BPW Install New Officers

Past presidents of the Business and Professional Women's Club were in charge of the last meeting of the group at which time new officers were installed by Gene Brisco, assisted by Louise Mitchell.

Velma Tenney will head the BPW as president. On her board are Louise Patterson, first vice president; Mary Bothwell, second vice president; Eva Dickson, recording secretary; Dorothy Bortis, corresponding secretary, and June Jones, treasurer.

Decorations were particularly effective with combinations of hawthorne and snowballs and purple and white lilacs. Candles were pink.

In charge of decorations were Suzanne Hamilton, Isabelle Brixner, Emma Carter, Beth Griggs, Edna Albrecht and Polly Schroeder.

Other past presidents in charge of the program and the printed programs included Kathleen Ward, Eva Cook, Ellen Upp, Beulah Elliott and Dena Backes. Soleist for the evening was Mrs. Normand Poulshock, who was her own accompanist.

Mae Plumey gave the invocation and Isabelle Brixner, the collector.

PLAN WEDDING — The marriage of Helen Virginia Davis and Robert Ani will be an event of Aug. 17 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church. Their engagement is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elnathan Davis. The future bride is a graduate of Sacred Heart Academy. Her fiancé, who is stationed at Kingsley Field, is a graduate of Kamahameha Military School in Honolulu. He is the son of Mrs. Agnes Ani, Kailua, Oahu.

Party Given

MOUNT SHASTA — Wonderland Seniors of Mount Shasta enjoyed a musical program and potluck luncheon at their June 19 meeting in the city park.

Dawn Brooks and Paula Frank each played piano solos and duets with their teacher, Mrs. George Schraeder.

Approximately 30 seniors gathered for the luncheon which was in charge of Mrs. Katie Roush and Mrs. Bernice Richardson. Mrs. Rilla Peterson and Mrs. Aileen Simmers, representing the sponsoring Soroptimist Club, were guests for the luncheon and afternoon.

Plans for a July 29 chicken barbecue were made. Members of the club, Soroptimists and their husbands are invited to attend the affair which will be held in the city park. Final arrangements will be made at the July 17 meeting. There will be no meeting July 3.

A tentative bus trip to the San Francisco Ice Follies was planned for sometime in August.

HOUSEWARMING

MALIN — A barn dance and housewarming was given Saturday, June 22, for Mr. and Mrs. Tim Wolf, who recently purchased the Rudolph Sostak ranch north of Malin. The farm theme was carried out in the decor and a scarecrow held a milk pail for money gifts. Hostesses were Corine Holl, Norma Hawkins and Gloria Anderson.

Party Fetes Future Bride

TULELAKE — Lorraine Dayle Bowen, a bride-to-be, was guest of honor at a prettily arranged miscellaneous shower June 23 in the Fireside Room of the Tulelake Presbyterian Church. She will marry Robert G. Rinker of Pasadena on Aug. 3, at Tulelake. Her future husband, a teacher in Pasadena schools will return to teaching after a year's leave of absence to complete research for the Dow Chemical Company at Antioch, Calif.

Colors of peach and white were carried out in flowers and other appointments.

Mrs. Sam Anderson, in charge of a short program, presented Jimmy and Susan Hemstreet in dance numbers, Ruth Bowen in vocal numbers and two skits.

Hostesses were Lorraine Reinmiller, Anola Edwards, Gladys Bergman, Pearl Haynes, Freda Ward, Gladys Jensen, Edna Scott, Nola Hemstreet and Fanny Ryckman.

Father's Day Is Observed

DAIRY — In observance of Father's Day, a group of friends gathered at the Bonanza Cafe for smorgasbord dinner on June 15. In the group were Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Heile, Merrill; John Heile, Havre, Mont.; Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Russell, Olene; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Conner, Riverside, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Roberts, Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Art McIntyre, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Acklin, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Schmoie, Dairy, and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Turner, Bonanza.

After dinner the group gathered at the home of Virgil Schmoie to honor his birthday.

Joining the group were Sandra Turner, Klamath Falls; Wes Cookson, McCloud; Roxie Turner, Bonanza, and Louise, Geri and Charlotte Woods, Karen, Virgie and Don Schmoie, Dairy.

On Sunday the same group enjoyed a picnic at the Harold Smith ranch.

Baby Shower

MALIN — A layette shower honoring Mrs. Lincoln Elzner was an event of June 18 at the home of Mrs. Marion Kirkpatrick. Pink and white lilies and peonies were decorations.

Mrs. Elzner was assisted at the gift table by Mrs. Joe Watkins.

Following refreshments, four tables of pinocle were in play. Prizes were won by Mrs. Frank Cacka, Mrs. Bill O'Keeffe and Mrs. Lincoln Elzner.

FOR QUIET HOURS

A new room-darkening window shade has a woven reed design. The three-dimensional pattern introduces a soft, no-color theme based on bland grass cloth tones. It goes well with either contemporary or oriental furnishings. It is equally appropriate with a provincial decor.
