

Giants Take Lead In Win Over Cards; Chisox Defeat Yanks

Perranoski Leads Dodgers Again

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

The good professors must pass out rubber arms along with the diplomas at Michigan State University.

Exhibit A is Dick Radatz of the Boston Red Sox—the American League's relief pitching marvel. And Exhibit B is Ron Perranoski of the Los Angeles Dodgers—perhaps the No. 1 relief ace in the National League.

Both attended Michigan State in the late 1950s and then went on to careers in big league baseball. Radatz is a huge right-hander and Perranoski a slim left-hander but both get the job done in remarkable fashion.

Perranoski, sometimes overlooked because of the presence of Don Drysdale and Sandy Kousser on the Los Angeles staff, has compiled a 7-2 record. He's relieved in the Dodgers' last five games, pitching a total of nine innings without allowing a run.

The 26-year-old native of Paterson, N.J., hustled out of the bullpen for the fifth straight game Monday night and pitched two scoreless innings to preserve a 5-4 victory over the Cincinnati Reds that lifted the Dodgers to within one game of the National League lead. His airtight hurling also enabled the Dodgers to end the Reds' seven-game winning streak.

Drysdale, battling to stay over .500 this year after his 25-9 record in 1962, pitched a no-hitter for five innings and a two-hit shutout for seven before he suddenly lost his stuff. Perranoski yielded two hits but pitched his way out of the jam and then closed out the game in the ninth.

Willie Davis homered after walks by Maury Wills and Jim Gilliam in the third inning and the Dodgers added a fourth run in the frame on singles by Tommy my Davis, Wally Moon and Ron Fairly. Joey Jay was the victim of the rally and suffered his 11th loss against three victories.

The San Francisco Giants regained the NL lead with a 4-3 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals and the Milwaukee Braves defeated the Houston Colts, 3-0, in other National League games.

Juan Marichal went 6-2-3 in his first game since he took over to win his 12th game for the Giants, who scored all their runs off Lew Burdette in the first inning. Chuck Hiller and Jim Davenport had two hits each for the Giants and Julian Javier homered for the Cardinals.

Denver Lemaster pitched a four-hitter and struck out six as the Braves extended the Colts' losing streak to nine straight games. Lee Maye and Eddie Mathews homered for the Braves. The Colts, who went 40 innings without scoring a run before they tallied one in the second game of a doubleheader Sunday now have gone 16 more without denting home plate.

Major League Results
By United Press International
National League
Los Angeles 614 000 000—5 7 0
Cincinnati 000 000 040—4 6 0
Drysdale, Perranoski (8) and Camilli, Jay, Owens (3), Zanni (7), Worthington (9), Henry (9) and Edwards, Winner—Drysdale (9-8). Loser—Jay (3-11). HR—W. Davis.

Houston 000 000 090—0 4 0
Milwaukee 000 111 000—3 6 0
Brown, McMahon (7), and Bateman, Lemaster (4-3), HR—Torre, Loser—Brown (1-4). HR—Maye, Mathews.

San Francisco 400 000 000—4 7 0
St. Louis 000 020 010—3 9 2
Marichal, Pierce (7) and Bailey, Burdette, Bauta (8) and McCarver, Winner—Marichal (12-3). Loser—Burdette (7-6). HR—Javier.

(Only games scheduled)
American League
Baltimore 000 130 000—4 12 1
Minnesota 230 000 010—6 10 1
Pappas, Stock (4), Miller (8), Burdette, Bauta (8) and Cant, Dailley (8) and Batey, Winner—Kast (7-6). Loser—Pappas (5-4). HR—Brandt.

Cleveland 000 003 200—5 10 0
Boston 101 102 000—7 9 0
Bell, Walker (7) and Azcue, Heffner, Lamabe (7) and Nixon, Winner—Lamabe (3-0). Loser—Walker (6-2). HR—Schilling, Clinton, Kirkland, Geiger.

Detroit 000 000 000—3 9 1
Kansas City 002 200 020—6 8 0
Moss, Sturdivant (4), Aguirre (6) and Freehan, Rakow, Wyatt (8) and Sullivan, Winner—Rakow (7-5). Loser—Moss (4-5). HR—Bruton, Del Greco, Harrelson.

New York 010 000 100—2 6 0
Chicago 010 400 000—5 7 1
Downing, Hamilton (6), Williams (7) and Howard, Burdett, Wilhelm (8) and Carreon, Martin (8). Winner—Burdett (9-3). Loser—Downing (2-1). HR—Maris, Ward.

Washington 001 010 000—2 6 0
Los Angeles 000 000 030—3 7 0
Osteen, Kline (8) and Landrith, Turley, Spring (6), Lee (6), Fowler (7), Navarro (9) and Foiles, E. Sadowski (9). Winner—Fowler (2-0). Loser—Osteen (1-6). HR—King, Foiles.

Herald and News SPORTS

PAGE 10 Tuesday, June 25, 1963
HERALD AND NEWS, Klamath Falls, Oregon

Sugar Ray May Retire After Lopsided Defeat

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Sugar Ray Robinson planned to announce today whether he would retire because of last night's lopsided beating by middleweight contender Joey Giardello at Convention Hall here.

Giardello of Philadelphia, third ranking contender, floored 43-year-old Ray in the fourth round, had him reeling in the sixth and holding on in the seventh as Joey won a unanimous 10-round decision.

A near-capacity crowd of 8,508, which paid an estimated $50,000, roared encouragement to Robinson—the former welterweight champion and record five-time middleweight ruler—in the seventh and eighth rounds when Ray rallied magnificently. But he ran out of gas again in the ninth and 10th.

The defeat broke Ray's winning string at five bouts. Giardello, 32, who expects his victory to bring him a title fight in October or November, said he felt sorry for New Yorker Robinson.

"He was a great champion," Joey declared, "but it's a shame his reflexes are gone now." Giardello, weighing 160½ pounds to Robinson's 158½, started after Ray with a combination hooking attack to body and head in the first round and kept after him in every round to curtail his punching power.

A left hook to the chin floored Robinson for a count of nine about midway in the fourth round. And Ray apparently was saved by the bell from going down again in the sixth round. Despite the battering, Robinson had only a slight nick on his left brow at the finish.

The three ring officials favored Giardello on a five-point-must basis as follows: Referee Buck Tiersan, 49-43; Judge Bob Polio, 47-43; and Judge Lou Press, 48-45.

Track Entries List 19

CORVALLIS, Ore. (UPI)—Meet director Sam Bell said today that 19 entries had been received for the National A.A.U. Decathlon meet to be held Friday and Saturday.

He said that last Saturday was the mailing deadline, but that he would accept any entry postmarked then that came in the mail in the next day or two.

Bell was especially hoping still to hear from Phil Mulkey, former Memphis State cinder star and one of the United States' best in the triathlon event.

The withdrawal of world record holder C. K. Yang in order to tour Europe with a Nationalist Chinese team has turned the competition into a wide-open scramble but four names seemed to loom above the rest.

There was Paul Herman, 1961 title holder with a high of 8061 points; Steve Pauly with a best of 7226 and the advantage of competing on his own track; Dave Edstrom, Kansas Relays Decathlon king this year with a high of 8176; and Mulkey, who piled up 8709 points in 1961.

Not only is the national title at stake here, but the top two finishers will earn the coveted trip to Europe and the chance to compete in the forthcoming U.S.-USSR track meet.

Friday's events include the 100 meters, broad jump, shot put, high jump and 400 meters. Saturday will see the pole vault, 110 meter high hurdles, discus, javelin and 1500 meters.

The meet will be scored according to traditional point-counting methods, despite impending moves by the International Amateur Athletic Federation to revise scoring tables downward. The totals can then be changed if the federation acts officially.

Emeralds Bomb Loop Leaders

By United Press International
Eugene hasn't had many chances to crow in the Northwest League last year but it did Monday night.

The last-place Emeralds bopped league-leading Lewiston 10-1 and their ace pitcher, Bruce Howard, came fairly close to pitching a no-hitter.

Howard had a perfect game going until the seventh when Hoss Bowlin led off with a double. The Broncs added two more bingles during the inning for their lone run. The game was called at the end of the seventh because of rain.

Eugene wrapped it up as early as the third inning with a seven-run rally. The big blow of the frame was a grand-slam homer by Jim Lynn.

For Howard, it was his fifth victory against six losses. Tri-City had been scheduled to play at Salem but that one was rained out.

CURS RECALL LEMAY
CHICAGO (UPI)—Left-handed pitcher Dick Lemay has been recalled from Atlanta of the International League by the Chicago Cubs. The Cubs made room for Lemay by sending veteran infielder Ken Aspromonte to Salt Lake City of the Pacific Coast League on 24-hour recall.

ERROR ON MCCARVER — Cards' catcher Tim McCarver (15) loses the ball as it bounces off his glove and over his head while the Giants' Willie Mays slides home to score in the first inning in Cards-Giants game in St. Louis Monday. Mays came home from third on Ed Bailey's fly out to rightfielder George Altman who made a one bounce throw to McCarver. McCarver was charged with an error. Umpire Doug Harvey and Jim Davenport (12) watch action. Giants won, 4-3.

Klimchuck Leads Bears Past San Diego, 13-5

By CHARLES H. WILSON JR.
United Press International

If the Milwaukee Braves should decide they need another hitter, Lou Klimchuck is serving notice with his bat that he is ready and willing to give the major leagues another try.

The Braves have already given Klimchuck a couple of trials. Each time he has ended up in the minors—this year with the Denver Bears of the Pacific Coast League.

But Lou has been making a lot of noise with his bat lately, an indication that he might like another look at National League pitching. Take Monday night, for example.

Klimchuck smashed two 400-foot home runs, also hit a double and single, drove in four runs and extended his hitting streak to 14 games.

His hitting was almost all the Bears needed as they overwhelmed the San Diego Padres 13-5 with a 16-hit attack.

In the only other league action, Seattle and Salt Lake City split a doubleheader. The Rainiers captured the second game 5-2 behind the five-hit pitching of Guido Grilli after the Bees won the opener 8-3.

Klimchuck had to give a share of the spotlight Monday night to Ethan Blackaby and Bill Woodward. Blackaby took advantage of his blazing speed and stole home in the fifth inning.

Woodward, given a bonus to sign with Milwaukee from the Mets Ink Flock Of Youngsters

Florida State Campus, singled three times and drove in a run in his home debut with the Bears. Chi Chi Olivo pitched the distance despite 13 San Diego hits and recorded his seventh victory in 11 decisions.

A Padre victory would have put them in first place in the Northern Division, but the defeat dropped them into third place behind Dallas-Ft. Worth and Oklahoma City. It's that close.

Grilli made his first start for Seattle an impressive one. The little southpaw was in control all the way and made only one mistake, a fourth inning home run by Bill Cowan that spoiled his shut-out bid.

R. G. Smith gave Grilli a two-run lead in the first with a home run. Seattle picked up its other three runs in the fourth, with Grilli and Joe Pedrazzini contributing key doubles.

Seattle's starter and loser Pete Smith had no one to blame but himself for the Rainiers' defeat in the first game. Salt Lake City capitalized on Smith's wildness to score five runs in the third inning and break a 3-3 tie.

Smith forced two of the runs across the plate with walks and issued two other free passes to set up the Bees' other three runs.

Al Lory went the distance for Salt Lake City and evened his season's record at 6-6. He allowed just seven hits and all three Seattle runs were unearned.

Monday's Results
Los Angeles 5 Cincinnati 4 (night)
Milwaukee 3 Houston 0 (night)
San Francisco 4 St. Louis 3 (night)

(Only games scheduled)
Tuesday's Probable Pitchers
San Francisco at St. Louis (night)—Bolin (12-2) vs. Sadecki (4-4).
Philadelphia at Pittsburgh (night)—Mahaney (3-0) vs. Francis (3-2).
Los Angeles at Cincinnati (night)—Koufax (11-3) vs. O'Toole (13-3).

Houston at Milwaukee (night)—Johnson (3-9) vs. Cloninger (2-4).
Chicago at New York (night)—L. Jackson (8-6) vs. Hook (3-7).
Wednesday's Games
Philadelphia at Pittsburgh (night)
Los Angeles at Cincinnati (night)
Houston at Milwaukee (night)
San Francisco at St. Louis (night)

American League
W. L. Pct. GB
New York 40 25 .615 —
Chicago 42 29 .592 1
Boston 36 29 .554 4
Minnesota 37 32 .536 5
Cleveland 36 32 .529 5½
Baltimore 37 33 .514 6½
Los Angeles 37 36 .507 7
Kansas City 32 36 .471 9½
Detroit 27 40 .403 14
Washington 22 32 .297 22½

Monday's Results
Minnesota 6 Baltimore 4
Chicago 3 New York 2 (night)
Kansas City 6 Detroit 3 (night)
Boston 7 Cleveland 5 (night)
Los Angeles 3 Washington 2 (night)

Tuesday's Probable Pitchers
Cleveland at Boston (2, tw. night)—Donovan (4-4) and McDowell (3-4) vs. Monbouquette (10-4) and Morehead (4-3).
New York at Chicago (night)—Terry (7-7) vs. Pizarro (8-3).
Baltimore at Los Angeles (night)—Roberts (5-7) vs. Chance (1-6).
Washington at Kansas City (night)—Stenhouse (3-7) vs. Segui (2-2).

Wednesday's Games
Washington at Kansas City (night)
Detroit at Minnesota (night)
New York at Chicago (night)
Cleveland at Boston (night)

White Sox Haven't Lost To Yankees

By United Press International

The Chicago White Sox have come up with a number for which American League teams searched for years — the Yankees' number.

It's an old Yankee tradition to play their best against their chief rivals — to knock off the contenders themselves.

The defending world champions may eventually get around to doing just that this season but they'll have to make up for lost time. Here it is almost the halfway mark of the season and they've yet to score a victory over the White Sox!

The White Sox made it three in a row for the season Monday night when Johnny Buzhardt and Hoyt Wilhelm combined in a six-hitter that gave them a 5-2 victory over the Yankees. The win was the White Sox' fourth in their last five games and boosted them to within one game of first-place New York.

Yankee Nemesis
Buzhardt, a low fast ball pitcher whom the White Sox acquired from the Philadelphia Phillies in 1961, has now beaten the Yankees four straight times over the last two seasons. He yielded five hits in seven innings Monday night to raise his overall season record to 9-3.

Catcher Camilo Carreon's three-run double off Al Downing was the big blow of a four-run fourth-inning rally and Pete Ward weighed in with his ninth homer and a single to extend his hitting streak to 18 games. A crowd of 42,748 in Chicago saw Downing suffer his first loss after two wins.

The Minnesota Twins bent the Baltimore Orioles, 6-4, the Boston Red Sox defeated the Cleveland Indians, 7-5, the Los Angeles Angels nipped the Washington Senators, 3-2, and the Kansas City Athletics downed the Detroit Tigers, 6-3, in other American League action.

Pace Twins' Attack
Zoilo Versalles' triple, doubles by Jim Kaat and Vic Power and singles by Power and Bob Allison were the big blows of a 10-hit Minnesota attack. Kaat went 7-1-3 in his seventh win with Bill Dailey, making his seventh relief appearance in nine days, finishing up.

Gary Giger's two-run ninth-inning homer enabled Red Sox reliever Jack Lamabe to win his third game after the Indians had tied the score in the seventh on a two-run homer by Willie Kirkland. Chuck Schilling and Lou Clinton also homered for the Red Sox while Kirkland had three hits for the Indians.

Jim Fregosi's single scored Ed Sadowski and capped a three-run game-winning Angel rally in the eighth after Claude Osteen had pitched a two-hit shutout for seven innings for the Senators. Hank Folles sparked the rally with a homer, and other key hits were singles by Lee Thomas, Sadowski and Albie Pearson. Relief pitcher Art Fowler won his second game for the Angels.

Bobby Del Greco and Ken Harrelson hit two-run homers to offset one by Bill Bruton and enable Ed Rakow to win his seventh game for Kansas City. John Wyatt shut out the Tigers for the last 1-23 innings, striking out three. Norm Cash had three hits for Detroit.

Aaronson Asks Liston Be Checked

MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—Local boxing commission chairman Fred Aaronson wants the World Boxing Association to make sure that Sonny Liston, who cancelled his fight here due to a knee injury, is fit to fight Floyd Patterson in Las Vegas next month.

Aaronson explained that the big heavyweight champion of the world is still carried on the Miami Beach commission record as "ill and unavailable" and that he should be formally released from this status by the commission here before being allowed to fight elsewhere.

Liston was scheduled to fight Patterson for the championship here in April, but injured his knee and the match was off.

Aaronson said Monday that Liston is not under any obligation now to fight here, but that "it seems only right that if a fighter withdraws from a fight in one town because of an injury, that injury should be certified as cured before he fights in another WBA town."

He said both Miami Beach and Las Vegas are members of the WBA.

Byron Nelson won 19 tournaments on the PGA Tour in 1945, for a record no other golfer in history has ever approached.

Five Yanks Make First Round Cut

WIMBLEDON, England (UPI)—Chuck McKinley of St. Ann, Mo., the only seeded American in the men's singles, and eight other Yanks will attempt to catch up with the field today in the Wimbledon tennis championships.

Five Americans, led by Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., won first round matches and six Yanks were eliminated before rain washed out nearly half of the opening-day schedule Monday.

McKinley, a 22-year-old student at Trinity (Tex.) University who was seeded fourth for this largest tennis "world series," drew South African Davis Cupper Cliff Drysdale as his opening opponent.

Frank Froehling of Coral Gables, Fla., second behind McKinley in the current U.S. rankings, was pitted against seventh-ranked Donald Dell of Bethesda, Md., in an all-American opener.

Veteran Herb Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif., Bill Hoogs of Berkeley, Calif., Ed Rubinoff of Miami Beach, Fla., and Jack Frost of Monterey, Calif., joined Ralston in the second round.

The Yanks chased to the sidelines on opening day were ancient Gardner Mulley of New York, Bill Bond of La Jolla, Calif., Ron Fisher of Houston, Tex., Allen Fox of Los Angeles, Jim McManus of Berkeley, Calif., and Bill Lenoir of Tucson, Ariz.

SUGAR RAY NEAR LINE'S END — Middleweight contender Joey Giardello of Philadelphia floors 43-year-old Sugar Ray Robinson on the fourth round of their match Monday night. Giardello gave Robinson the worst beating of his career as he won a unanimous 10-round decision that may move him toward an autumn title fight. It may have finished Robinson's long career. — UPI Telephoto

ing of his career as he won a unanimous 10-round decision that may move him toward an autumn title fight. It may have finished Robinson's long career. — UPI Telephoto

People Read
● SPOT ADS
— you are now.