

Labor Party Increases Pressure On Macmillan

LONDON (UPI) — The Labor party increased its pressure on Prime Minister Harold Macmillan today for his handling of the Profumo case which threatens to become an international sex-and-spy scandal.

Striptease Charge Made

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Senate subcommittee has charged that a U.S. entertainer's union helped lure Canadian girls to the United States for striptease jobs in "vice dives" where they were held under 24-hour guard and forced into prostitution.

The Senate investigations subcommittee, in a report Tuesday on its 1962 probe of the American Guild of Variety Artists (AGVA), said the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service tightened its rules last year to thwart the racket.

The subcommittee said the Paramount Entertainment Bureau of Montreal, a booking agency franchised by the AGVA, had signed up a number of girls in 1957 for work under "shocking and unbelievable" conditions in U.S. strip clubs.

MIGHTY MAC

DANVILLE, Va. (UPI) — Mac Main stands only five-seven and weighs about 170 pounds, but he is known for his booming tee shots along the pro tournament trail. He once finished second in a driving contest to Mike Souchak, the all-time champion driver.

Bill Vetoes By Hatfield

SALEM (UPI) — A measure requiring the Legislative Counsel Committee to review all rules of state agencies was one of two bills vetoed Tuesday by Gov. Mark Hatfield.

The governor said the bill "abandons traditional concepts of separation of powers and responsibilities."

He said the bill "provides an unnecessary further subjugation of the executive and judicial branches to the legislature."

The measure called for a review of agency rules to determine whether they were within the intent of the legislature.

Government Of Ireland Near Upset

DUBLIN, Ireland (UPI) — Ireland almost didn't have a government to greet President Kennedy today.

With hundreds of thousands of Irishmen and visitors waiting to cheer Kennedy during a sentimental journey to the land of his ancestors, parliament came within one vote of upsetting the apple cart.

Two independent politicians saved the day for Premier Sean Lemass' government.

Tuesday night, on the eve of Kennedy's arrival from Berlin, the government squeaked through a 72-71 victory in a parliamentary vote of confidence on a sales tax bill. The two independents joined the 70 members of Lemass' Fianna Fail party.

Had Lemass lost, his government would have collapsed just hours before the American President stepped off the plane for his three-day visit.

Ireland expected its biggest crowds in its history to welcome Kennedy this afternoon.

Kennedy will meet President Eamon de Valera, the 80-year-old Brooklyn-born revolutionary hero, and Premier Lemass; visit his family's homestead—now a tin-roofed shack near New Ross; receive the freedom of five cities, and become the first foreigner to address a joint session of the Dail (parliament).

Although Kennedy's visit to Ireland will be the least political of his European tour, most Irishmen confidently expect it to be the high spot of his trip.

Port Closed

BOMBAY, India (UPI) — A strike by tugboat crews paralyzed this port today as 16 ships, mostly bringing grain from the United States and military equipment from Britain, were scheduled to dock.

The crews struck for more pay and a permanent agency to settle disputes with port management.
