

DECATHLON CHAMP — Steve Pauly, Oregon State, shown here tossing the discus 149 feet 1 1/2 inches, captured the decathlon championship at Corvallis by scoring 7,852 points in the grueling two-day test of strength, skill and stamina. Although he had said earlier that he would not continue in competition, Paul has indicated he may change his mind after he returns from the meet with Russia on July 20-21.

The rich get richer, the poor get poorer, and the muscular Minnesota Twins apparently have developed a new muscleman.

He's rookie Jimmie Hall, and as far as their American League rivals are concerned the Twins need him like Sonny Liston needs karate.

The Twins have reeled off seven straight victories, including Sunday's 6-2 win over the Washington Senators in a drive that has carried them to within 2 1/2 games of the first-place New York Yankees. They've done it with power — personified mostly by Bob Allison, Harmon Killebrew and Earl Battey — but given impetus in the last few games by the 25-year-old Hall from Mt. Holy, N.C.

Hall slammed a three-run homer and two singles Sunday, giving him seven hits in his last nine at-bats and enabling relief pitcher Mike Fornieles to pick up his first victory of the year. The Twins have been traveling at a 32-12, 727 clip since mid-May when they were in ninth place.

Yanks Pad Lead

The Yankees lengthened their AL lead to two full games when they beat the Boston Red Sox, 4-2 and 11-4, the Detroit Tigers shaded the Los Angeles Angels, 6-5, the Chicago White Sox won, 4-0, after an 8-4 loss to the Cleveland Indians, and the Baltimore Orioles defeated the Kansas City Athletics, 4-1, after a 3-1 loss in other American League games.

Hall's homer climaxed a five-run, third-inning rally during which John Gory doubled and Zoilo Versalles had the first of his ninth loss compared with three victories.

Yogi Berra's three-run homer gave the Yankees their opening game victory and the world champions took the nightcap with the aid of the steady five-inning relief pitching of Bill Kunkel, who won his second game. Roger Maris and Joe Pepitone homered for the Yankees in the nightcap.

Come From Behind
Dick McAuliffe's ninth-inning homer enabled the Tigers to clinch an uphill struggle from a 4-0 deficit and give Phil Regan his fourth victory of the season. Leon Wagner, Norm Cash and Bill Bruton also homered during the game. Julio Navarro suffered his second defeat against four wins.

Ashland Takes Twin Bill From Hawks 4-2, 12-0

The Klamath Falls Hawks ran into a base hit famine and dropped both ends of their doubleheader at Ashland Sunday.

In the first clash, the Hawks opened the game in impressive fashion by scoring the first two men up. Dick Bath rapped a single on the second pitch of the game and Jon Crumpe was walked on four straight pitches. Bob Woldt grounded out to the pitcher, moving the runners. Alan Kenyon struck out and Tom Schiff singled with Bath and Crumpe scoring. Steve Young struck out to retire the side.

It was the only scoring for the Hawks for the afternoon.

Ashland broke out of a scoring slump in the fourth inning with a single run, the result of a single and a pair of Hawk errors. They added three more in a big fifth inning to wrap up the scoring and the game.

The second game found Ashland continuing to bombard offerings of Hawk hurlers as they powered out three runs in the opening frame and then poured across seven runs the second and two the third to put the game far beyond reach at 13-0.

That's the way the game ended, with the Hawks unable to reach the offerings of Barger, rapping out five hits, all singles.

Schiff had two for two in the first game for the Hawks while Bath had two for three times up. Mike Spiker with two for three paced the Hawks in the losing second game effort.

The win broke an eight-game losing streak for Ashland and gave them their first conference victories of the season.

For the Hawks it marked the sixth defeat in nine conference clashes.

Decathlon Champ May Reconsider

CORVALLIS (UPI) — America's newest decathlon champion, Steve Pauly, plans to consider his athletic future after he returns from carrying his country's colors in the U.S.-Russia meet in Moscow July 20-21.

The June graduate of Oregon State won the 1963 national AAU title and one berth on the U.S. team here Saturday by scoring 7,852 points in the two-day, 10-event test.

"I don't believe I've ever seen a better effort on the basis of his own abilities, coupled with the terrible weather," Phil Mulkey, the sixth-place finisher, said of Pauly's victory.

The 6-4, 190-pounder planned to attend dental school this fall, but those plans may be postponed.

"I might come back here and take a few hours so I could train for 1964," Pauly said after the victory. He lettered three years each in basketball and track at OSU.

Status Uncertain

Pauly also was unsure of his status on the U.S. team. He plans to compete in Moscow, but the bridegroom of three weeks said he may be able to get away from his summer job with a construction firm for only a week, not enough time to make the full European tour.

He came within 18.2 seconds Saturday of being one of the few men in modern decathlon history to reach the 8,000-point mark, and his point total has been surpassed only by C. K. Yang, Rafer Johnson and Bob Mathias in winning this meet in the last 25 years.

He needed a 4:35.4 clocking in the 1,500 meters to break the 8,000 point mark.

"I didn't feel very good but I thought I could do it," Pauly said. "I kept up with the pace until the third lap and then I fell behind."

In other events, he recorded 11.3 for 100 meters, 22-10 in the broad jump, 47.0 in the shot put, 6-0 in the high jump, 49.6 in the 400 meters, 14.7 in the 110 meter hurdles, 149-1 1/2 in the discus, 12-11 in the pole vault and 241-3 in the javelin.

The weather that caused Mulkey's comment included temperatures in the 50s with highs of 58 Friday and 56 Saturday during the meet, frequent rainstorms and a cold wind. Only 1,516 fans braved those conditions in the two days.

Edstrom Third

The final 1,500 meter race also gave Dick Emberger of the Camp Pendleton, Calif., Marines second place and the other berth on the U.S. team for the Russian meet.

Emberger scored 7,331 points to 7,328 for Dave Edstrom, the Oregon athlete now competing for Oxnard, Calif., Air Force Base.

Edstrom, who said later he is finished with bigtime decathlon competition, led Emberger by 141 points going into the 1,500. The Marine lieutenant was timed in 4:19.1 and the Air Force lieutenant in 4:32.6, his best ever but not good enough to get him to Moscow.

Behind the three leaders came Russ Hodge, Oxnard AFB, 7,112; Bill Toomey, Santa Clara Valley Youth Village, 6,822; Mulkey, Birmingham, Ala., 6,395; Charles Mosley, Alabama, 6,385; 1961 champion Phil Herman, U.S. Army, 6,192; Dave Thorsen, Santa Barbara, Calif., AC, 5,978 and Bill Smith, Dayton, Ohio, AC, 5,962.

It was the 30th and last decathlon for Mulkey, whose 8,709 points in 1961 are second only to C. K. Yang's world record 9,121.

"I'm going to hang 'em up," he said. "This is 30 decathlons and I'm 30 years old."

Edstrom, 24, said he will confine his competition to Air Force meets.

The Houston Colts have taken to Sunday night major league baseball like they invented it, which, as a matter of fact, they did.

The Colts' National League rivals agreed that it's too hot to play on Sunday afternoons, but they never anticipated the cold treatment they'd get in the cool of the Texas evening.

Th Colts inaugurated Sunday night ball in the majors June 9 with a 3-0 victory over the San Francisco Giants. They made it two in a row Sunday night with a 1-0 win over the St. Louis Cardinals — giving them a perfect 2-0 mark and a string of 18 consecutive scoreless innings 'n Sunday night competition.

Hal Brown, a 33-year-old right-hander who hasn't won another game all season, scored both the Sunday night victories — pitching 6 1/3 innings in relief of Dick Farrell on June 9 and going the distance this time with a seven-hitter.

The Colts scored the game's only run in the fourth inning when Howie Goss doubled and tallied on John Bateman's single. Lew Burdette, ex-Milwaukee ace, yielded nine hits in six innings and suffered his sixth loss against seven victories.

Braves Blank Dodgers

The Milwaukee Braves whipped the Los Angeles Dodgers, 7-0, the San Francisco Giants topped the Cincinnati Reds, 7-3, the Philadelphia Phillies nipped the Chicago Cubs, 3-2, and the Pittsburgh Pirates defeated the New York Mets, 3-0, in other National League games.

Tony Cloninger pitched a two-hitter and Hank Aaron hit his 22nd homer of the season for the Braves, who dealt rookie Nick Willhite his second loss. Roy McMillan also homered for the Braves. Cloninger retired 17 batters in order after a first-inning single by Jim Gilliam, didn't walk a batter and faced only 29 men during the game. He stands 4-4 for the season.

Willies Hit Homers

Willie Mays and Willie McCovey homered for the Giants, who took advantage of three Cincinnati errors to hand 13-game winner Jim O'Toole his fifth setback.

Billy Pierce went the distance with an eight-inning to win his second game for the Giants. Eddie Kasko homered for the Reds. Bobby Wine's three hits and two each by Frank Torre and Clay Dalrymple paced an 11-hit Philadelphia attack that brought Art Mahaffey his fourth win against nine losses. Ron Santo homered for the Cubs but Larry Jackson, a nine-game winner, dropped his seventh decision.

Bob Friend went eight innings before wilting in the heat to post his 10th victory and fourth shutout of the year. Friend struck out seven, walked one and didn't allow a runner beyond first base as the Pirates completed a sweep of the three-game series with the Mets Roberto Clement and Jerry Lynch had two hits each for the Pirates.
