Cocky Jim O'Toole, who once won 20 games without even bothering to run, figures to do it again this year without any sweat.

The swaggering Cincinnati southpaw reeled off his 13th victory of the season and his seventh in a row Thursday night by beating Philadelphia 11-1 to boost the Reds within three and a half games of the National League lead.

O'Toole struck out six batters and gave up only five hits but developed blisters on his pitching hand after eight innings and gave way to Jim Owens in the ninth.

Although his 19 wins for the Reds in 1961 represent his top one-season total in the majors, O'Toole won 20 games for Nashville in the Southern Association during 1958 and was rather proud of the accomplishment when he reported to Cincinnati the following spring.

One of his teammates prodded him about not doing any running in spring training that year and O'Toole blithely replied: "I've got news for you. I won 20 at Nashville last year without running at all."

Majors' Biggest Winner
O'Toole does some occasional running now but he certainly has nothing to sweat about with a 13-3 record that makes him the biggest winner in the majors so far.

He was the beneficiary of a three-run homer by John Edwards Thursday night and another solo homer by Bob Skinner.

The Reds had only a 2-1 lead until the fifth inning when Edwards' homer featured a five-run rally at the expense of Art Mahaffey, who suffered his ninth loss in 12 decisions.

The Milwaukee Braves defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates 2-1 and the Chicago Cubs blanked the Houston Colts 5-0 in the only other NL games scheduled.

Southpaw Denny Lemaster of the Braves held the Pirates to five hits and then won his own game with an eighth inning homer.

KICKS UP STORM — N.Y. Yankee Manager Ralph Houk kicks up a storm of dirt as he argues with umpire John Rice about an alleged quick pitch thrown to Cleto Boyer, left, by Washington Senator Pitcher Jim Coates in eighth inning of their game in New York. Houk was ejected from the game, but the Yankees won 5-4. Senator catcher Don Leppert is at right. — UPI Telephoto practically all their games the last three weeks, the Indians have spurred from ninth place to fourth, only 3 1/2 games off the pace.

Even with Azcue's two homers Thursday night, however, the Indians still needed another grand slam homer by Max Alvis during a six-run seventh inning to overcome the Orioles. Woodie Held of the Indians and losing pitcher Dick Hall also hit homers during the contest.

Jerry Walker, who relieved starter Dick Donovan in the seventh inning, was credited with his sixth victory against one loss.

The Yankees rolled to their seventh win in a row by whipping Washington 5-4, the Minnesota Twins beat the Chicago White Sox 9-4, and the Boston Red Sox handed the Detroit Tigers their 10th straight defeat 8-3 in the only other American League games played.

Bobby Richardson's two-run double in the ninth inning off ex-temmate Jim Coates enabled the Yankees to overcome a 4-3 deficit against the Senators, who lost their eighth in a row.

Homers by Harmon Killebrew and Earl Battey plus Zolo Versalles' triple with the bases full were the key blows in Minnesota's victory over Chicago.

The Red Sox capitalized on home runs by Dick Stuart and Chuck Schilling to score five runs in the fourth inning and straight defeat under new manager Chuck Dressen.

The outfield will consist of John Bianchi in left, Blake Griggs in center and Ray Taylor in right.

The Klamath Falls Medo-Bels, trying to get back into the thick of the fight in the Northern California semi-pro baseball league, will go to Dunsmuir Saturday and Sunday for games with only the Saturday game counting as a league tilt.

The Sunday game is part of the Railroad Days fete and will be a non-counting game. The Saturday game is at 8 p.m. and the Sunday game at 2 p.m.

The Medo-Bels have a 1-2 record in league competition for fourth place in the six-team league. Weed and Scott Valley are co-leaders of the loop with 3-0 records and Dunsmuir is third at 2-1. The Medo-Bels will be looking for a win to reach the .500 mark.

Playing manager Ron Owings may have some changes this week. He probably will open behind the plate himself in place of Dave Saks who may not be able to make the game. Jim Keller will start on the hill for the Medo-Bels.

Dean Danson will be a new face at first base. Dave Sigado moves back to second base from the outfield. Sherm Allen will be at since the death of Gen. Robert R. Neyland, the man credited with putting Tennessee on the football map.

Wyatt, 47, presently a patient in a Virginia hospital, was given a year's terminal pay of $18,000.

The new Vol Mentor, Wyatt's assistant at Tennessee for the past eight years, indicated he would begin immediately on plans to sprinkle T-formation plays into the Tennessee offense.

The transition from Neyland's famous single wing attack will mark the end to one of the formation's last bastions in college football. It will be a change long sought by some of the disgruntled fans that have watched the Orange and White crumble into the Southeastern Conference basement in recent years.

McDonald Thursday was appointed head football coach to replace the ousted Bowen Wyatt. The university's board of trustees also appointed Bob Woodruff athletic director, a position that had not been permanently filled.

Mets Defeat Yankees 6-2

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Mets' fans had a ball—from cheering Casey Stengel to booing Roger Maris.

The Yankee Stadium was their oyster for a night and they made the most of it as their ragamuffin heroes defeated the world champions 6-2 in a benefit game played before a crowd of 59,742.

In fact, about the only thing the Mets' wildly enthusiastic fans didn't make off with was the stadium's center field flag pole—and it wasn't because they didn't try. A small mob of 'em seemed bent on taking it home as a souvenir until Yankee Stadium special police gained control.

The Yankees shrugged it all off as just another exhibition game.

"That's the way I like to split a doubleheader," said manager Ralph Houk, referring to the fact the Yankees beat the Washington Senators 3-0 in an American League game Thursday afternoon. "Just look at the standings of the two teams and you'll see we didn't lose a thing."

4 Speeders Ready For AAU Activity

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — The National AAU track and field trials, out of which will come the United States team to compete against Russia next month in the Soviet Union, gets under way today with four speedsters ready for the gun in the 100-yard dash.

Florida A&M's Robert Hayes was named the favorite in seedings Thursday but three others, Henry Carr, Larry Questad and Nate Adams were all given good chances of coming off with honors in what some predicted would be record time.

Hayes has run 9.3 in the 100 once already this year. That is one-tenth of a second off the world mark. Carr, of Arizona State, also is rated a good bet. He has a pending world mark of 20.3 in the 220 and also has done 9.3 in the 100. The third man to run it in 9.3 is Purdue's Adams. Questad is Stanford's previously upset Carr in NCAA competition.

Following the opening 100-yard dash trials interest will turn to the 120-yard high hurdles qualifiers, which will be run in four heats. The finals in both events will be held during the evening session.

This evening, the one-mile run trials and the six-mile run final will close out the track events. In the field event finals, the pole vault gets under way this afternoon with the javelin, broad jump and shot put following.

Saturday one mile, 220, 440 and 880-yard finals will be staged. Other events include the 3,000 meter steeplechase final and the two-mile walk final.

Among Saturday's field events will be the hammer throw, high jump, discus throw and triple jump.
