

Oakland Rites Unite Couple

The marriage of Mary Florence Stoner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert F. Brown, Seattle, and Roger Allen Lentz took place June 15 in Trinity Lutheran Church in Oakland, Calif. He is the son of Mrs. George Taylor, Klamath Falls, and Robert Lentz, Medford.

Pastor Gordon Hanson officiated before the altar decorated with white flowers.

The bride was given in marriage by her step-father. She wore a floor length gown of white silk organza over tulle with applique roses. The elbow length veil was held in place by an embroidered silk organza headpiece. The bride's bouquet was a combination of chrysanthemums, roses and gardenia. The six pence in her slipper was a gift of the bridegroom.

Elizabeth Joan Warrack, Seattle, maid of honor, was dressed in a turquoise blue silk shantung frock with matching headpiece. Blue daisies and white rosebuds formed her colonial bouquet.

John Warren Lentz, Hayward, Calif., was best man for his brother.

After the church ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors.

The newlyweds will make their home for the summer at Sacramento where he is employed as engineer for Aerojet General. They will return to Berkeley in the fall and he will continue his graduate study at the University of California. Both are graduates of University of Washington.

Merrill Pair Recite Vows

MERRILL — Sandy Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Johnson, became the bride of Jerry Maxwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Maxwell, in a recent ceremony read by the Rev. Lloyd Henderson in the Merrill Presbyterian Church.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white jersey dress with navy blue and white striped jacket. She carried a corsage of white carnations and pink rosebuds on a white ribbon.

Mary Ann Reed was matron of honor for her sister. Her dress was blue, worn with white accessories and corsage of pink and white carnations.

Ted Roller was best man. Pink and white carnation corsages were worn by both mothers. Mrs. Johnson chose a blue jersey dress and Mrs. Maxwell wore a green cotton frock.

A reception was held in the parlors of the church. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Houck, Klamath Falls. Grandparents of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. George Maxwell Sr., Medford.

The newlyweds will make their home in Merrill. Particularly smart in white cotton sateen is Jacques Tiffau's designs of softly tied belts to pull in suit jackets at a high point.

RECENTLY WED — Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Maxwell were recently married in the Merrill Presbyterian Church. She is the former Sandy Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Johnson.

PLAN WEDDING — Mr. and Mrs. James L. Bratton, this city, have announced the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Julie Lyn, to Troy Reynolds, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Reynolds, Glendale, Ore. The future bride has completed her freshman year in elementary education at Southern Oregon College where she will continue her studies next fall. Her fiancé is a graduate of SOC and is employed by Perrine's Store in Ashland. The wedding will take place Aug. 24 in the Bible Baptist Church in Klamath Falls.

TO WED — Mr. and Mrs. Marion Wilson of Independence, Ore., announce the engagement of their daughter, Eleanor, to Robert Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Lewis, Klamath Falls. The bride-elect, graduate of Independence Central High School, is a senior at Oregon College of Education. Her fiancé was graduated from KUHS and is a senior at Westmont College, Santa Barbara.

Bollinger-Mill Vows Exchanged In Glendale

Georgia Mill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Mill, Klamath Falls, and David Bollinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bollinger, Milton-Freewater, were married in the Presbyterian Church in Glendale, Ore., on June 9. The Rev. Norman Naugler officiated at the 2 p.m. ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of white lace over tulle with a fingertip illusion veil secured by a tiara of rhinestones. A white orchid centered the nosegay of pink rosebuds which she carried on a white ribbon. The bride designed and fashioned her wedding gown, veil and going away outfit which was a yellow suit worn with white hat and the bridal orchid.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Jimmy Foster, Glendale, wore a blue tulle princess style ballerina length frock and briefly veiled hat of white leaves and petals.

Similarly styled were the dresses of the bridesmaids, Virginia Perry, who wore lavender, and Blanche Coate, dressed in pink. Their hats were like the honor attendant. All carried nosegays of rosebuds with ribbon streamers matching their frocks.

Flower girl, Jan Naugler, was dressed in a full skirted orchid nylon dress and carried a white basket of pink rose petals.

Klamath Falls students at the University of Oregon who attained honor roll standing for spring term include Carolyn Westlund, who received a straight A, 4 point, average.

Those receiving 3.5 or higher averages are John Cox, Janet Fowler, Norma Jones, Virginia Leaming, Shirlene McMichael, Robert Mitchell, Paul Moore, Russell Schuh, Wendell Smith, William Trulove and Marvi Wayburn.

Gerald Amerling, second year forestry student at Humboldt State College, was recently awarded the Samuel Miles Anderson Jr. Memorial scholarship in the amount of $500. He is a member of the lower division honor society, Rio Sigma. He is currently employed by the Winema National Forest as a forester's aide.

Jerry Premo, son of Mrs. Roy Premo, Burney, former resident of this city, received his bachelor of science degree June 8 from University of California at Berkeley.

Robert Keith Addington, Klamath Falls, and Garrison Mitchell, Dairy, received bachelor of science degrees in animal husbandry this June from California State Polytechnic College in San Luis Obispo.

Whatever the shape of your hands you can make them more attractive if you spend a little time on them regularly. Coax your nails to a longer length. Paint them in colors that blend best with your skin, blue-toned reds go best with pink-toned hands, orange reds for tan or pearly skins. Remember to use lotion freely while performing your daily tasks and frequent professional manicures will best keep your hands more feminine looking.

Elaine Close and Lucille Opperman, candlelighters, wore pale green dresses with wide sashes and bows.

Best man was the bride's brother, Lee Mill, Portland. Ushers were Harold Bollinger, Wall, S.D., brother of the bridegroom, and Jimmy Foster, Glendale.

Wedding music was played at the piano by Mrs. Joe Payne. Joe Payne sang "True Love" before the entrance of the bride procession and Mrs. Fred Wright sang "The Lord's Prayer" at the close of the ceremony.

Decorations were in keeping with the pastel theme. At the front of the church were baskets of pink and white peonies. In the place of the altar was a kneeling bench and on each side small white fencing covered with summer blossoms. Bouquets of rhododendrons and pastel color tapers completed the pretty setting.

Mrs. Mill wore a pink and white lace dress with white accessories and pink rose corsage. Mrs. Bollinger chose a pink tulle dress with lace jacket, white corsage.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the church parlors. The cake, centering a long table covered with white linen, was five tiered and was decorated with pink and white roses, wedding bells and lovebirds. On top a miniature bridal pair stood with a white wedding bell.

Other tables were lace covered. At the guest book was Mrs. Roy Mill, Applegate, Calif., aunt of the bride. Gifts were received by Mrs. Loren Millen, Portland.

Another aunt, Mrs. Frank Mill, Oceano, Calif., and Mrs. Riley Furlong, Grants Pass, served the cake. Mrs. C. E. Young, grandmother of the bride, served coffee and Mrs. S. W. Perry served punch.

The bride is a graduate of Glendale High School and her husband of McLaughlin Union High School in Milton-Freewater. Both were graduated from OTI where she majored in accounting and the bridegroom in diesel mechanics.

The couple are now at home at 314 McKinley Street in Klamath Falls.

JUNE NEWLYWEDS — The Presbyterian Church in Glendale, Ore., was the setting for the June 9 marriage of Georgia Mill and David Bollinger. They are shown with their wedding cake at the reception. Mr. and Mrs. Bollinger will make their home in Klamath Falls.
