GOLDENWEDS Mr. and Mrs. Nels Chambers were honored by their friends June 13 at their home in Bly. The occasion marked their 50th wedding anniversary.

Bly Couple Wed 50 Years

BLY — A golden wedding anniversary celebration was given in honor of Nels and Clarabelle June 13.

A 50th wedding anniversary plate and a money tree decorated the table which held the two tier white wedding cake.

The guest card was passed by Mrs. Jerold Dillavou. The cake and coffee were served by Mrs. Don Wessel and Mrs. Herbert Hadley.

Mr. and Mrs. Chambers were married in Moosejaw, Saskatchewan, Canada, on June 13, 1913, where they resided for 13 years. They spent the next 25 years in New York before moving to Bly.

MALIN — The 22nd installation of officers for Prosperity Chapter No. 160 OES was conducted June 15, at the Malin Masonic Temple.

The temple was decorated with baskets of white snowballs, highlighted with red satin hearts. The large white heart hanging in the east revealed the worthy matron-elect's motto, "Think Before You Speak," in red lettering. On the heart hanging in the west were her watchwords, "Friendship, Loyalty, and Love." Her colors are red and white, her flower is the pansy.

Hostesses and hosts were Helen and Ivan Ottomann and Barbara and Bob Victorin. Presiding at the guest book was Mrs. Charles Dobry Jr. Passing out programs were Dana Ottomann and Patty Evans.

Following the piano prelude by Gladys Halousek, the Bible was placed on the altar by Ronnie Dobry.

The many guests were welcomed by Worthy Matron and Patron Helen and Ivan Ottomann. Escorted were Lucene McCollum, grand marshal, Virginia Zumburn, member of credentials committee, and Harold R. H. member of home endowment fund committee, all of the Grand Chapter of Oregon; Rosalie Hoback, representative to Colorado in Oregon; Worthy Matrons and Worth Patrons Leona and Sanford Selby, Aloha, Verda Scribner, Manzanita, Ruth Rodenberger, Tulelake.

Introduced were Mrs. Jean McFall, mother adviser, Malin Rainbow Assembly; Tom Chaburn, worshipful master, Malin Lodge AF & AM.

Installing officers were Emma Wilde and Robert Victorin. Assisting officers were Frances Kallina, chaplain; Barbara Victorin, der the direction of Helen Ottomann, presented a clever travelogue addendum honoring the new worthy matron.

The serving table was beautiful with white tapers entwined with pansies and miniature figures in authentic Czech costumes, on each side. Refreshments were kolaches and poppy seed cake, made by members of the local Czech ladies club. In charge were Gladys Halousek, Emma Wilde, Anne Fruits, Helen Ottomann and Gertrude Henderson.

Church Rites Unite Couple

MOUNT SHASTA—At St. Anthony's Church on June 23, Dorothy Christine Simon became the bride of William Allen Calkins.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Simon. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph G. Calkins are parents of the bridegroom. Both families reside in Mount Shasta.

Eddie Jean Simon, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Barbara Hopping, Piedmont, and Pat Reed, Portland. Laura Lee Carlyon, Bakersfield, was flower girl.

Best man for his brother was Robert R. Calkins, Sacramento. Ushers were Robert Simon and Martin Muller.

After the reception in the parish hall, the newlyweds left for a tour of Southern California before returning to Sacramento to reside. The bridegroom, graduate of College of the Siskiyous and San Jose State College, is employed as accountant for Aero Jet Corporation in San Jose. The bride is a graduate of Santa Rosa Junior College in dental technology.

SLIP INTO SOMETHING THAT WON'T SLIP:
THE UNSLIPPABLE™
by WARNER'S®!

A light, lacy strapless that won't slip!

That delicate "lace" isn't lace. It's something new — lace-printed spandex — and it actually clings to your back; won't slip or slide! Because it's airy spandex, it never feels clammy. The contour cups are topped with real lace, hook up prettily in front. P10-98. White, A,B,C, $6.95.

(Cups & panels: all nylon; elastic: nylon-acetate-Lycra spandex).
