

4 Men From Area Active In Armed Services

LEONARD C. MCINTYRE

LEONARD E. YOUNG JR.

The U.S. Navy Recruiting Station in Klamath Falls has announced the recent enlistment of Leonard C. McIntyre, 18, a former student at Paramount High School in California.

McIntyre is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. McIntyre, Bonanza. He entered the Navy as a seaman recruit and is undergoing recruit training at the Naval Training Center in San Diego. Upon completion of recruit training he will be granted a 14-day leave.

Charles D. Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hall, Christmas Valley, has completed three months of basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, Tex., and is now stationed with the Air Force at Nalls Base, Nev.

Hall is an airman third class and is assigned in the field of missile research. He is the first youth to enter the service from the new Christmas Valley community.

Mark Wescott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Wescott, Bonanza, is spending a 30-day leave with his parents, sister and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bide Steward, Upper Langell Valley. Wescott, who is in the Marines, has been taking training at Camp Pendleton, Calif. He will go to a base in Okinawa when he returns from leave.

Marine Pvt. Leonard E. Young Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard E. Young, 5611 Delaware Street, completed recruit training last month at the Marine Corps recruit depot, San Diego.

The 11-week indoctrination to Marine Corps life includes instruction on basic military law, discipline, physical fitness, military drill, and other military subjects.

LIME BLUE

Fresh lime-blueberry mold is a salad in cool colors. Soften 2 envelopes of unflavored gelatin in 1 cup of cold water. Add 1 1/2 cups of boiling water, 1/2 cup of sugar and 1/4 teaspoon of salt. Stir until gelatin dissolves completely. Blend in 1/4 cup of fresh lime juice. Chill until consistency of fresh egg whites. Fold in 3 cups of fresh blueberries. Chill until firm in a 5-cup mold. Unmold, garnish with salad greens and serve with mayonnaise. Serves 6 to 8.

rifle range, where the Marine learned to fire the M-14 rifle and was instructed on other infantry weapons.

Army Pfc. Henry L. Mainor participated with other members of the 1st Cavalry Division in Exercise "Rainstorm 1," a three-day training maneuver in Korea. The exercise included attacks by mock guerrilla and aggressor units, air mobility tests and an assault river crossing.

Mainor, who arrived overseas in March, is a surveyor in Headquarters Battery of the division's 5th Howitzer Battalion, 31st Artillery in Korea.

He entered the Army in April, 1962, and completed basic training at Fort Ord.

Mainor is the son of Mrs. Rosetta D. Mainor, 3303 Cannon Avenue, Klamath Falls, and Henry Mainor, 1240 Chambers Street, Eugene.

Thomas W. Chaburn III, whose parents live in Merrill, has been promoted to private first class in Germany where he is serving with the 2nd Armored Cavalry Regiment.

Chaburn, a tank crewman in Troop B of the regiment's 1st Reconnaissance Squadron, entered the Army in February, 1961, and arrived overseas the following July.

The 20-year-old soldier is a 1960 graduate of Merrill High School.

When the Rose Festival Fleet sailed up the Willamette River to Portland June 12 to participate in the Rose Festival, there were two local men on the 15 ships and two submarines that tied up at the West Sea Wall.

The local men were Robert J. Austin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Austin, 2636 Gettle Street, and Lowell R. Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Verlin Rose, 2316 California Avenue.

TIP OF THE MORNING

If you want a nutrition-charged but low-calorie breakfast, beat up four ounces orange juice, six ounces skim milk, two tablespoons of wheat germ, one egg and one teaspoon honey. Make sure milk and orange juice are real cold. Drink hearty.

Three Cities May Obtain Ambulance

MOUNT SHASTA — Dr. Hugh Fate, chairman of Siskiyou County Taxpayers' Association, said if Mount Shasta, Weed, and Dunsmuir want an ambulance and would start proceedings, his group will appoint a committee to work on the project which was started several weeks ago by Mount Shasta Chamber of Commerce.

Investigation into the cost and maintenance has already been made, and Mount Shasta Community Hospital has offered to house the machine as well as keep it supplied with the necessary equipment.

The association met June 13 and a nominating committee to set up a permanent system for election of officers was named. The committee appointed includes Mrs. Charles Holcomb, Joe Lombardi, Peggy Walsh, Henry Amy, Mrs. Orville Graham, and Donald Rately. Nominations for permanent officers will be accepted from the floor at the association's next meeting, July 11, at 7:30 p.m. in the Sisson Elementary School gym.

Hugh Reilly, Paul Martin on "Lassie," was born in Newark, N.J., where his father, the late Hugh Sr., was once a congressional candidate.

When stuffing tomatoes with cottage cheese, egg or tuna salad, add 1/4 cup of toasted wheat germ to the filling. Mix well and serve stuffed tomato with a favorite dressing.

Record Crowd Watches Silver Lake Rodeo

SILVER LAKE—The third annual jackpot rodeo sponsored by the Silver Lake Roping Club had a record turnout here Sunday. The newly-built grandstand was packed and the fences lined with viewers. Cars were parked everywhere in the north Lake County town.

Forty-two pairs of team ropers competed, with J. P. McAuliffe and Dell Smith, Klamath Marsh, winners. Second were Jack Defoe and Bob Morris, Bend, and Fred Hall of Redmond and Morris of Bend, third.

Saddle bronc entries in the top three spots were Earl Carson, Burns; Bob Rogers, Lakeview, Jim McAuliffe, Fort Klamath, and Jim McAuliffe.

Carson was also top bareback rider, followed by Bob Wishart, Paisley, and Jim McAuliffe. Jack Defoe led out in calf roping, with Bob Morris, second. Ambrose McAuliffe, Klamath Marsh, was third.

Henry Cook of Silver Lake was top in reined cow horse competition, followed by Amrose McAuliffe, Melvin Rosebrook, Silver Lake, and Johnny Wise, Bend, tied for third and fourth.

Henry Cook displayed his skill with his cutting horse, the only entry in the event.

Girls' barrel racing was taken by Joyce Sherman of Susanville, Calif. The next three places were split by Jean Lowe, Burns; Mer-rice Christian, Paisley, and Betty and Bill Mattis, Fort Rock, furnished the calves for roping, according to Ernie Messner, president of the roping club. Mrs. Mess-Klamath Marsh; Jack Hope, Paisley, supplied the roping steers, secretary, with keeping records.

Sting By Wasp Kills Woman

FORT WORTH, Tex. (UPI) — Mrs. Myrtle McDonald, 33, got her doctor on the telephone and managed to gasp out that she had been stung by a wasp. The line went dead.

The physician and an ambulance attendant rushed to her home and found her dead. Justice of the Peace Whit Boyd ruled the death was caused by a wasp's sting.
