

Palmer's Late Charge Garners Him Tie With Nicklaus, Lema

CLEVELAND (UPI) — Arnold Palmer put on one of his late charges Saturday with a 5-under-par 33-35-66 which sent him surging into a tie for the third-round lead with champion Tony Lema and burly Jack Nicklaus in the $110,000 Cleveland Open golf championship.

Palmer fired seven birdies against two bogeys as he matched Lema and Nicklaus at 205-eight under par for the three rounds despite intermittent showers—as they moved one shot in front of South African Gary Player in the chase for the $22,000 first prize.

Player carded a 71 over the par-busted Beechmont Country Club course which put him one shot in front of six others. They were Jackie Burke, with a 68; Dave Hill, with a 69; Sam Snead and Don January, with 70's; and Bo Wininger and Tommy Aaron, with 72's.

Has Good Round
Nicklaus, playing "my best round since the masters," shot a 34-35-69 while Lema blew himself to a 33-36-69.

Lema, the 29-year-old ex-Marine from San Leandro, Calif., led the lead all to himself until he bogeyed the 16th hole by three-putting and the 17th by trapping his approach shot. He thus lost big shots and fell back into that three-way tie entering Sunday's final round.

Asked how he felt, the lean Californian smiled painfully and said: "I feel just fine — has anybody got a knife?"

Three shots off the pace in what has been the closest tournament in golf history — with only eight shots separating the 75 qualifiers as they began Saturday's third round — came Fred Hawkins of El Paso, Tex., former U.S. Open champion Ed Furgol, Bob Shave and Mason Rudolph. All had a 3-under-par 208 total.

Hawkins, who has won only one tournament in 16 years on the tour, shot a 65 which equaled the course record. Furgol had a 68, Shave a 69 and Rudolph a 70.

Boros Has 71

Still well in contention at 209, four shots off the lead, came Bill Eggers, with a 72; Art Wall and Jay Hebert, with 70's; U.S. Open champion Julius Boros, with a 71; Dave Ragan, and Chi Chi Rodriguez, with 69's, and Don Fairfield with a 68.

The year's leading money-winner, Palmer birdied the 507-yard, par-five 10th with a four-iron approach to 10 feet and a two-putted bird. He also birdied the 12th, 419 yards, par four, with a nine-iron to within two feet, and then wedged to within two feet on the 16th for his final birdie.

Harry Millette, Medford, went the longest route of the day before defeating Bob Stone of Portland on the 22nd hole.

Berg faced the veteran Dr. Milard Rosenblatt of Tualatin in Sunday's first flight competition.

Mike Miller, who lost to Olson in the semifinals of the state junior, advanced to the second round in the fourth flight with a 3 and 2 win over Mike Mibill Wittenberg of Portland.

Mrs. Bill Miller of Medford did not play Saturday.

Big news this season is expected to be the large contour lens or "Jackie type" sunglasses.

The 22-year-old youngster was batting .100 when he was sent to the minors. In a two-night double header against the Minnesota Twins Friday night he struck out four times in-a-row and was booed by the fans.

The first baseman - outfielder will join the Eastern League York club Sunday at Charlestown, W.Va.
