

BASIN BRIEFS

NEW PINE CREEK LAKE COUNTRY CLUB was the scene of considerable activity when members and guests enjoyed a breakfast and social gathering Sunday morning. The golf course had been opened, and several tried it out despite an unfavorable wind which increased the hazards of the tricky course.

MR. AND MRS. DON BUTLER and family completed their move to Lakeview last weekend, where Butler has been in charge of the meat department at the Market for the past year.

MR. AND MRS. ALLAN SMITH of Portland visited last week at the ranch home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Smith. He is a student at the University of Oregon Dental School and his wife works in the office of the Georgia Pacific Corporation.

KALE SMITH, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Smith, suffered a freak accident last Saturday night. He fell out of bed in his sleep and broke his collarbone on the corner of the dresser. He now wears an uncomfortable jacket device to protect the break.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT GARMS and family returned Saturday from a 1,000-mile pleasure trip in the Cascade Mountains with their trailerhouse. They left Tuesday for Arizona.

A.I.C. RALPH AYOULT of William's Air Force Base, near Chandler, Ariz., is spending part of his leave visiting with his father, Joe Ayoault, and wife, Beth.

DANNY LEAHY recently spent a week with his cousin, Jack Kirkpatrick, and family in San Francisco. His cousin took him to many of the tourist attractions.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH held its annual program Friday night to mark the end of Bible School. The children, accompanied by Janet Faris, sang songs learned at the school and received the articles they had made at the Bible School sessions.

MR. AND MRS. RUSSELL ABENDROTH of Markesan, Wis., arrived Sunday at the Bill Allen home for a few days' visit. Markesan is the original home of the late John Larken, father of Mrs. Allen, who is the first cousin of Mrs. Abendroth. Before returning home, the Abendroths plan to visit Mary Larken in Long Beach, a sister of Bill and Edward Larken.

CARLENE COGBURN planned to leave Tuesday for Pendleton to visit her mother, Mrs. Townsend, after an extended visit here with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cogburn, and her father, Bill Cogburn, in Lakeview.

CHILQUIN
MRS. MARJORIE PARLOTT and her daughter, Florence Monroe, were weekend guests at the Gerald Wolff home before returning to their home in Mountain View, Calif. They lived in Chilquín during the 1961-62 school year.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES WARREN, Redding, stayed overnight here on their way to Alaska. They were former residents and have recently retired from their jobs as lumber mill bookkeeper and school teacher. They plan to be gone for over two months.

DENNIS HUBERT, Eugene, was a houseguest of Gerald Wolff this week. Hubert has been playing with the Babe Ruth team while in town.

OREGON PILOTS ASSOCIATION of Chilquín is having a fly-in breakfast at the Chilquín Airport on Sunday, June 30. Steak and eggs are to be served from 7 a.m. to 12 noon. Parachuting, flying contests, and other events will highlight the day's activities. All donations will go to the Chilquín Football Field.

CORWIN AND DAISY JUD had as weekend guests, Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Foster of Culver City. The two couples spent the weekend in Reno.

LIBRARY HOUR at the Chilquín Library will not be held on July 3 because of the holiday.
