EXPLANATIONS DOWN

1. Drink is no substitute for a man's ZEAL or enthusiasm. Made from milk and eggs, it could be a SUBSTITUTE for a more substantial MEAL.

2. Summer is a fine time for BUGS that enjoy the warm weather. It is often less desirable for BUGS than the spring.

3. As a preseat, a handsome PLASTIC belt might be a good thing to give to someone. An ELASTIC belt might be better to buy for oneself.

4. Treatments may aggravate an irritated SCALP unless they are the correct remedy. An irritated SCALD would already be aggravated.

5. N.P. is an abbreviation for Notary Public.

9. The life of a car could depend upon how much one wants to SPEED since constant speeding might wear it out sooner. No one really wants to SPEED but only does so when he must.

10. An OLD woman at a party of younger people may feel uncomfortable due to the difference in age. If she were ODD or peculiar, she would not be apt to feel uncomfortable anywhere.

12. A housewife could be alarmed to suddenly notice a WASP in her bed. A WARP or curvature in the wood would not alarm her as much as annoy her.

13. Inquisitive people find it hard to SATE or completely satisfy their curiosity. They do not SAVE it if they are inquisitive.

14. Confidence is a FORT in a desert since both protect against many things. A FONT or spring in the desert would be good for only one thing—water.

15. A starving person is not above taking a RISK or bread. While doing this could be a RISK, there would be many other risks that a starving person might be above taking.

CHAMBER COMMENTS

by GEORGE T. CALLISON
Manager
KLAMATH COUNTY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Quite a celebration is being planned for July 20 at the site of the new Oregon Mt. tunnel on U.S. 199 south of Grants Pass. That is the date that the tunnel will be formally dedicated as the Randolph Collier Tunnel, in honor of Sen. Randolph Collier of Yreka, dean of the California Senate and "father of the California freeway system."

Not only is opening of the tunnel a significant event for the people of Del Norte County, it marks another important improvement in the Winnemucca-to-the-Sea Highway and, as such, will bring a number of people to the dedication from all points along the highway.

A caravan is scheduled to leave Winnemucca on Thursday, July 18, with an overnight stop and breakfast planned for Lakeview. The group will have luncheon in Klamath Falls on Friday, the 19th, and will continue on to Grants Pass for another overnight stay.

Tentative plans call for the caravan to proceed through the tunnel at 1 p.m. on Saturday, July 20, with the formal dedication to take place at 3 p.m. Although the chamber has not received official confirmation, it has been reported that Gov. Pat Brown of California will be one of the dedication ceremony speakers.

The Roads and Highways Committee of the Klamath County Chamber of Commerce is in charge of local plans to participate in the tunnel opening dedication. Many people undoubtedly will drive their own cars to the celebration, but, with the thought that many others might appreciate transportation being provided, the committee has made tentative plans to charter a bus to make the 150-mile trip.

TRIAL RUN — Peggy Callahan, an Alturas cowgirl, eases down on her colt for a practice ride before the Poquito Vaqueros Junior Rodeo on July 4. The rodeo is one of the features of the Modoc Fandango Days celebration slated July 4-6 in Alturas.

Goat Tying, Colt Riding Part Of Alturas Rodeo

ALTURAS—Contestants are lining up for the Poquito Vaqueros Rodeo to be held July 4 as one of the many events of Modoc's three-day Fandango Days. The rodeo for the junior buckaroos will start at 2 p.m. at the Model Quarter Horse arena.

Events will include colt riding, calf riding, goat tying, and a calf scramble. There will be two classes in each event for the 13-to-16-year-old age group and the 7 to 12-year-old age group.

The calf riders and colt riders will have to ride their animal for six seconds with no rules as to spurring or method of riding. The rides will be made without a saddle but with a cinch to hang on to.

In the calf scramble, contestants will have to catch a calf, halter him, and drag him to the finish line on foot.

The young cowboys will take to their horses for the goat tie by

City School Official Attends Meet

Ray Hunsaker, city school superintendent, left for Detroit Friday to attend the annual convention of the National Education Association from June 30 through July 5.

Hunsaker, as president of the Oregon Association of School Administrators, is the state's official delegate to the convention.

The superintendent said he will take time during his trip to interview several teachers who submitted applications for teaching posts at Klamath Union High School.

Hunsaker will return to Klamath Falls in time to attend the next regularly scheduled meeting of the KUHS board of directors, July 8, at 7:30 p.m. in the school Administration Building, 475 South Alameda Avenue.

Conrad Borsting will be sworn in as a board member during the meeting and the directors will elect a new chairman to replace John D. Voht who will serve as a board member for the last time on July 8.

It is also expected that the directors will discuss a KUHS district building program and the Klamath County Court's request that all county boards submit a map of the county with a boundary line drawn to divide the county into two unified school districts grades one through 12. The court set up an Aug. 1 deadline for this map.

Survivors include the widow, Henry, Klamath Falls; sons, Gerry Wood, Livermore, Calif.; Jeffrey of Oakland, Calif.; Larry at home; two step-children, Lucille Givan, Ventura, Calif.; and Dale Ring, also living at home; a brother, Harvey Spaulding, Long Beach, Calif.; sister, Mrs. Jack Stewart, Helena, Mont.

The body was taken to Ward's Klamath Funeral Home.

The term "astronaut" is of Greek origin, reports the Encyclopedia Americana. The literal translation of the word is "star sailor."

News From The Services

Three Klamath County Marines recently completed individual combat training at the Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton, Calif.

The four-week training period includes combat indoctrination, small-arms fire and tactical skills. Under carefully selected instructors, the Marines learned to take their place in small fighting units, such as the four-man fire team and the 14-man squad.

The men are privates Gary L. Hammon, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hammon, Route 3, Yreka; Gordon P. Herron, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Herron, Chiloquin; and Robert J. Horn, son of Mr.

and Mrs. R. V. Horn, 6130 South Sixth Street.

Jim B. Pisan, postal clerk third class, USN, brother of Mario Pisan of 2002 Oregon Avenue, is serving aboard the destroyer USS O'Brien, which is in San Diego, undergoing maintenance work.

The O'Brien will join Destroyer Squadron 23 upon completion of the shipyard availability to become flagship for Commander, Destroyer Division 232.

The destroyer's new squadron is the "Little Beaver" squadron of World War II fame, when it was under the command of Admiral Arleigh "B-Knot" Burke, a former Chief of Naval Operations who is now retired.

Marine Pfc. Richard R. Van Laven, Mount Shasta High School graduate, returned to Treasure Island Naval Base Thursday, to resume his service career. He had been visiting his father and sisters at Mount Shasta.

Richard has achieved the rank of sharpshooter. He is now training in hand fighting, karate. The first rank in this, Green Belt, has been achieved, after eight months of training. Another 18 months will be required to master the fighting method.

Party Girl Testifies In Profumo Hearing

LONDON (UPI) — Party girl Christine Keeler testified in court today she had sexual relations with resigned British War Minister John Profumo and that he paid her money "for my mother."

Miss Keeler, 21, a central figure in the Profumo scandal that has rocked the British government, was the first witness called by the prosecution in the vice trial of Dr. Stephen Ward, a society osteopath and artist.

One of the eight counts charged against Ward said Miss Keeler was intimate with a "number of men for pay and gave half the money to Ward."

Relations With Russian
The red-haired party girl also said she had sexual intercourse "on one occasion" with former Soviet Assistant Naval Attache Eugene Ivanov.

It had been reported that Miss Keeler carried on simultaneous affairs with Profumo and Ivanov. This had led to charges by the opposition Labor party that the ruling Conservative party was lax in leaving the way open for security risks because of Profumo's involvement.

Testifying about gifts she received from men, Christine said "one of the men who gave me presents did give me some money but not for myself."

"It was for my mother," she said.

"Which man?" asked prosecutor Mervyn Griffin-Jones.

"Mr. Profumo," replied Christine.

Check From Lord Astor
Christine testified that Ward, who is charged with living off the earnings of prostitutes, told her he handed the landlord of a flat she occupied a check from Lord Astor.

Lord Astor is one of Britain's wealthiest men and owner of Cliveden, the estate where Christine met Profumo and where Ward had a cottage.

Miss Keeler said "there was no ulterior motive behind the check that was handed to the landlord." The party girl testified she had intercourse with Profumo and Ivanov in Ward's flat. She said Profumo gave her presents as well as money.

But, she said, "I did not ever consider myself a call girl or prostitute."
