Prom Staged In Chiloquin

CHILOQUIN—"Evening in Paris" was the theme of the junior-senior banquet and prom given Saturday evening, May 4. Using the color scheme of blue and silver, the decorations at both events featured the Eiffel Tower, sidewalk cafe, and flower vendor stands.

Tony DiUlio, junior class president, served as emcee at the banquet. Invocation was given by the Rev. William Bentz, Greg Harris, senior class president, spoke, as did Principal C. A. Samples and Howard Bingham of the county school office.

Solos were sung by Mrs. John Mannering and played at the piano by Cookie DiUlio, a sophomore at Southern Oregon College.

Food was prepared by the junior mothers and served by eighth grade girls chosen for their scholastic ability.

Jenny Lynn Doak and Albert DeBortoli were crowned queen and king of the prom later in the evening and presented with gifts from the junior class.

The host juniors were Tony DiUlio, Don Taylor, Rocky Evans, Raymond Grow, Dennis Potter, Micki Wolff, Donna Kircher, Wilma Bentz, Lynn Hescock, Jim Bridge, Amory Bettles and Marjorie Pullen.

Special guests were faculty members, school board and parents.
