following: Jim Cramson, TU 2-3454; Doug Dryden, TU 4-6493; or Trudy Eastman, TU 2-1507.

ATTEND RECEPTION — At the reception honoring OTI graduates, Mrs. David Hull and Mrs. Lloyd Olson admire lovely arrangement of spring flowers on tea table.

RECEIVE HONOR — Lina Motschenbacher, left, and Anna Bean, center, were presented 50-year Veteran Jewels by Brig. Gen. Herbert Munsell, department commander, on behalf of Prosperity Rebekah Lodge. The two women became members of Prosperity Chapter in 1913 and have held continuous active membership serving Rebekah Oddfellowship for 50 years in this lodge. — Photo by Bob Anderson.

Tour Taken By Family

LAKEVIEW — Dr. and Mrs. Paul Kiewer, accompanied by their two daughters, Mavis and Susan, and son, Stephan, left Lakeview June 11 for Portland where they boarded a plane for Paris. They will spend the rest of June and July traveling throughout Europe.

During this time they will visit Switzerland, Italy, Holland, Germany. In Switzerland they will visit with relatives of Mrs. Kiewer at Grindelwald, where her mother lived. They will visit in Germany with Capt. Michael McCormick and Mrs. McCormick, son and daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Henry McCormick of Lakeview. Their return home is planned for late in July.
