VACATION FOOT

The days draw near when you will be taking off for a vacation. Some of you will be off to distant parts of the United States, Europe or South America. But, no matter the destinations, you travelers will have one thing in common—sight-seers' feet.

The best remedy for this is a 10-minute soak in warm-to-hot soapsuds. Massage and scrub toes with a brush. Take along a pumice stone and use it on the backs of your heels and the soles of the feet. You will find that a massage as part of the nightly soaking will keep your feet in shape, so you will enjoy your visit to different cities more.
