

WED 25 YEARS — Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Crabtree congratulated them on their 25th wedding anniversary June 16 at an open house at the Norlyn Stephens home. Hostesses were Mrs. Stephens, Mrs. Carl Ewing, Mrs. Norman Burns and Mrs. Reuben Larson. Mrs. Dick Holmes and Mrs. John Hope attended the guest book. Mrs. Wesley Carter baked the cake and decorated it with flowers, bells and the couple's names. The Crabtrees were married in Stayton and have resided here for three years. They have six sons, Thomas, Donald, Bob, Jack, David and Kent, and one granddaughter, Becky.

ANNOUNCED — The engagement of Peggy Jean Kellogg and Jerry O'Donnell Anderson is announced by her mother, Mrs. Ellen M. Kellogg. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Anderson. Both young people are graduates of Klamath Union High School. The future bridegroom has attended Evangel College, Springfield, Mo., and is presently a junior at Southern Oregon College. No date has been set for the wedding. — Photo by Anderson

Amaranth Lodge Meets

Friendship Court No. 11, Order of the Amaranth, met in regular session Wednesday, June 19, with Velma Krauss and Frank McCornack, royal matron and patron presiding.

The court room was decorated by the conductress, Pearl Nason, with red and yellow roses. Special honors were paid to the Masons. Favors of miniature gold swords on bows of blue ribbon were pinned on each Mason present.

A special piano solo dedicated to the fathers was presented by Larry Johnson.

The fathers and Masonic members were escorted to the throne by the marshals in the East and West, and were presented with gifts from the royal matron.

It was announced by Thelma Colvin, associate matron, that the "Little Grand" picnic for Amaranth members and their families will be held Aug. 18 at Diamond Lake.

Velma Krauss announced that July and August will be vacation months for Friendship Court. The

Kayce Martz Weds In Methodist Rites

Kayce Ann Martz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence R. Martz, became the bride of Grover C. Dahn, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Dahn, on June 8 at the First Methodist Church. The 8 p.m. double ring ceremony was officiated by the Rev. Ralph Richardson.

For the ceremony, a white aisle cloth led to the altar which was decorated with white gladioli and daisies. On pews along the center aisle were white and yellow bows.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown styled with bodice of Venice lace with bouffant shadow and graceful skirt of nylon organza. The English silk illusion butterfly veil was held in place by delicate organza flowers and bow. On a white prayer book she carried white cattleya orchids and stephanotis.

Five bridal attendants dressed in short mint green silk organza frocks preceded the bride to the altar. Jackie Dahn, Los Angeles, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Barbara Borsting, Mary Jean Hessig, Janice LaGrande and Connie Thomas.

Matching veiled crowns, white gloves and glass slippers completed their outfits. Each carried
