

Koufax Whips Cards; Wynn Fails In Bid For 300th Victory

Dodgers Gaining On NL Leaders

By United Press International
Sandy Koufax' left index finger has come around so well that he now uses it to form a circle with his thumb.

That's the sign everything is perfect again and it also could be a sign the Los Angeles Dodgers are on the way to their first National League pennant since 1959.

Koufax' finger probably cost the Dodgers the pennant last year when a circulatory ailment in it forced the left-handed fast baller to the sidelines during July.

But the digit doesn't seem to be bothering him now and if there's any question about it, Koufax can point to his record of 11 victories against only three defeats.

He pitched the Dodgers within a game-and-a-half of first place Friday night when he beat the St. Louis Cardinals 5-3 for his fourth victory in a row.

Koufax struck out nine and had a four-hit shutout going until the ninth when a single, a walk and Tim McCarver's two-out homer brought reliever Ron Perranoski in from the bullpen to get the final out.

Bill Skowron singled home two runs in the first inning off loser Curt Simmons (7-3) and after the Dodgers added another run in the seventh, Tommy Davis drilled a two-run homer in the eighth for what proved to be the decisive margin.

The Cardinals, however, still retained their half-game hold on first place when the Milwaukee Braves beat the second-place San Francisco Giants 6-3. Cincinnati made it four in a row with a 3-0 win over Houston, the New York Mets defeated the Philadelphia Phillies 3-1, and the Chicago Cubs beat the Pittsburgh Pirates 6-5, in 10 innings.

The Braves were held to three hits by the Giants but still won despite Orlando Cepeda's 13th and 14th homers. Milwaukee clinched the game with six runs in the fifth. Joe Torre's homer and Lee Maye's three-run triple were the key blows. Tony Cloninger was the winner and Bob Bolen the loser.

Jim Maloney gained his 11th victory for the Reds with a four-hitter over the Colts. Loner Ken Johnson matched Maloney until the eighth when the Reds rallied for all their runs.

The Mets managed only four hits against the Phillies but capitalized on two Philadelphia misplays to beat Cal McLish. Frank Thomas double home two runs in the sixth following an error by third baseman Don Demeter, and the Mets scored again in the seventh when Roy Sievers neglected to cover first base. Al Jackson hurled a seven-hitter and had two hits himself.

Andre Rodgers' single with the bases full in the 10th against the Pirates gave the Cubs their fourth straight victory. Don Elston was credited with his third.

Big Six Concludes Meet Without Making Decisions

CARMEL, Calif. (UPI)—Big Six officials concluded their spring meeting Saturday without making any historic decisions, but with a surprising showing of unity.

Just about everything was "unanimous" when it came to voting and there was no friction on anything.

The leaders even agreed that they would support the United States Track and Field Federation 100 per cent in its battle for control of amateur athletes with the national A.A.U.

"We are behind all the federations strongly," said retiring President Dr. Bradford Booth.

The other federations tangling with the Amateur Athletic Union are in baseball, basketball and gymnastics.

The council even agreed that Oregon and Oregon State are "making progress" in bringing their educational standards up to the level of those at Big Six schools—and thus some day may be eligible for admittance, if they want it.

At the closing session Friday, Dr. Rixford Snyder of Stanford was named the council president.

Stan Bates, Washington State athletic director, was named secretary, and Pete Newell, California athletic director, was re-elected to a two-year term as treasurer.

Among the items approved during the four days of sessions, was a petition to the NCAA asking it to use a regional blackout when a college football game is being televised nationally.

The Big Six also wants all its schools to enter a team in every conference sport. Most of them triumph while Joe Gibbon suffered his fifth setback.

Los Angeles
Gets Track Meet

ST. LOUIS (UPI)—Los Angeles was awarded the 1964 United States-Russia track meet Saturday.

This will be the sixth dual meet between the two nations, the series having been inaugurated in Moscow in 1953. This year's meet will also be in Moscow, July 20-21.

The meet will be held in the Memorial Coliseum under sponsorship of the Los Angeles Times. Charities in cooperation with the Southern Pacific Association of the AAU and in cooperation with the United States Department of State.

THREE ENDS AGREE
SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—One thing the San Francisco Forty-Niners will not lack this season is an offensive end. Veteran pass catchers Clyde Conner, Monte Stickles, and Bernie Casey have all returned their signed contracts, and join highly regarded rookie Hugh Campbell, who is already in the fold.

MIXED EMOTIONS—The combination of pictures shows mixed emotions in the Cleveland and Chicago dressing rooms in Cleveland. Top, Cleveland Indians' pitcher Early Wynn, bidding for his 300th win, sits dejectedly as he talks with reporters after the game. Bottom, the spurs are White Sox Ron Hansen, left, and pitcher Juan Pizarro. Hansen hit a two-run homer in the ninth inning and Pizarro pitched a six-hit shutout. Wynn, who just came to the Tribe from the White Sox, tried for the fourth time to notch his 300th win. He lost 2-0.

The one-time scoring leader of the Missouri Valley Conference was the Lakers' second draft choice.

Spokane Pitcher Blanks Padres

By RON SUPINSKI
United Press International

Spokane pitcher Howie Reed was thinking today how he'd like to follow former teammate Nick Willitte to a warmer climate down South—say in the vicinity of Dodger Stadium, Los Angeles.

The 26-year-old right-hander won his eleventh game for the Dodgers farm club Friday night. He blanked the normally heavy hitting San Diego Padres 2-0 on three hits. Reed has lost four times.

A former Padre, Reed has been up three times with the Kansas City Athletics of the American League. He had his best season in organized ball last year when he won 12 and lost 8 with Spokane.

Lowest ERA

He had the fourth lowest earned run average (3.01) in the Pacific Coast League last season and PCL managers say he has the best change-of-pace pitch in the league. Reed now has an ERA of about 2.79 plus two 1983 shutouts.

In other cities, Denver nipped Oklahoma City 3-1 in 10 innings, Tacoma erupted for four runs in the 10th inning to down Seattle 9-5 and home runs by Stan Palys, Ron Samford and Bobbie Knop helped Hawaii whip Dallas-Ft. Worth 5-1 behind Roy Moeller's six-hitter.

For the second night in a row, rain forced postponement of a game at Portland. This time Salt Lake City was washed out.

Moeller went the route for Hawaii in notching his third win against two setbacks. The only run he allowed was unearned as the Islander infield collapsed for three errors in the first inning. Ranger Marv Mecklenburg, former Stanford hurler who entered the Hawaii series with a 6-1 record, suffered his third loss. All three Hawaii home runs were with the bases empty.

A bases-empty homer by Dick Bernardino helped Reed defeat Padre starter and loser Ted Wills (6-3) who also went the route, allowing the Indians six hits. With the exception of the four runs, he allowed no Spokane runner past first base.

In the fifth inning, the Indians scored their second run on a double by Ken McMullen and a single by Bart Shirley. Reed gave up singles to Padre batters in the fourth, sixth and ninth innings. He allowed only one runner as far as second base.

Comeback Victory

PERFECT PITCHING
Only perfect game in World Series history was when Don Larsen threw only 97 pitches for the New York Yankees against the Brooklyn Dodgers on Oct. 8, 1956.

Old Warhorse Brilliant In Losing

By United Press International
Early Wynn didn't win his 300th but he did win the right to try again.

"It's entirely up to him when he'll pitch again," said Cleveland manager Birdie Tebbetts after the 43-year-old veteran lost a 2-0 heartbreaker Friday night to his former Chicago White Sox teammates.

"He pitched a remarkable game, all things considered," Tebbetts said. "I'd like him to go again as soon as possible. I don't want him to lose his sharpness."

Outwardly calm but inwardly crushed after failing to notch his 300th victory in his initial comeback try, Wynn quipped "it isn't the end of the world, gents," even if it must have felt like it to him.

Signed Three Weeks Ago
The veteran right-hander, signed by the Indians three weeks ago after being cut loose by the White Sox last fall and failing to regain a berth with them this spring, puffed and perspired through a scoreless eighth-inning duel with Juan Pizarro Friday night.

Wynn held the White Sox to six hits until Floyd Robinson opened the ninth with his third single of the game and moved around to third on a passed ball and a sacrifice.

Calling on all his craftiness,

Bend Man Put In Game Office

SALEM (UPI)—J. Pat Metke of Bend was appointed to a five-year term on the Oregon Game Commission by Gov. Mark Hatfield Friday.

Metke, a former state representative, will succeed Rollin Bowles of Portland, whose term expires July 17.

DRIVERS WATCH HAUGHTON

NEW YORK (UPI)—The nation's leading harness drivers are beginning to cast a wary eye over their shoulders in the direction of Billy Haughton.

Haughton rose from sixth to fourth place in the latest figures released by the Harness Racing Institute after a slow start. His 56 wins trail Donald Busse (8), William Gilmore (78), and Jack Bailey (60).

Wynn's Rap On 300 Club Door Louder

CLEVELAND (UPI)—Early Wynn is still standing outside the exclusive club 300 but his knock is getting louder.

Wynn made another unsuccessful attempt Friday night—his fourth—to become the 14th major league pitcher to win 300 games. But he came close.

The 43-year-old right-hander hurled eight scoreless innings against the Chicago White Sox, his former teammates, but lost 2-0 when Ron Hansen belted a two-run homer in the ninth.

Wynn, disappointed but not discouraged, said he expects to have even more going for him the next time out.

"I felt I had good stuff tonight but I'm really out in shape yet," Wynn said. "I've come along faster than I expected but it will take a few more weeks before I get in the shape I want to be in."

Wynn, who threw a lively fast ball and a sharp curve, expects to be ready for another try "in about four or five days."

He may pitch in Chicago next weekend and that's fine with him. "I guess it's pride or something but I'd like to win number 300 against the White Sox."

Wynn, who helped Chicago to the pennant in 1959, was cut loose by the Sox after the end of last season after failing three times to gain the milestone victory. He went to spring training with the club, however, and looked good. But Chicago declined to sign him again.

He returned to his home at Venice, Fla., and stayed there until the Indians gave him the call June 4 and has been working since.

NISCHWITZ SENT DOWN

CLEVELAND (UPI)—The Cleveland Indians Friday sent southpaw relief specialist Ron Nischwitz to Jacksonville of the International League to make room on the roster for veteran Wynn, the 43-year-old pitcher.
