

Luplow's Sensational Catch Controversial In Cleveland-Red Sox Game

White Sox Gain On Yankees In American League's Race

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sport's Writer

Cleveland outfielder Al Luplow was in the middle of baseball's latest controversy today and there's about as much hope of settling this one as there is of proving which came first, the chicken or the egg.

The only point everyone agrees on is that Luplow turned in the catch of the year Thursday when he flipped over a five-foot fence and landed in the Boston bullpen while snaring Dick Williams' 400-foot drive.

The Indians, who won the game, 6-4, called Luplow's fantastic seventh-inning catch one of the greatest in baseball history.

Some of the Red Sox went along with that, but to a man they insisted it was illegal because Luplow actually was outside the playing field at Fenway Park.

"As far as I know, the rules say you've got to be on the playing field," said Red Sox manager Johnny Pesky, who officially protested the game, believing that Williams was entitled to a home run.

Two Boston runners were on base at the time and one of them, Lou Clinton scored from third base after the catch.

"Hell, a home run means three runs to us and it ties the game at 6-6," Pesky said.

Umpire Joe Paparella ruled Luplow's catch valid. He said he "saw Luplow catch the ball falling into the bullpen. I saw the play all the way. He disappeared behind the fence but came up almost instantly, carrying the ball. He couldn't have dropped it. He didn't have time."

Some of the Red Sox players in the bullpen at the time, including pitcher Clet Nichols and coach Al Laska, conceded Luplow never dropped the ball but argued with Pesky that the catch actually was made in the bullpen.

with the bases empty in the fifth. Terry Fox was the loser.

Home runs by Jim King, Don Zimmer and Hobbie Landrith carried the Senators to their victory over the Athletics. King's homer was his 13th and Zimmer's his first as an American League player. Norm Siebern also homered for the A's. Bennie Daniels was credited with his first win of the year while Dave Wickersham suffered his seventh setback.

Rookie Wins Tenth
Callison's one-man slugging show paced an 18-hit attack by the Phillies that enabled rookie Ray Culp to register his 10th victory. Culp blanked the Pirates until the seventh, then gave way to Dennis Bennett in the eighth. Tony Gonzalez, the Phils' left fielder, committed his first error in 295 consecutive games when he bobbed Johnny Logan's single and turned it into a double.

Schroeder Tops Golf Qualifiers
PORTLAND (UPI)—Stew Schroeder, an Oregon State University student from Medford, led all qualifiers for the Oregon Golf Association match play tournament at Riverside Golf and Country Club Thursday with a six-under-par 66.

Schroeder was one stroke ahead of Mickey Shaw of Portland and three ahead of Virg Mitchell, also of Portland. Tied at 72 were two-time champion Don Kreiger, Jim Harding and Dick Barrett, all of Portland, and Bob Prall of Salem. Bruce Cudd of Portland, another ex-champion, came in with a 74. Men's qualifying continued today.

Sue Jennett of Lake Oswego won medalist honors in the women's division with a three-over-par 79. Tied for second at 81 were Mrs. Richard Grubbs, Mrs. Lon Stiner and Marie Wolfe, all of Portland.

ON DISABLED LIST
BOSTON (UPI)—Gene Conley, one of professional sport's few two-letter men, has been placed on the disabled list by the Boston Red Sox.

Medford Legion Swamps Hawks, 14-2

The Medford American Legion team moved back into a tie for first place in the Southern Division Thursday night with the Klamath Falcons by downing the Klamath Hawks, 14-2.

It was the sixth win for the Medford club as against one loss, the same record the Falcons have. The loss stands the Hawks at 3-5 for the league. The loss was the second in the week to the Medford club for the Hawks. The pitching win went to big Bill Enyart who threw a one-hitter at the Hawks last Sunday. The Hawks punched out six hits off him in this game.

But the Hawks also committed six big errors which led to their downfall. Medford got only seven hits off loser Steve Young and reliever Tom Pilgrim.

Klamath's Hawks drew first blood in the game. Centerfielder Tom Schaff led off the second frame with a walk and advanced on a single by shortstop Jon Crume. He scored when catcher Roger Bartlett laced a single to score him.

That was the last time the Hawks were within easy striking range.

Medford roared back in the third with five big runs. With one out, Enyart worked a walk. He moved to third on Don Anderson's double and scored when Dan Miles batted ball was bobbled. Mike Neathamer's fly ball to right got away from Homer Garrish and both An-dered and Miles tallied. Jim Calhoun was hit by a pitch and Tom Barker singled after Mike Barnes struck out and scored Neathamer. Calhoun later scored.

The Medford nine tallied twice more in the fifth on a hit batsman, a single and an error. The roof caved in on the Hawks in the sixth when Medford sent 10 batters to the plate and scored seven. There were two errors, four hits, two walks, three stolen bases and a passed ball.

The Hawks had tallied their final run in the sixth. Mary Cunningham led off with a double and moved to third on Schiff's ground out. He tallied on Crume's ground out.

Enyart struck out eight in gaining the win and Young and Pilgrim combined to whiff seven Medford hitters.

The Hawks take on the Falcons Saturday night at G. e. m. Stadium and go to Ashland Sunday. The Falcons will be at Oregon City Sunday.

McKinley Favored To Gain Quarters

WIMBLEDON, England (UPI)—Cluck McKinley of San Antonio, Tex., seeking to become the first American to win the Wimbledon men's crown since 1935, was favored to nail down a quarterfinal berth today when he met India's Jaidip Mukerjee.

Frank Froehling, the only other Yank survivor in the men's singles, doesn't swing back into action until Saturday when he faces England's Roger Taylor.

Three of the five Americans remaining in the women's singles were scheduled to play today.

Donna Floyd of Arlington, Va., was pitted against Mrs. Vera Sukova, the Czech housewife who lost to Karen Hantze Susman of San Antonio in last year's final; Dorothy Head Knode, formerly of New York but now living in Tokyo, faced Mrs. J. W. Cawthorn of England, and Tary Ann Fretz of Harrisburg, Pa., met Jan Lehane of Australia in third round matches.

McKinley and Froehling both took advantage of sore-armed foes in reaching the round of 16 Thursday.

Kiwanis Defeats MI Nine

Kiwanis kept its City Little League Minor slate clean Thursday night with a 24-16 win over Motor Investment in a slugging contest while Crater Lake copped its third straight win, 11-0, over Thomas Dodge and Weyerhaeuser-Gene's edged Coca Cola, 19-13.

Fourth-ranked McKinley needed only 50 minutes to gain a 6-3, 6-2, 6-2 victory over Arthur Ashe of Los Angeles, who suffered a recurrence of an arm injury and admitted he "felt like quitting but wouldn't."

Froehling, a 6-3 native of Coral Gables, Fla., who is ranked second behind McKinley in the U.S., was leading Australia's Bob Howe, 6-3, 6-4, 3-2, when the Aussie was forced to retire because of a strained right arm.

Jennings, Tice Cop Net Titles

Harold Tice and Beverly Jennings captured tennis titles last weekend in the Willamette Valley Junior Tennis championships at Albany.

Tice won the 14-and-under boys singles and Miss Jennings copped the same division in the girls' class. She also teamed with Roseburg's Sherry Seaver to gain the finals of the 18-and-under girls' doubles.

Tice beat Salem's Eric Cooley in the semis, 6-0, 6-0, and topped Kirk Kirkpatrick of Corvallis in the finals, 6-4, 2-6, 11-9. Beverly won the girls' singles by downing Lynn Hill of Eugene, 6-0, 6-0, in the semis and Cindy Lovo of Corvallis, 6-0, 6-1, in the finals.

She and Miss Sevall defeated last year's champs, Rae Swicegood and Sandra Armes of Portland, 6-1, 5-7, 6-4, but lost in the finals to Julie Kasper of Portland and Sue Graham of Corvallis, 6-0, 4-6, 9-7.

The two locals teamed for the mixed doubles.

Player, Two Others Tied For Cleveland Open Lead

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI)—Gary Player, who always is in contention, and two dark horses, Bill Eggers and Bo Winger, tied the field by a stroke going into the second round of the $10,000 Cleveland Open golf tournament today with Jack Nicklaus and favored Arnold Palmer trailing by two and five strokes, respectively.

The little South African, the red-haired Eggers and the 49-year-old Winger fired five-under-par 66—all of them wielding hot putters—in the first round Thursday to lead former PGA champion Lionel Hebert, Moon Mullins and Dave Hill by a shot.

The golf was as hot as the heat which seared the 6,618-yard Beechmont Country Club course as 48 players, in the 159-man field broke par 35-36-71 and 27 equalled it.

after an African elephant safari last fall, had nines of 34 and 32.

Nicklaus Back Two
Their total of 66 put them two shots ahead of Nicklaus, Tony Lama, Mike Souchak, Sam Snead, Jim Ferrier, Gordon Jones, Chi Chi Rodriguez and Frank Boynton.

U.S. Open champion Julius Boros, Jacky Cupik, Art Wall, Bob Goalby, Jackie Burke and Doug Ford were among 11 tied at 69 while the 79 group included former U.S. champion Gene Littler, Canadian Stan Leonard, Billy Maxwell, Jay Hebert and Jim Ferrier.

Jeld-Wen Upset Victor

Bend - Portland knocked off Hal's, 18-3, Gene's powered past East Side, 16-1, and Jeld-Wen upset Weyerhaeuser, 14-3, in Major games of the City Little League Wednesday night.

McCann pitched a one-hitter and also slammed two homers and a single for Jeld-Wen. Milbeck got the line hit for the losers. Demper was the losing hurler. Natasie also hit a homer for the winners.

Bend-Portland rapped 15 hits off loser Britton while winning pitcher Bailey gave up seven hits. Bailey also hit a home run, double and two singles. Eccles, Ackerman and Lonsner doubled for the losers. Thomas Kemnitz and Burton touched Bailey up with doubles.

Gene's got 49 runs of 11 hits while still got the pitching win. Murray was the losing pitcher. Murray was the losing pitcher. Murray was the losing pitcher.

Jimmy Jackson Beats Hopkins

SPOKANE (UPI)—Defending men's singles champion Jimmy Jackson of Portland disposed of Gerry Hopkins, Freshie Beach, Calif., 6-1, 6-4, Thursday at the second round of the Grand Empire Tennis Tournament.

Steve Fields, Gendaw, Calif., secured an upset with over Larry Brooks, Eugene, Ore. The scores were 7-9, 6-2, 6-2.
