

Graduation Party Held

FORT KLAMATH — A delightful outdoor graduation party and dinner for fellow members of the barbecue was held Saturday evening, June 1, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Brattain. The affair was given as a rank requirement by Mary Brattain, Linda Stanley and Linda Van Wagoner for fellow members of the Chiloquin junior high school group of Camp Fire Girls. Setting for the party was the lawn at the Brattain ranch home, where varicolored lights had been strung for the occasion, illuminating as well as adding a festive note to the gay party of young people.

Chaperones were Mrs. Brattain and Mrs. Raymond E. Van Wormer. The former also assisted with general arrangements and the latter was in charge of the barbecue part of the refreshments.

Enjoying the evening from outside points were Dorothy and Kathy Peterson of Sebastopol, visiting here with their parents at the home of their uncle, aunt and family, the Edwin Scotts; Cheryl and Carol Ohlund, Linda Freid, Kim and Darrell Hale, all of Chiloquin; Gwen Fitzpatrick of Tulana Farms. In addition to the three hostesses, the following were present from Fort Klamath: Margo Feezer, Roberta Latzy, Kenneth and Wayne Scott, Kim and Randy Kizer, Jim Bridge, Lynn Hessecock, David and Tom Van Wormer and Douglas Brattain.
