Who's Boss In Bidding

By OSWALD JACOBY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

A player who uses Blackwood takes full charge of the hand with one exception. That exception occurs when he follows up his bid of four no-trump with a further bid of five no-trump.

The five no-trumps bid guarantees that the partnership holds all the aces and if partner can now see 13 sure tricks there is no reason for him to stay out of the grand slam.

He also can put the grand slam in no-trump if he can count to 13 without using ruffing power. A no-trump contract is always safer than one in a suit.

North's hand illustrates these points thoroughly. When his partner bids four no-trump North just shows his one ace, but when South follows up with five no-trump North takes full charge. He counts four spade tricks, one heart, two diamonds and six clubs for a total of 13 and bids the grand slam. Furthermore, he bids it in no-trump. South may have some other high cards besides his three aces and even though North holds good spades there just may be a loser in that suit.

This happens to be the case. If North bids seven spades he will be complaining about his bad luck, but he will also have made that had luck himself.

What do you do?
A—Bid two no-trump. Your partner's two heart bid has shown at least ten or 11 points and you can play no-trump nicely.

Your partner rebids three spades. What do you now?
