

Falcons Edge Cheney Studs, 6-2; Hawks Humble Gems, 15-2

Jay Paxton and Dave Johnson backed up Gary Benson's brilliant three-hit pitching performance Tuesday night with some heavy hitting as the Klamath Falcons used two extra innings to topple the Cheney Studs, 6-2, while the Klamath Hawks were at Gem Stadium drubbing the Tri-City Gems, 15-2, in American Legion games.

The victory kept the Falcons on top and gave them sole possession of that spot at least temporarily. The Falcons now have a 6-1 league record in the Southern Division area while Medford is second at 5-1. Medford was idle. The Hawks built their record to 3-4 while Tri-City is at 2-6 now. The loss dealt the Cheney Studs their third loss against four wins. The Hawks will travel to Medford tonight for another league encounter.

The Falcon - Cheney Studs game was originally slated for seven innings and the affair went into an overtime with the Falcons winning. Gary Benson was in fine form with his three-hitter, but he needed it. The Falcons got only five hits off three Central Point pitchers and all five of those off the bats of Paxton and Johnson. Paxton had three singles to drive in two runs and Johnson slammed a pair of doubles to plate the other three.

Larry Pepper started for Central Point and was the loser. He was lifted for Clark Mason in the ninth and he was taken out in the ninth for Wayne Clay. The three of them struck out 15 Falcon batters while Benson mowed down 10 in his winning effort.

Neither team could get a real threat going until the third. The Studs had a runner to second in the second frame and the Falcons had Paxton on first in the second. Cheney broke the game open in the third with a pair of runs.

Lou Alvarez led off with a walk, stole second and took third on Neil Rivenburg's single. Alvarez scored on a passed ball which was careening off the concrete backstop and Rivenburg ended up at third. He scored on an error for the second run.

The Studs threatened again in the fourth with a hit batsman, a single and a bases on balls. But Paxton picked the first runner off trying to steal second and Benson knuckled down and got the next two batters out.

The Falcons finally came to life in the fifth to knot the game. Paxton singled and scored when Johnson slammed his first triple. He scored on a balk by Pepper. The two clubs fought back and forth until the ninth when the Falcons broke it up.

Lexoy Young grounded out hit

Lanny Guyer walked. Larry Binney grounded out for the second out to put Guyer on second. John Parisotto walked and Paxton singled them both home. John Gray walked and up came Johnson again and tagged his second triple to drive the final two runs across. Benson got the Studs out in order in the bottom of the ninth.

The Hawks tallied their runs batsman and another pair of walks pushed the runs across for the Gems.

Couch Irv Whitte used 13 plays in the game for the Hawks.

Cardinals Defeat Giants Again To Regain Lead

By United Press International

Jim Gilliam seems to be called "Junior" and so his Los Angeles Dodgers teammates refer to him simply as "the cool man."

No nickname could be more appropriate for a fellow who takes the world in stride. He's played in at least 144 games in every year he's been with the Dodgers since 1953, and yet every spring it seems he has to win his job all over again from some highly-touted newcomer.

Comes the middle of a hot pennant race, however, and Gilliam is not only in the lineup day in and day out but also delivers the clutch hits that win important games. The kids who thought they had him beat out of a job in the spring read about "em in the newspapers of minor league towns.

The National League pennant race is about as hot as it can get and so it's no surprise that Gilliam is red-hot. The Dodgers have won four straight games and Gilliam has delivered the game-winning blow in three of 'em, including Wednesday night when his two-run eighth-inning double sparked Los Angeles to a 5-2 victory over the Cincinnati Reds. The victory completed a Dodge sweep of a three-game series — the first time they won three in a row in Cincinnati since 1953.

Left-handed relief ace Ron Perranoski shut out the Reds for the last 2-3 innings to win his eighth game against two losses. Jim Maloney, seeking his 12th win, struck out 11 batters and went into the eighth inning with a 2-2 tie but a walk to Perranoski and Gordie Coleman's wild throw on a sacrifice attempt set the stage for Gilliam's big blow.

The victory enabled the Dodgers to remain a half-game behind the first-place St. Louis Cardinals, who topped the San Francisco Giants, 6-5. The Houston Colts beat the Milwaukee Braves, 7-2, in 13 innings, the Philadelphia Phillies downed the Pittsburgh Pirates, 6-2, and the New York Mets defeated the Chicago Cubs, 8-6, in other National League games.

Boyer Paces Cards

Charlie James singled home George Altman with the winning run for the Cardinals. Bobby Shantz pitched to only one batter but picked up his third win. Ken Boyer drove in four runs with a homer and two singles for the Cardinals while Orlando Cepeda homered and Joe Amalfitano had three hits for the Giants.

Carl Warwick started the Colts' game-winning 11th-inning rally with his fourth single of the night and scored the tie-breaking run on Bob Lillis' single. The Colts, who snapped a 10-game losing streak, went on to add four runs and sew up Hal Woodeshick's seventh win. The Colts ended a string of 30 consecutive scoreless innings when Al Spangler homered in the sixth. Frank Bolling had three hits for the Braves.

Cal McLish pitched a six-hitter to win his sixth game for the Phillies and deal Pittsburgh's Bob Friend his third defeat against nine wins. McLish, Johnny Callison, Tony Gonzalez and Frank Torre had two hits each in the Phillies' attack while Donn Clemen and Bill Virdon had two hits each for the Pirates.

"Tim Harkness' grand slam homer with two out in the bottom of the 14th inning lifted the Mets to their third victory in four games after the Cubs went ahead, 6-4, on a two-run, inside-the-park homer by Billy Williams in the top of the inning. A total of 12 pitchers saw action during the four-hour and nine-minute struggle.

Yankees Garner One-Game Lead In Junior Circuit

By United Press International

Little man, what now?

It's a good question American Leagueers ask about Albie Pearson, the pint-sized outfielder who performs beryleous feats for the Los Angeles Angels.

Five-foot, 5-inch, 141-pound Albie is a cinch to be one of the American League's starting outfielders in this year's All-Star Game because if his rivals can overlook his tiny physique they can't overlook his .313 average.

But what's more important to the Angels, struggling to surge back into the thick of the American League pennant race, is that 28-year-old Albie from Alhambra, Calif., delivers when the team needs it most.

Like Wednesday night when the Angels whipped the Baltimore Orioles, 3-1 and 3-2, in a two-night doubleheader and vaulted past Cleveland and Baltimore into fifth place, 6½ games off the lead. Pearson singled and scored the Angels' first run of the opener and then tripled home the tying run in the eighth inning of the nightcap.

Wins First Start

Paul Foytack, making his first start since acquired from Detroit, went 8 1-3 innings to win the opener and then Ken McEride pitched a three-hitter and struck out seven to score his ninth victory in the second game.

The New York Yankees took a one-game grip on first place as they beat the Chicago White Sox, 3-2, the Minnesota Twins downed the Detroit Tigers, 6-1, and the Boston Red Sox nipped the Cleveland Indians, 6-5, in other American League action. Washington at Kansas City was rained out.

Bob Rodgers homered for the Angels in the first game and Leon Wagner hit No. 16 of the season and his first at home for Los Angeles. Pearson, who's had his ups and downs since winning the AL rookie of the year award in 1958, is batting .313 with 82 hits and 37 runs scored.

First Of Season

The Yankees beat the White Sox for the first time this season after four straight losses with the help of homers by Roger Maris and Tom Tresh. It was No. 16 of the year for Sir Roger, and Tresh also contributed a double to the Yankees' seven-hit attack on Gary Peters and Jim Brosnan. Whitey Ford, aided by Hal Reniff in the last 2-1-3 innings, got his 11th win of the season against three defeats.

Bob Allison of the Twins hit a pair of homers to take over the

THREE TRACK ACES ARE ADDED

EUGENE (UPI) — Three more stars have been added for the Oregon AAU Track and Field championships here next Wednesday and Thursday.

Meet Director Bob Newland said 440-yard ace Uli Williams, and Adolph Plummer and John Gilbert, runner-up to Bob Hayes in the national AAU 100-yard dash, would compete.

WINS EIGHTH GAME

"In the transit-mix business, most operators combine themselves to a 25-mile radius."

That's the way it was with us, until Dodge trucks helped us double our radius of operations to 50 miles. Since 1956 we've bought nothing but Dodges. Some are transit-mix units with six-yard, flywheel-driven mixers. Others are flatbeds that carry 540 cement blocks to a load. Figure those kind of loads in pounds, and you'll know what a great job they're doing for us, and very economically at that!

W. L. Riney Co., Hannibal, Missouri Dodge trucks have had many improvements in the past year. Each one helps make them tougher, more economical than ever before. Example: a new, more powerful Dodge-Perkins diesel engine in four medium-tonnage models. This engine has proved it can almost double fuel mileage in stop-and-go city delivery service. Now it develops 131 gross horsepower, 284 lbs./ft. gross torque. And remember, Job-Rated Dodge trucks are priced lower than most of competition, right in line with the rest. Your dependable Dodge truck dealer has a liberal new finance plan to tell you about. Ask him all about it.

McKinley Meets Art Ashe In Fourth Round Net Match

WIMBLEDON, England (UPI) — Two of the last six American survivors in the men's singles division of the Wimbledon tennis championships crossed rackets today when Chuck McKinley met Arthur Ashe in a fourth round match.

It figured to be an interesting battle despite the fact McKinley is ranked No. 1 and Ashe is 18th in the current American rankings.

Ashe, the first American Negro male ever to play at Wimbledon, is a fast-rising court star. In last week's U.S. NCAA championship at Princeton, N.J., he dropped a thrilling, five-set semifinal match to Dennis Ralston, the eventual champion, who was eliminated in the third round here Wednesday.

Frank Froehling of Coral Gables, Fla., Jack Frost of Monterey, Calif., and Tom Edleson of Los Angeles were the other Yanks from an original 20-man entry who reached today's fourth round.

Froehling was pitted against Australia's Bob Howe today. Frost plays Britain's R. Taylor, and Edleson meets Jan Erik Lundquist, veteran Swedish Davis Cupper.

The sixth U.S. survivor, Herb Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif., resumes his third round match against Adrian Bey of Rhodesia. It was deadlocked in the fifth set when darkness halted play Wednesday.

Five of the seven Americans remaining in the women's singles also were scheduled to play today.

Darlene Hard of Los Angeles plays Hedi Schultze of Germany. Carole Caldwell of Santa Monica, Calif., meets Miss N. Baylon of Argentina, and Billie Jean Moffitt of Long Beach, Calif., faces Lea Pericoli of Italy in third round matches.

TEE TALK

Friday's scheduled play for the women of Reamers Golf and Country Club will be a "Mystery Event." Pairings are as follows:

Third Tee—8:30 Edna Dakin, Arlene Cary, Jerry Smith, Kathy Stoeney; first tee—9:10 Eve Ashley, Pat Bradshaw, Jan Fern, Britta Franz; 9:20 Wilma Marvin, Margaret Larkin, Melba Gotshall; 9:30 Cecile Peyton, Bert Genter, Mary Holt; 9:40 Martha Bartlett, Wilma Wiley, Marlys O'Neill.

Winners of the Cricas Tournament of June 21 were—low gross, Yvonne Alford and Arlene Cary tied with 87 and low net, Agnes Beane with a 68.

GOLF EVENT ON TV

CLEVELAND (UPI) — The highlights of the final two rounds of the $10,000 Cleveland Open this weekend will be televised by Sports Network, Inc., to approximately 150 stations across the nation. Air time for Saturday's third round telecast is 5 to 6 p.m. EDT. Sunday's telecast will run from 5 to 6:30 p.m. EDT.

LIGHT HEAVIES MEET

PAISLEY, Scotland (UPI) — Chic Calderwood of Scotland and Eddie Cotton of Seattle, Wash., tangle tonight at the Paisley ice rink in a battle of top-ranking light heavyweights.

Cotton, the world's second-ranking contender, is aiming for another shot at the 175-pound crown. Calderwood is the British Empire champion.

NEW TRACK OPENS

WASHINGTON, Pa. (UPI) — The Meadows, the only track in the world with a synthetic weather-proof racing strip, has attracted the four leading money winning drivers of last year to the opening of its harness racing season Friday night.

The field for the $15,000 Arden Downs Stake features Billy Houghton, Stanley Dancer, George Sholly and Del Insko.
