

Falcons Trip North Salem In 12th On Binney's Home Run, 4-3

Larry Binney's line drive home run over the right field fence in the top of the 12th inning gave the resurrected Klamath Falcons a thrilling 4-3 victory over North Salem's terrific team Thursday afternoon in the second half of an American Legion Holiday Tournament two-day game. Medford won the first game by nipping Albany in 11 innings, 2-1.

The Falcon win over North Salem concluded a two-day tournament and four games—four of the best played games ever seen in Klamath, and the showing indicated that these were four of the finest teams in the state and that the Southern Division has its share of the leaders among the state Legion teams.

This was the second thriller won by the Falcons. They beat Albany Wednesday night, 6-1, on a brilliant one-hit game by Rich Jackson and some fabulous fielding plays. It halted a 12-game winning streak for Albany. It also halted a big streak by North Salem. Both are undefeated in their respective leagues.

The Falcons apparently regained that "certain touch" which makes great teams. They could seem to do little wrong in the two games and used their bats like bludgeons, especially when most needed.

"If we play like this the rest of the year, I don't think we'll have anything to worry about. I'll say this, we gave the fans plenty of baseball," Coach John Paxton of the Falcons said.

The Falcons were the visiting team Thursday and every time they got a run in the top of an inning, the pesky North Salem team rallied to get a run to tie the game in their half of the inning.

Klamath notched one run in the first. After one was out, Binney, who had a tremendous day at the plate with a home run and three singles, got the first of his four hits. He was doubled home by John Parosito's booming hit.

North Salem came right back in the seventh with the aid of three Salem errors. Johnson reached first on an error by the first baseman and Larry Smith singled. Jackson ground out and Johnson was cut down going to third. LeVey Young's single chased Smith home and the rally died there.

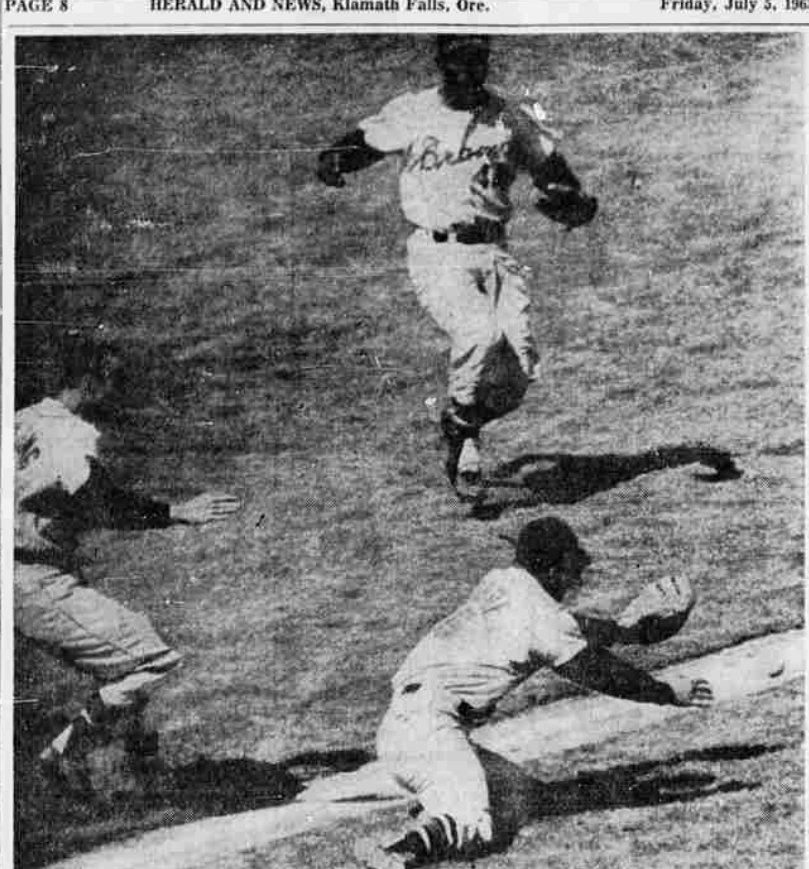

Salem came right back with the tying run in their half when Looney led off with a triple and scored on a single by Lankow. The score remained that way until the ninth when the Falcons tallied again, only to have Salem tie it up again.

Dodgers Take 2½ Game Lead By Topping Cards

By MILTON RICHMAN

The first place Los Angeles Dodgers can blow the pennant again — perish for them — but only if they prove to be twice as bad as they were last year.

The whole thing boils down to a simple case of mathematics. By out-slugging the St. Louis Cardinals, 10-7, for their fourth straight victory Thursday night, the Dodgers not only successfully got over the traditional Fourth of July hurdle but also increased their National League lead to 2½ games.

Exactly a year ago, they led by ½ game but still lost the pennant to the Giants after a memorable three-game playoff. If nothing else, the Dodgers have tradition on their side. The team leading the NL on July 5 has won the pennant 60 per cent of the time from 1900 through 1962.

Entire Cardinal Infield To Start All-Star Contest

CINCINNATI, Ohio (UPI)—Because manager Alvin Dark ignored the players' "mandate," "first" next Tuesday when all four starting infielders will be members of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Usually All-Star managers in picking reserves for their squad stick tightly close to the way the players themselves voted earlier in choosing the starting lineup.

Dark followed that practice in most cases, too — but in picking a second baseman he skipped over Ken Hubbs of the Cubs, who was runner-up to Bill Mazeroski of the Pirates in the voting for the starting team, and instead picked Julian Javier of the Cardinals.

For Mazeroski is bowing out of the game with an injured leg muscle. And that makes Javier a starter right alongside his three Cardinal teammates who were voted into starting berths — first baseman Bill White, shortstop Dick Groat, and third baseman Ken Boyer. It will be the first time in All-Star history that the entire starting infield will be composed of members of the same team.

Dark had to make one extra selection because of Mazeroski's dropout, but instead of another second baseman he picked pitcher Larry Jackson of the Cubs.

Dark ignored the players' vote in two other spots, passing over two Cincinnati Reds who were runners-up in the balloting — left fielder Frank Robinson and center fielder Vada Pinson. His outfield choices were Roberto Clemente of the Pirates, Willie McCovey of the Giants, Duke Snider of the Mets and Stan Musial of the Cardinals.

White Sox Snap Yanks' Winning Skein At Seven

By United Press International
Who's Ralph Houk kidding? He claims there's "still a long way to go" but it figures to be mostly downhill for the Yankees with a fat 4½ game lead and Mickey Mantle due back in a week or so.

Houk is getting a little coy about any pennant talk and that's usually the tipoff on any manager who is beginning to think about which pitcher he will use in the first game of the World Series.

"Right now," Houk says, "I'm more concerned about which pitcher I'll start in Tuesday's All-Star game."

One pitcher who definitely will not start is Yankee southpaw Whitey Ford, who wasn't chosen to the American League All-Star team by Houk.

Ford could beef if he wanted to in view of the fact his 13-3 record makes him the top winner in the league. But he's just as happy to watch the All-Star game on television.

Highest Win Percentage
Whiteley not only struck out 12 and won his ninth in a row by beating the Chicago White Sox, 9-1, in Thursday's opener but he also became the pitcher with the highest winning percentage in baseball history.

Ford's six-hit triumph over the White Sox, who snapped the Yankees' seven-game winning streak by taking the nightcap, 4-2, gave him a lifetime record of 118 victories against 74 defeats for a .718 percentage. He thus surpassed ex-Yankee Spud Chandler's .717 mark among pitchers with 100 or more victories.

The only on off Ford in the opener was Floyd Robinson's ninth inning homer but by that time the Yankees had the game wrapped up, thanks to Elston Howard's 18th homer and Roger Maris' 18th.

Juan Pizarro scored his 10th victory in the nightcap although he needed Hoyt Wilhelm's help in the seventh. Nellie Fox's two-run homer in the sixth off loser Bill Stafford proved to be the winning margin.
