 THE STRETCHBRA™

Stretch pants, stretch swimsuits, and now the Stretch-bra! Every part of it stretches except the nylon cups. The fantastic stretchstraps stretch over the shoulders, stay firmly put. Gone are the buckles that used to press into your collarbone! The straps stretch down to a low, low back — 2 1/2 inches lower than conventional bras... won't ride up. Almost every inch of this nylon-and-Lycra bra stretches to fit.
 White, black, A, B, C, $5.95.

KF Girl Bride In Idaho Rites

In a recent ceremony at Clover Lutheran Church in Buhl, Idaho, Evelyn Rodriguez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melecio Rodriguez, this city, became the bride of Earl Eugene Farmer. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil West, Buhl.

The Rev. Carl Losser performed the double ring rites.

The bride wore a white two-piece linen suit with turquoise accessories for her marriage. A white flowered hat was briefly veiled and she carried pink carnations on a white Bible with turquoise streamers.

Charlene Schrader, maid of honor, wore a turquoise suit with white accessories and her bouquet was of pink carnations.

Jack West, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Mrs. Rodriguez selected for her daughter's wedding a navy blue suit with blue and black accessories. Mrs. West wore a blue and white print dress with white accessories. Both mothers had white carnation corsages.

Following the wedding a dinner for the families of the couple was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents. Later the newlyweds left for a trip to Klamath Falls and Portland.

While in this city, friends and relatives of the bride were guests at a reception in their honor at the Rodriguez home. A three tier wedding cake was decorated with pink and topped with wedding bells.

The bride was graduated from Henley High School and attended Southern Idaho College. The bridegroom spent three years in the Army after his graduation from Castelford High School. He is presently employed by the Buhl Police Department. The couple make their home at 904 Sprague in Buhl.

A pre-nuptial shower was given in Buhl to honor the bride by Charlene Schrader, Kay Hopwood, Sharon Scott, Carma Strindberg and Lavern Walden.

Special out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Melecio Rodriguez and their granddaughter, Rosemarie Brusco, Klamath Falls.

Grange Ritual Is Presented

A beautiful and impressive ritual ceremony was presented in the floral bedecked Midland Grange Hall when the fifth degree of the grange order was recently presented to 18 candidates.

Bonifay Yancey, Pomona master, welcomed an honored guest, Mrs. Grace Stork, Klamath Falls, District No. 5 juvenile matron, and introduced the masters of the subordinate granges present. The candidates represented the granges of Agency Lake, Merrill, Midland, Lost River, Shasta View and Upper Klamath.

Bill Novotny is the captain of the Pomona drill team which performed the drills with grace and precision, adding to the degree work of the order. He presented corsages to women of the drill team.

A social hour with refreshments was held after the ceremony.
