

Local Loan Tops Pacific; Oxygen Whips Eagle '9'

Local Loan rode the one-hit pitching performance of John Ferrell to an easy 11-0 victory over Pacific Supply Tuesday in the South Suburban Babe Ruth League to continue its supremacy.

Famous Golfers Set Here

Two of golf's brightest and probably most entertaining persons will be at the Reames Golf and Country Club Friday afternoon at 5:30.

They are Chuck and Linda Lewis, a golf professional with one of the largest collections of trick clubs ever assembled, and his daughter, 12-year-old Linda, the world's youngest golf professional and quite a little doll on the side.

Chuck is one of the best known comedy golf stars in the business but little Linda steals the show with her gags and zany shots.

Their Friday afternoon performance should be a real treat to the local divot diggers and will be open to the public according to Jim Warner, pro at Reames. He urges all parents to bring the children.

While here Chuck will challenge the longest hitter to a driving contest, but to make the contest fair Chuck will have his arms tied to his side and be handcuffed while his challenger will hit with a conventional swing.

Among other things, Chuck will be hitting moving golf balls, hitting from a sitting and kneeling position, the machine-gun trick, hitting three swing balls, hitting with a club in each hand, and with clubs with buggy-whips and garden hose for shafts. He'll also use a club seven feet long.

Linda has been hitting golf balls since she was 8-months-old and played in her first tournament at 17 months. Since then she has played in every National Golf Day Tournament. Her best score has been an incredible 39 for nine holes, 86 for 18.

They have appeared on too numerous to mention TV shows but you may have seen Linda hit the ball out of Andy Williams' mouth on Steve Allen's Show and out of Garry Moore's on I've Got A Secret.

Little Miss Lewis will also use all the trick clubs including clubs made of old buggy whips, clubs with swivels, ones weighing four pounds, and a very bent one that she claims to have borrowed from Tommy Bolt (the renowned Mr. Temper).

As a finale she'll try and persuade someone in the gallery to hold a golf tee in his mouth and let her hit a golf ball off of it.

HIGHLIGHT OF MEET
CHICAGO (UPI) — The $100,000 added Gold Cup Stakes will highlight Hawthorne race course's 35-day meeting opening Sept. 10.

in the loop. South Sixth Street Oxygen moved into a tie for second place with Interstate Pump in beating Butte Valley's Eagles, 6-1.

Ferrell had a no-hit game going with one out in the fifth and final frame when the ninth batter in Pacific Co-Op's order slapped a single off him. He walked four and struck out five in the five-inning game.

The Loaners wrapped the game up in the second inning when they tallied seven runs off four base hits and four walks. Ferrell led off with a walk and stole both second and third. Ralph Jennings ground out and Gary Fanning singled to tally Ferrell. The next three batters walked. Percy Franklin, Bob Larman and Terry Preston. Dave Warren struck out but Mike Cunningham singled to score another run. Randy Simonsen doubled to chase two more home and Ferrell cleaned the bags with a triple. Jennings struck out to end the frame.

They got one more run in the third and three in the fourth as insurance. Ferrell had the triple and a single. Fanning was the leader with a double and two singles while Franklin and Larman both had doubles as did Simonsen. Dan Burns got the only hit off Ferrell.

South Sixth had too much for Butte Valley although the Eagles stayed close in the base hit department. Don D'Olive was the winning pitcher in allowing eight hits. He walked only two and struck out four. Fred Fleming was the loser with 10 hits and seven strikeouts, no walks.

Each club scored once in the second but Oxygen took the lead to stay in the second with a single run on a walk to Tom Osa, a stolen base and two hits back-to-back by Greg Huck and Perry Hackler. Hackler had four singles in four trips to the plate.

Nolan Ferrell had a double and single for the winners while Osa slammed a triple. Huck had a double and single in addition to Hackler's four safeties. Fleming led his own losing cause with three singles. Jim Bennett was the only other loser with two hits, a pair of singles.

CHAMPION UPSET — Maria Ester Bueno of Brazil strives to return volley during her women's singles match against America's Billie Jean Moffitt in Wimbledon, England, Tuesday, in semifinals of the 77th All-England Lawn Tennis Championships. Billie Jean, 19-year-old, "upset queen" of women's tennis, defeated Maria, 6-2, 7-5.

McKinley Gains Wimbledon Finals; Moffitt Upsets Foe

WIMBLEDON, Eng. (UPI) — Chuck McKinley, the dynamic tennis slugger from San Antonio, Tex., was favored to whip German upstart Willy Bungert today and reach the men's singles final of the Wimbledon championships for the second time in three years.

The other semifinal match on the famed center court at the All-England Club pitted second-seeded Manuel Santana of Spain against unseeded Fred Stolle of Australia.

McKinley, ranked No. 1 in the States and seeded fourth here, hopes to become the first Yankee to win the men's crown since Tony Trabert walked off with the trophy in 1955. Chunky Chuck almost made it in 1961 when he marched all the way to the final before bowing to Australia's Rod Laver.

Bungert, a 24-year-old student architect, gained the semifinals by surprising top-seeded Roy Emerson of Australia in a five-set thriller Monday. He looked ahead to his match with McKinley with great confidence.

"Of all the players in the semifinals, McKinley is the one I fear least," said the unseeded German upstart. "I don't know why exactly because he has beaten me this season (at Bristol last month). But I understand his game much better than that of the others and I think I can beat him this time."

Santana ruled a slight favorite over Stolle, who eliminated Frank Froehling of Coral Gables, Fla., in the quarter-finals. Chances for the first All-American final in the women's singles since 1937 improved Tuesday when Darlene Hard of Los Angeles and Billie Jean Moffitt of Long Beach, Calif., won their quarter-final matches.

In Thursday's semifinals, Miss Hard will meet top-seeded Margaret Smith of Australia in a rematch of last year's U.S. final at Forest Hills, N.Y., won by the powerful Aussie, and Miss Moffitt will play Ann Haydon-Jones of England.

Miss Moffitt reeled off her second straight upset Tuesday when she whipped Maria Bueno, two-time champion from Brazil, 6-2, 7-5. The 22-year-old Californian surprised second-seeded Lesley Turner of Australia in the previous round.

Miss Hard, a two-time runner-up here, strolled into the semifinals when Jan Lehane, another Aussie, twisted her ankle in the fourth game of the second set and had to retire. Miss Hard won the opening set, 6-1, but was trailing 1-2 in the second when Miss Lehane was injured.

Chiloquin Pulls Biggest Upset Of Season In Downing Merrill

Chiloquin, which was winless in seven games, pulled off the upset of the year in the Klamath Basin Babe Ruth League Tuesday night by beating once-beaten Merrill, 13-2, despite getting only two hits and committing seven errors.

The Gun Store rapped Dugan and Mest in the other contest, 3-0, on a fine two-hit pitching performance by Dave Lyman.

Big Y, Hal's Team Cop Wins

Big Y Market stumped Hal's Sport Shop, 15-8, and Western Oil rocked DARCO, 10-3, Tuesday night in South Suburban Little League action.

The Big Y team went all the way with Rod Allred who gave up only five hits in getting the pitching victory. He whiffed 10 and walked only four. David Selinsky was the loser in hurling the first three frames. Paul DeVoss hurled the final two frames.

Big Y got 12 hits off the two hurlers from Hal's and Alan Pranghofer was one of the leaders with a home run and a single. Dick Stockton had three singles and Danny Taber slapped two singles. Dave Dalton also had a double. The losers were paced by Billy Warren with two singles and Terry Herbert and Tom Gath-wright each with a double.

Western had 12 hits off Joser Keith Clinton while Bobby Kuhn held DARCO to only three. Kuhn aided his cause with a double and single. Bob Ern. had two singles. Ron Blacksmith a home run and single, and Marv Cassidy three singles. Doug Hasskamp had two of the three hits for the losers, a double and single.

musters only a pair of singles of losers Mike McKoen and Russ Smith. But the losers had a sad case of no control and issued an astounding 19 free passes to Chiloquin batters to give the Chiloquin nine the victory. Chiloquin's Joe Hood went the distance and got the pitching win on an eight-hitter.

Hood struck out four and won the game by walking only one batsman. The two hits by him and his mates came off the bats of Daryl Hale and Erwin Miller, both singles and only one figured in the scoring.

Merrill was led at the plate by Mike North and Mike McKoen, each with two singles. Smith slammed a double and single and Ken Haskins a double. Merrill stayed right with Chiloquin with its timely hits and Chiloquin errors. The Merrill team took a 4-0 lead in the first frame on three hits and a hit batsman. They added one more run off a double and an error.

The Chiloquin team took advantage in their half of the second for two runs on four walks and an error. They grabbed the lead, 7-5, in the third with a five-run rally. They were issued seven walks, got both their hits in that frame, two stolen bases and one wild pitch.

Merrill tied the game in the fourth with two runs on one hit, two errors, a balk, passed ball and a stolen base. But Chiloquin regained the one-run margin in the bottom of the frame on three walks, a passed ball and an error.

Both teams mustered five runs in the fifth and final inning. Merrill tallied first on two singles, a sacrifice, four errors and a passed ball and it looked sad for Chiloquin. But Merrill's pitching fell apart and they walked four in a row, had a pair of wild pitches, an error, a strikeout for the first out and another walk and passed ball for the five runs and the clincher.

Lyman hurled a neat game for the Gun Store in allowing only two hits and one walk. He struck out 12 Dugan and Mest batters. The winners picked up seven hits off loser Lee Turner and reliever Jim Tucker. Turner allowed all seven hits.

Gun Store got the only run it needed in the second when Scott Kellstrom led off with a single, advanced on Duane Stark's single and scored on Fred Pusser's hit. The other two runs came in the third when, with one out, Mike Pisan doubled and Lyman walked. Kellstrom filed out but Stark delivered another single to drive them both home.

Stark was the only one with two hits and Lyman had the only extra base blow of the game. Leadoff man Alan Mitchell got both hits for the losers, both singles.
