

ASA T. MILLER

Last Modoc Member Dies

The last known full-blooded Modoc tribal member in Klamath County, Asa T. Miller, died June 18 in Hillsdale Hospital. He had been in failing health for some time.

Mr. Miller was 85, born in 1878 in Oklahoma, after his parents were returned there from the Klamath Indian Reservation at the close of the Modoc War of 1872-1873.

He knew many of the old ways of the tribe. On his return to this country he owned and operated a rooming house in Linkville, now Klamath Falls.

He became an ordained minister in the Open Bible Standard Church, serving with his wife Mildred, also ordained, until her death a short time ago. He preached in his native Modoc tongue and the language of the Klamaths.

Mr. Miller lived in Chiloquin for many years and moved to Klamath Falls in 1957. In his early life he had played with the old baseball leagues in the Middle West.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Thursday, June 20, in the chapel of Ward's Klamath Funeral Home with Pastor Evert J. Tuning of the Sprague River Friends Church officiating. Final rites and interment will be in the Lohart Cemetery near Chiloquin. Survivors include two daughters, Dorcas Joe and Dona Amos, also five grandchildren and one great-grandchild, all of Klamath Falls, and a stepdaughter, Rose Farton of Medford.

SNAPPY

Two-in-one vegetable dish combines snap beans and tomatoes. Fry 3 strips of bacon until crisp. Drain on paper towel, reserving bacon fat.

Wash 1 pound of fresh snap beans, remove tips, and cut into 1-inch pieces. Add to hot fat along with 2 cups of diced fresh tomatoes, 1 teaspoon of salt, 1/2 teaspoon of ground black pepper, 2 tablespoons of boiling water and 1/2 teaspoon of sugar. Cover and cook, slowly, 40 minutes, or until crisp-tender. Serve hot with bacon crumbled on top. Serves 6.

B VITAMIN FOOD

Government nutritionists hail wheat germ as "rich in all the vitamins of the B complex—thiamine (B1), riboflavin (B2), niacin and B6." The cereal is also a rich source of vitamin E, according to the report.
