Mount Shasta, 1-7-1, J. Lemos, Palini (7) and Woods.

Weed, 12-16-0, B. Smith, DeBortoli (7) and Pauletto.

Scott Valley, 4-3-6, Sage and McIntyre.
Dunsmuir, 6-5-0, Marske and Blevins, Hisey (7).

An air-tight hurling job by Jim Keller plus some power punching paced by player-coach Ron Owings led f's Klamath Falls Medo-Bels to a 7-0 victory over Happy Camp Sunday and moved them to within a game of the Northern California League leaders.

Keller went the entire route for the Medo-Bels, scattering seven hits along the way. He was in trouble several times with runners reaching third, but managed to preserve his shutout.

Leadoff hitter Don Friesel, center fielder, opened the scoring for the Medo-Bels in the opening frame. He walked, moved around on a single by Blake Griggs, scoring on another single, this one by Owings, one of three for him for the afternoon. Griggs and Owings both scored as Dave Sigado singled.

With this three-run jump, the 'Bels were off and running and the game was already put away. Dave Saks opened the second inning with a single, and scored on singles by Keller, Griggs and John Bianchi.

Another tally came in the seventh inning as again the leadoff hitter, Owings rapped a single and scored after Sigado and Hi Hatfield sacrificed. Dave Saks walked and Keller was hit by a pitched ball.

The final two tallies came in the eighth frame. As in previous scoring, leadoff hitter Griggs rapped a double, the only extra base blow for the Medo-Bels, and singles by Owings and Ray Taylor scored both Griggs and Owings.

Happy Camp threatened in the opening frame when Mike Fitzgerald, on because of an error, moved to third on a sacrifice but died there as both Chuck Sutcliffe and Dave Titus grounded out.

In the fourth inning, Sutcliffe was on due to an error, Titus singled him to second and another error, this time putting Griffin on moved him to third to load the bases with none out. However, Sutcliffe was nailed at third base, Don Zink struck out and Ray Metcalf grounded out to end the inning.

Happy Camp loaded the bases again in the fifth inning with one out only to have Keller strike out Sutcliffe and get Titus on a ground ball to end the threat. The win boosted the Medo-Bels season conference record to three wins and two defeats and moved them to within one game of the two leaders, Scott Valley and Weed each of whom have a record of four wins in five outings.

In the other Northern California

League action, Weed moved into day six to four on a neat three-hitter. Scott Valley committed six errors while Dunsmuir was errorless.

CONTINUES MASTERY — Ken Rosewall, left, continued his mastery over fellow Australian Rod Laver, right, to win singles title in the U.S. Pro Tennis Championships. Rosewall won 6-4, 6-2 and 6-2 at the Forest Hills Stadium. Rosewall was in control of the grass court event from the start and threatened to break Laver's service twice in the first set before the decisive break in the seventh game. —UPI Telephoto

Lema, Palmer, Aaron In Cleveland Playoff

CLEVELAND (UPI) — Tony Lema, who sank a pressure putt, Arnold Palmer, who missed one, and Tommy Aaron, who birdied four holes in a row, met today in a playoff for the $22,000 first place money in the Cleveland Open golf tournament.

In the closest and most pressure-packed tournament in PGA history, they tied for first place with 11-under-par totals of 273 Sunday over the sun-baked and heat-seared Beechmont Country Club course.

There were actually 12 players in contention in the fourth round, but one by one they fell by the wayside until Lema and Palmer, who led most of the way, charged to the wire to tie Aaron.

The 25-year-old Aaron, who just a week ago finished last in the U.S. Open after shooting a third-round 91, was sitting in the clubhouse after shooting birdies on the final four holes when Palmer and Lema, playing in the final three holes, teed off for the final three holes. They were 11 under par, the figure at which Aaron, atoning for his sorry open showing, had finished.

Both Par 16th
It didn't look too good for Aaron after both parred the 16th, because the 17th and 18th are relatively easy birdie holes.

For Lema, it looked like curtains on the par-four 17th when his approach shot buried in a sand trap. But he blasted out to within 10 feet of the pin and sank what he called "a real money putt" to stay in contention.

Palmer, meanwhile, parred the hole, so they teed off for the final hole, needing pars to tie him. Aaron and birdies to beat him. Playing with them was Jackie Burke, just one stroke off the pace.

Burke hit the rough with his drive, put his second on the green.

Willie McCovey, Kuenn Carrying Giant Attack

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Willie McCovey and Harvey Kuenn, who used to earn their pay for the San Francisco Giants as platoon men, rated an accolade from manager Alvin Dark as the "guys who are carrying this club."

"McCovey never used to have much of a batting average against left handed pitchers but he's doing all right now," Dark said following Sunday's 7-3 win over the Cincinnati Reds which willow Willie triggered with a tie-breaking home run off southpaw Jim O'Toole. "And Harvey Kuenn is getting his hits. He's doing a fine job filling in for Jim Davenport at third base."

Dark added that Davenport, who is sidelined with an injured leg and sore wrist, hasn't been swinging the bat well. Kuenn collected another single Sunday and scored twice while hitting safely in his 11th straight contest.

Maloney vs. O'Dell
The four game series ends today when hard-throwing Jim Maloney (11-3) of the Reds faces lefty Billy O'Dell (10-3).

Another left-hander, ancient Joe Nuxhall, struck out 11 giants Saturday in hurling the Reds to a 7-3 victory and his 100th win as a major leaguer.

Rainouts and Oklahoma City's recent splurge are giving southern division leader Dallas - Ft. Worth some uneasy moments in the Pacific Coast League.

Oklahoma City pulled within one-half game of the Rangers yesterday by tripping Portland 5-1 in a single game while Dallas-Ft. Worth was rained out of its double header with Spokane.

The rains also hampered Spokane's chances of moving up on northern division leader Tacoma. The Giants split with Hawaii, winning the first game 5-1 but falling 4-1 in the second.

Salt Lake City and Denver won doubleheaders. The Bees edged San Diego 6-4 and 4-0 while the Bees squeezed past Seattle 5-4 and 8-7.

Four Straight Wins

Jerry Nelson led Oklahoma City to victory with a five-hit pitching performance. It was the fourth straight win for the 89ers. Nelson had held the Beavers to two hits going into the ninth.

Offensive weapons for the 89ers were outfielder Carroll Hardy and first baseman Dave Roberts. They drove in two runs each and Roberts banged a home run with one man aboard in the third.

Ted Newman hurled Hawaii to a 4-1 verdict in the second game after the Islanders lost to the Giants in the opener 5-1. Tim Hunt slashed a 350-foot home run for the Islanders in the second inning and then the Hawaiians moved in front for keeps in the fifth when they tallied a single run, adding two more in the next frame for insurance.

Herbel Wins Eighth

Ron Herbel gained his eighth decision against seven reversals in the opener.
Wayne Carlander of Salt Lake

City fired a shutout against San Diego while Gordon Seyfried gave the Bees a 6-4 victory in the first game. It was Seyfried's fifth straight win, although he needed help from Fred Brudette in the eighth.

Salt Lake City now is 1½ games away from third place San Diego. Denver won its sixth and seventh straight games, coming from behind against Seattle in the first to win 5-4 and having to hang on for dear life in the nightcap, winning 8-7.

Demeter Wins It

Ethan Blackaby scored the tying tally in the seven-inning first game and Steve Demeter singled in the winning run moments later. Noel Mickelson collected his first victory in relief while starter Jerry Stephenson was nipped for his ninth loss against two wins.

In the second game the Bees blew an eight run lead and only fine relief work by Johnnie Seale put the damper on the Rainiers. Dennis Ribant had held Seattle scoreless for six innings but then the visitors exploded for three runs in the seventh and four in the eighth.

Ribant got his sixth victory against three losses and Bill Spanswick was the loser and now has a 6-5 mark.
